 - (iii) under any agreement between spouses where they are separated in such circumstances that the separation is likely to be permanent;
- (e) any amount deemed to be the income of any person under this Act.

(3) For the avoidance of doubts it is hereby declared that where an individual-

- (a) receives benefit of domestic services from a member of his family;
- (b) occupies any premises owned by him; or
- (c) utilizes any agricultural product or handicraft product produced by him for his own consumption or use or for the consumption or use by the members of his family without receiving any monetary consideration from any such member of his family for such consumption or use, the value of such services, occupation or product so used shall be deemed not to be income.

4. For the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) (i) of subsection (2) of section 3-

- (a) where any business is carried on or exercised partly within and partly outside the United Republic by a resident person, the whole of the gains or profits from such business shall be deemed to have accrued in or to have been derived from the United Republic;
- (b) the gains or profits of a partner from a partnership shall be the sum of-
 - (i) any remuneration payable to him by the partnership together with any interest on capital so payable, less any interest on capital payable by him to the partnership; and
 - (ii) his share of the total income of the partnership, calculated after deducting therefrom the tax payable thereon, and the total of any remuneration and interest on capital payable to any partner by the partnership and after adding any interest on capital payable by any partner to the partnership,

Income from business

and where the partnership makes a loss, calculated in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (ii), his gains or profits shall be the excess, if any, of the amount set out in sub-paragraph (i) over his share of such loss;

- (c) any sum received under any insurance against loss of profits, or received by way of damages or compensation for loss of profits, shall be deemed to be gains or profits of the year of income in respect of which it is received;
- (d) where in computing gains or profits for any year of income any expenditure or loss has been deducted, or a deduction in respect of any reserve or provision to meet any liability has been made, and in a later year of income the whole or part of such expenditure or loss is recovered, or the whole or part of such liability is released, or the retention in whole or part of such reserve or provision has become unnecessary, than any sum so recovered or released or no longer required as a reserve or provision shall be deemed to be gains or profits of the year of income in which it is recovered or released or no longer required:

Provided that if the person so chargeable with tax in respect of any such sum requests the Commissioner in writing to exercise his power under this proviso, the Commissioner may divide such sum into so many equal portions, not exceeding six, as he may consider fit, and one such portion shall be taken into account in computing the gains or profits of such person for the year of income in respect of which such sum is so deemed to be gains or profits and for each of the previous years of income corresponding to the number of such portions;
- (e) where under the Second Schedule it is provided that a balancing charge shall be made, or a sum shall be treated as a trading receipt, for any year of income, the amount thereof shall be deemed to be gains or profits of such year of income.

5.-(1) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) (h) of subsection (2) of section 3 of this Act, any amount paid to-

- (a) a person who is, or was at the time of the employment or when the services were rendered, a resident person in respect of any employment or services rendered by him in the United Republic or outside the United Republic; or
- (b) a non-resident person in respect of any employment with or services rendered to an employer who is resident in the United Republic or the permanent establishment in the United Republic of an employer who is not resident, shall be deemed to have accrued in or to have been derived from the United Republic.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) (ii) of subsection (2) of section 3 of this Act, "gains or profits" includes-

- (a) any wages, salary, leave pay, sick pay, payment in lieu of leave, fees, commission, bonus, gratuity, or any subsistence, traveling, entertainment or other allowance received in respect of employment or services rendered, and any amount so received in respect of employment or services rendered in a year of income other than the year of income in which it is received shall be deemed to be income in respect of such other year of income:

