PART IV

ESTABLISHMENT OF STANDARDS

16.-(1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Institute and subject to the provisions of subsection (2) and (3), by notice in the Gazette, declare any mark which has been approved by the Institute in respect of any standard framed by the Institute for any commodity, or the manufacture, production, processing or treatment of any commodity, to be a standards mark in respect thereof, and may in like manner cancel or amend any such mark.

Standardiza-
tions marks

(2) Every such notice shall contain such information in regard to the relevant standard or amendment thereof as the Minister considers necessary.

(3) No mark which is identical with any trade mark registered in respect of any commodity in accordance with the Trade Marks Ordinance or so nearly resembles such mark as to be likely to be mistaken for it shall be declared to be a standards mark in respect of that or any similar commodity or in respect of the manufacture, production, processing or treatment of that or any similar commodity, and no mark identical with a mark which has been duly declared to be a standards mark, or so nearly resembling such a mark as to be likely to be mistaken for it, shall be registered as a trade mark under that Ordinance in respect of any commodity.

Cap. 394

(4) After the coming into operation of a notice under subsection (1) of this section no person shall apply any standards mark mentioned in such notice to any commodity except under a licence issued by the Institute or a person acting under its authority and unless that commodity complies with the relevant standard or has been manufactured, produced, processed or treated in accordance therewith.

(5) Any person who-

- (a) applies a standards mark to any receptacle or covering of any commodity or to any label attached to any commodity or any receptacle or covering thereof; or
- (b) places or encloses any commodity in a receptacle or covering to which a standards mark has been applied, or in a receptacle or cover to which is attached a label to which any such mark has been applied.

shall. for the purposes of subsection (4) of this section. be deemed to have applied that standards mark to that Commodity-

(6) The issue of licence under subsection (4) shall be in the discretion of the Institute or the person acting under its authority, and any such licence may be issued subject to conditions to be specified therein and subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

(7) The Institute may at its discretion revoke or suspend any licence issued under the section or vary any condition attached to any licence.

(8) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, or who contravenes any of the conditions which may be specified in a licence issued to him shall be guilty of an offence.

Compulsory standard

17.-(1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Institute and subject to the provisions of this section, by notice in the Gazette-

- (a) declare a standard for any commodity or for the manufacture, production, processing or treatment of any commodity to be a compulsory standard in relation thereto with effect from a date specified in such notice being a date not less than two months after the date of the publication thereof;
- (b) amend any compulsory standard in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a);
- (c) prescribe a standards mark for any commodity which complies with a compulsory standard or which has been manufactured, produced, processed or treated in accordance therewith and may cancel or amend any such mark.

(2) The Institute shall, at least two months before making any recommendation for the purpose of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), publish in the Gazette a preliminary notice setting forth the precise purport of the recommendation proposed and shall call upon all interested persons to lodge any objections in writing with the Institute in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

(3) Every person who has lodged an objection in accordance with subsection (2) shall be entitled to appear before the Council and be heard, either personally or through a representative, at such time and place as the Council shall determine, and publication of the relevant notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall not take place if any such objection is upheld or until after every such objector has had an opportunity to be heard and the reasons for the rejection of any such objection have been furnished in writing to that objector or his representative.

(4) Every notice published by virtue of this section shall contain full particulars of the relevant standard or the amendment thereof.

(5) Whenever the Minister has, under subsection (1) of this section, declared a standard to be a compulsory standard no person shall sell the commodity to which the standard relates after the date specified unless it complies with that standard or has been manufactured, produced, processed or treated in accordance herewith.

(6) After a standards mark has been prescribed in accordance with paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section no person shall apply that mark to any commodity except under and by virtue of a licence issued to him under this Act and unless that commodity or its manufacture, production, processing or treatment complies with the compulsory standard relative thereto.

(7) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of subsection (5) or (6) of this section shall be guilty of an offence.

(8) The provisions of subsections (3) and (5) of section 16 shall apply with reference to a standards mark prescribed under subsection (1) of this section, and the provisions of subsection (6), (7) and (8) of the said section 16 shall apply respectively to the issue of a licence and a licence issued under this section.

(9) Where a person is charged with contravening subsection (5) of this section it shall be a good defence for him to prove to the satisfaction of the court that he had no knowledge nor any reasonable means of ascertaining whether before or at the time of sale, that the commodity specified in the charge did not comply with the standard relating thereto.

18. Any person who is aggrieved by-

(a) the refusal of the Institute to issue any licence;

(b) any condition attached to a licence; or

(c) the variation, cancellation or suspension of any licence, may, within fourteen days of the notification of the act complained of being received by him, appeal in writing to the Minister who shall as soon as may reasonably be practicable, either confirm, set aside or vary the decision complained of, and the Minister's decision on any such appeal shall be final and shall not be subject to review by any court.

- Secrecy of information 29. Any person who is or has been engaged in the administration of this Act and who discloses, except for the purpose of the exercise of his functions or when required to do so by a court or under any written law, any information acquired by him in the exercise or purported exercise of his functions under this Act to any other person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to penalties prescribed by section 23.
- Victimization 30.-(1) No employer shall terminate the employment of any person employed by him or reduce the rate or remuneration of such person or otherwise alter the conditions of his employment to conditions less favourable to him or alter his position to his disadvantage relative to other persons employed by such employer by reason only of the fact that he believes or suspects (whether or not such belief or suspicion is justified or correct) that person has given any information which he could be required under this Act to, give to an inspector or has complied with any lawful requirement of an inspector or has even evidence in any proceedings under this Act.
- (2) An employer who contravenes any of the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed by section 23, and the court convicting an employer of any such contravention may in addition to, any sentence which it imposes, order such employer-
- (a) to restore the rate of remuneration, or conditions of employment, or the position of an employee to that which existed immediately before, and with effect from, the date of the reduction or alteration which gives rise to the conviction;
- (b) to pay to any employee whose dismissal is the subject of such conviction a sum estimated by the court to be equal to his total remuneration for any period not exceeding twelve months calculated according to the rate at which he was being remunerated at the time of his dismissal.
- (3) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (2), if the court is satisfied that the employee's employment was terminated or that his remuneration was reduced or that his terms of employment were adversely varied within twelve months of such employee having given any information to an inspector or complied with a requirement made by an inspector or given evidence in any proceedings under this Act the court may, unless it is satisfied to the contrary, presume that such termination of employment, reduction of remuneration or variation of terms of employment was made by the employer because of the employee having given the information, complied with the requirement or given the evidence, as the case may be.
- (4) An order made under paragraph (b), of subsection (2) may be enforced as if it were a judgment of a civil court in favour of the employee concerned.
- Regulations 31.-(1) The Minister, after consultation with the Council, may make regulations generally for the better carrying out of the provisions and purposes of this Act.

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section, such regulations may-
- (a) make provisions for matters, in respect of which fees shall be payable under this Act or the regulations;
 - (b) prescribe the amount of any such fees and the persons who shall be liable for payment thereof;
 - (c) prescribe forms to be used under this Act and the regulations;
 - (d) provide for matters connected with appeals under this Act;
 - (e) make provisions for requiring persons to supply information relevant to the provisions of this Act and the regulations;
 - (f) prescribe anything which under this Act is to be prescribed, and in particular the procedure to be followed by the Institute in the performance of any of its functions under this Act.
- (3) There may be annexed to the breach of any subsidiary legislation made under this Act a penalty not exceeding a fine of fifteen thousand shillings or a term of imprisonment not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

32. The Minister may, by directions under his hand, prescribe the fees and allowances payable to the members of the Council.
