THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

No. 29 OF 1974

President

r ASSENT.

20TH...AUGUST, 1974

An Act to amend certain Financial Laws

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

1. This Act may be cited as the Financial Laws (Miscellaneous Amendments) (No. 2) Act, 1974.

2. The financial laws specified in the first and second columns of the Schedule hereto are amended in the manner specified in the third column of the said Schedule.

3. The amendment to the Pensions Ordinance shall be deemed to have been effective as from the 1st day of May, 1974.

Short title

Amendment of certain financial laws

Amendment to Pensions Ordinance to be effective from 1st May, 1974 Cap. 371

No. 29 Financial Laws (Miscellaneous Amendments)

SCHEDULE

COLUMN 2 COLUMN 1 The Pensions Odinance Cap. 371

COLUMN 3

Add immediately below section 11 the following new section:-

"Pension not to be less than the prescribed minmum

11A. No officer who is ordinarily resident in the United Republic shall, for so long as he continues to be so resident in the United Republic, be paid a pension of less than four thousand and eighty shillings a year:

1974

Provided that-

- (a) where any officer is m receipt of a pension under this Ordinance in relation to his service under the Government as well as his service in other public service the provisions of this section shall apply so that the aggregate of the pension so paid shall not be less than four thousand and eighty shillings a year;
- (b) the provisions of this section shall apply only in relation to the pension to which an officer is entitled after commutation of pension, if any, and where an officer elects to commute his pension the gratuity payable pursuant to such commutation, shall be computed as if this section had not been enacted;
- (q) the provisions of this section shall not apply to an officer who is not a citizen of the United Republic.

Acts 1966 No. 12 Acts 1972 No. 2

2

Bank of Tanzania Act, 1966

The Motor Vehicles (Tax on Registration and Transfer) Act, 1972

A MAMENT Section 21 is repealed.

In section 16, add immediately below subsection (2) the following new subsections:-

16, add immediately below subsection (2) the following new subsections:

"(3) Where the owner of a motor vehicle seized under the provisions of subsection (2) fails, within the period of six months from the date of such seizure, to pay the whole of the tax and penalties due in respect of the vehicle, the Principal Secretary to the Treasury may, at his discretion, cause the vehicle to be sold by public auction and where such vehicle is so sold or is sold in accordance with paragraph (a) of the proviso hereto, a certificate in writing signed by a licensing authority to the effect that the vehicle was sold pursuant to a direction given by the Principal Secretary to the Treasury under this subsection and was purchased by the person named in the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that such person so named in the certificate is the owner of the vehicle and has a lawful title thereto as such owner:

Provided that-

(a) the Principal Secretary may at his discretion, authorize the sale of such vehicle to a parastatal organization or an ujamaa village by a private tender at a price. which, in the opinion of the Principal Secretary to the Treasury, is a fair market price having regard to the vehicles original cost, age and general condition and also to any taxes fees and other charges payable in respect thereof:

2 No. 29

Financial Laws (Miscellaneous Amendments)

1974

SCHEDULE - Contd.

COLUMN I COLUMN 2

COLUMN 3

- (b) nothing in this subsection shall be construed as exempting any such purchaser from liability to pay any customs duty; sales tax, or other taxes and charges which would have been payable in respect of the vehicle by the owner thereof upon sale by him of the vehicle to a purchaser m Tanganyika.
- (4) The proceeds of an sale under subsection (3) shall first be applied towards the payment of any tax, penalty, storage charges or other expenses payable m respect of the vehicle and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the vehicle:

Provided that if such owner fails to lodge with the Principal Secretary to the Treasury or a licensing authority, within six months of the sale of the vehicle, a claim in writing for such payment any such sum shall be forfeited to the United Republic."

Passed in the National Assembly on the twenty-fourth day of July, 1974.

MMwindadi

Acting Clerk of the National Assembly