Provided that—

- (i) where the Commissioner is satisfied that any such subsistence, travelling, entertainment or other allowance represents solely the reimbursement to, the recipient of an amount expended by him wholly and exclusively in the production of his income from the employment or services rendered then in the calculation of the gains or profits of the recipient he shall exclude any such allowance or expenditure;
 - (ii) where any such amount is received in respect of a year of income which expired earlier than five years prior to the year of income in which it was received, or prior to the year of income in which the employment or services ceased, if earlier, such amount shall, for the purposes of the computation of the tax payable thereon, be allocated equally between the year of income in which it is received or, if the employment or services ceased in an earlier year of income, between such earlier year of income, and the five years of income immediately preceding such year of income in which such amount is so received or, as the case may be, such earlier year of income in which the employment or service ceased, and each such portion allocated to any such year of income shall be deemed to, be income of that year of income in addition to any other income in that year of income;
 - (iii) the provisions of section 8 shall apply for the purpose of the computation of tax on commuted pension;
- (b) save as otherwise expressly provided in this section, the value of any benefit, advantage, or facility of whatsoever nature, the aggregate value whereof is not less than one thousand shillings, granted in respect of employment or services rendered:
- (c) any amount received as compensation for the termination of any contract of employment or services, whether or not provision is made in such contract for the payment of such compensation:
- Provided that, except in the case of a director, other than a whole time service director, of a corporation the directors whereof have a controlling interest therein—
- (i) where such contract is for a specified term, the amount included in gains or profits under this sub-paragraph shall not exceed the amount which would have been received in respect of the unexpired period of such contract and shall be deemed to have accrued evenly in such unexpired period;
 - (ii) where such contract is for an unspecified term and provides for compensation on the termination thereof, such compensation shall be deemed to have accrued in the period immediately following such termination at a rate equal to the rate per annum of the gains or profits from such contract received immediately prior to such termination;

[s. 5]

(iii) where such contract is for an unspecified term and does not provide for compensation on the termination thereof, any compensation paid on the termination thereof shall be deemed to have accrued in the period immediately following such termination at a rate equal to the rate per annum of the gains or profits from such contract received immediately prior to such termination, but the amount so included in gains or profits shall not exceed the amount of three years' remuneration at such rates;

(d) any balancing charge under Part II of the Second Schedule;

(e) the value, ascertained in accordance with subsection (3) of premises provided by an employer for occupation by his employee for residential purposes:

Provided that the value of the premises shall be deemed not to be such "gains or profits" in any case where—

(i) the monthly total income of the employee, excluding the value of the premises, does not exceed four hundred shillings;

(H) the employee being an employee of the Government or of a parastatal organization pays rent on the basis of a general scheme relating to rents chargeable to such employees in proportion to their monthly income from such employment,

(f) any amount paid by an employer as a premium for an insurance on the life of his employee and for the benefit of such employee or any of his dependants other than such an amount paid to an approved pension scheme or an approved pension fund.

(3) In paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of this section the value of premises, excluding the value of any furniture or other contents so provided, shall be deemed to be-

(a) in the case of a director of a corporation, other than a whole-time service director, an amount equal to fifteen per cent of his total income or thirty-six thousand shillings, whichever is the lesser, excluding the value of such premises;

(b) in the case of any other employee, an amount equal to fifteen per cent of the gains or profits from his employment or thirty-six thousand shillings, whichever is the lesser, excluding the value of such premises, subject to a limit of the rent paid by the employer if this is paid under an agreement made at arms length with a third party:

Provided that-

(i) where any person occupies such premises for part only of a year of income then the value, ascertained under the foregoing provisions, shall be reduced by such proportion as may be just and reasonable having regard to the period of occupation and the yearly rate of gains or profits from employment;

(ii) where the employee pays rent to this employer for such premises the value, ascertained under the foregoing provisions, shall be reduced by the amount of such rent;

[ss. 5-7]

(iii) where part only of any premises is so provided, the Commissioner may reduce the value, as ascertained under the foregoing provisions, to such amount as he may consider just and reasonable.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subsection (2) of this section "gains or profits" shall not include,

(a) the expenditure on passages between the United Republic and any place outside the United Republic borne by the employer:

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply to expenditure other than expenditure on the provision of passages for the benefit of an employee recruited or engaged outside the United Republic and who is in the United Republic solely for the purpose of serving the employer and is not a citizen of the United Republic;

(b) in the case of a full-time employee (which expression shall not include any director, other than a whole time service director, of a corporation) the value of any medical services provided by the employer; and

(c) subject to subsection (1) (f) the amount paid by the employer as contribution to any unapproved pension fund or unapproved provident fund or scheme, which together with other contributions by the employer, to any approved or unapproved pension fund or scheme or any approved or unapproved provident fund or scheme and contributions by the employee to any approved pension scheme or fund does not exceed twenty per cent of the gross remuneration of the employee, where the benefits are for the employee only and twenty-four per cent of the gross remuneration of the employee where the benefits are payable also in respect of the widow or widower or dependant of such employee;

(d) the amount received by an employee from an approved provident fund.

6. For the purposes of paragraph (a) (iii) of subsection (2) of section 3 of this Act, "gains or profits" shall include any royalty, rent, premium or like consideration received for the use or occupation of property.

Income from the use of property

7.-(1) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 3—

Income from dividends

- (a) a dividend paid by a resident corporation shall be deemed to be income of the year of income in which it was payable;
- (b) when, in relation to any corporation that is being wound up voluntarily, any profits whether earned before or during the winding up are distributed (whether in cash or otherwise) the distribution shall be deemed to be payment of a dividend;
- (c) where any corporation issues debentures or redeemable preference shares to any of its shareholders for a sum less than their nominal value or redeemable value, whichever is the greater, the issue of such debentures or redeemable preference shares shall be deemed to include a payment of a dividend on the shares held by the shareholders of an amount equal to such excess:

[ss. 7-8]

Provided that this paragraph shall not apply if the sum paid for such debentures or redeemable preference shares is ninety-five per cent or more of their nominal value or redeemable value, whichever is the greater;

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 3, a dividend received by resident corporation shall be deemed not to be income chargeable to tax:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to a dividend received by a corporation which controls, directly or indirectly, less than twenty five per cent of the voting power of the corporation paying the dividends and which is not a financial institution specified in the Fourth Schedule.

Income from pensions, etc.

8.-(1) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 3, any pension received by a resident individual from a pension fund or pension scheme, established outside the United Republic shall be deemed to have accrued in or to have been derived from the United Republic to the extent to which it relates to employment or services rendered by the individual, or the husband or parent of he individual, in the United Republic; and the amount so derived shall be the proportion of the total pension which the length of such employment or services in the United Republic, including periods of leave, if any, earned thereby bears to the total length of employment or services in respect of which the pension is paid.

(2) For the purposes of this Act any pension or retirement annuity received by a non-resident individual from a pension fund or pension scheme established in the United Republic or under an annuity contract made in the United Republic shall be deemed to have accrued in or to have been derived from the United Republic.

(3) For the purposes of this Act any pension received in respect of employment by or services rendered to the Community or a Corporation within the Community shall be deemed to have accrued in or to have been derived from the United Republic—

- (a) if received by a resident individual; or
- (b) where received by a non-resident individual, if the person making the payment of pension is resident in the United Republic.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section 3 of this Act, the first twenty-four thousand shillings of the total pensions and retirement annuities, other than commuted pension, received by a resident individual in any year of income shall be taxed at rates one half of those normally applicable, and for purposes of assessment under this subsection any pension or retirement annuity income received shall be deemed to be those portions of an individual's total income as are taxable at the lowest of the rates applicable to successive portions of his total income.

(5) Where any employee exercises the option of receiving commuted pension by surrendering not more than twenty five per cent of his total pension entitlement such commuted pension shall be deemed not to be income for the purposes of this Act.

9.-(1) Where a non-resident person carries on the business of ship-owner, charterer or air transport operator and any ship or aircraft owned or chartered by him calls at any port or airport in the United Republic, the gains or profits from such business from the carriage of passengers who embark, or cargo or mail which is embarked, in the United Republic shall be such percentage of the full amount received on account of such carriage as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable; and such gains or profits shall be deemed to be income derived from the United Republic:

Income of certain non-resident person deemed derived from the United Republic

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any gains or profits from the carriage of passengers who embark, or cargo or mail which is embarked, in the United Republic solely as a result of transshipment.

(2) Where a non-resident person carries on in the United Republic the business of transmitting messages by cable or by radio communication, then the gains or profits from such business shall be such percentage as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable of the full amount received from the transmission of messages which are transmitted by any apparatus established in the United Republic whether or not such messages originated in the United Republic, and such gains or profits shall be deemed to be income derived from the United Republic.

10. For the purposes of this Act, where a resident person or it person having a permanent establishment in the United Republic makes a payment to any other person in respect of-

- (a) any management or professional fee;
- (b) any royalty;
- (c) any dividend;
- (d) any interest;
- (e) the use of any property-,

the amount thereof shall be - deemed to be income of the payee which accrued in or was derived from the United Republic:

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any such payment as aforesaid unless the payment arises out of or is in connection with an activity or transaction, or intended activity or transaction, wholly or partly in the United Republic, or in the case of a payment of interest, unless such interest is in respect of moneys raised for the purposes of an activity or transaction wholly or partly in the United Republic.

[ss. 11-12]

Trust income,
etc., deemed income of trustee, beneficiary,
etc.

11. (1) Any income chargeable to tax under this Act and received by any person in his capacity as a trustee shall be deemed to be income of such trustee.

(2) Any amount, received as income in any year of income, by any person beneficially entitled thereto from any trustee in his capacity as such, or paid out of trust income by the trustee on behalf of such person, shall, subject to this Act, be deemed to be income of such person, and to the extent that any such amount is received or so paid out of income chargeable to tax under this Act on such trustee it shall be deemed to be income—

(a) in any case other than that of an annuity directed to be paid free of tax-

W of such gross amount as would, after deduction of tax at the rate paid or payable on such income by such trustee, be equal to the amount received or so paid; and

(ii) that has borne tax at such rate;

(b) in the case of an annuity directed to be paid free of tax, of such gross amount as is equal to the amount of such annuity together with the amount of the sums paid by such trustee to the annuitant to meet the liability of the annuitant to tax on such annuity:

Provided that in the case of any amount paid by an executor or an administrator to a person entitled thereto under the will or on intestacy (otherwise than under any settlement under the will) the amount so paid shall be deemed not to be chargeable income of the person to whom or on whose behalf it is paid where tax at the administration rate has been paid on such amount.

agreements or hirings

12. (1) Where-

(a) in computing gains or profits a deduction is allowable in respect of a payment made under a contract of hiring of an asset of any description; and

(b) before, at or after the time when the payment is made the parties to the contract enter into an agreement under which the ownership of, or any interest in, the asset passes to the person who made the payment or to an associate of his in return for a capital sum which is less than the true market value of the asset at that date, the person or associate, as the case may be, shall be chargeable to tax on the amount by which the true market value exceeds that capital sum.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to payments made under a contract of hiring entered into before 1st July, 1973.

(3) In this section-

"asset" means any description of property or rights other than land or rights or interests in or over land;

PART III

EXEMPTION FROM TAX

Certain
income exempt from tax, etc.

14.--(I) Notwithstanding anything in Part 11, the income specified in the First Schedule which accrued in or was derived from the United Republic or such other of the Partner States as may be so specified, shall be exempt from tax to the extent so specified.

(2) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, amend, vary or replace the First Schedule.

Minister may exempt incomes
from tax

15. (1) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette provide —

(a) that any income or class of incomes accrued in or derived from the United Republic shall be exempt from tax to the extent specified in such order; or

(b) that any exemption under the First Schedule shall cease to have effect either generally or to such extent as may be specified in such order.

(2) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, exempt from tax such portion of the income of an agricultural marketing organization as the Minister is satisfied has been or will be paid into a reserve fund established by such organization for price stabilization and every such exemption shall be subject to such administrative and accounting regulations as the Minister may, by order, specify either generally or in relation to any such particular organization.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) "agricultural marketing organization" means any corporation or other body of persons charged by any written law with the responsibility of an orderly marketing of any agricultural or pastoral product, and "agricultural product" in this subsection includes livestock and any product of livestock.

PART IV

ASCERTAINMENT OF TOTAL INCOME

Deductions
allowed

16.--(1) For the purpose of ascertaining the total income of any person for any year of income there shall, subject to section 17, be deducted all expenditure incurred in such year of income which is expenditure wholly and exclusively incurred by him in the production of such income and where under section 31 any income of an accounting period ending on some day other than the last day of such year of income is, for the purpose of ascertaining total income for any year of income, taken to be income for any year of income, then such expenditure incurred during such period shall be treated as having been incurred during such year of income.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) of this section, in computing for any year of income the gains or profits chargeable to tax under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 3, the following amounts shall be deducted-

- (a) bad debts incurred in the production of such gains or profits which the Commissioner considers to have become bad, and doubtful debts so incurred to the extent that they are estimated to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have become bad, during such year of income;
- (b) any deductions to be made under the Second Schedule in respect of such year of income;
- (c) any expenditure of a capital nature incurred during such year of income by the owner or occupier of farm land for the prevention of soil erosion;
- (d) any expenditure of a capital nature incurred in such year of income by any person on legal costs and stamp duties in connection with the acquisition of premises used or to be used by him for the purposes of his business;
- (e) any expenditure, other than expenditure referred to in paragraph (f), incurred in connection with any business before the date of commencement of such business where such expenditure would have been deductible under this section if incurred after such date, so, however, that such expenditure shall be deemed to have been incurred on the date on which such business commenced;
- (f) in the case of the owner of premises, any sums expended by him during such year of income for structural alterations to the premises where such expenditure is necessary to maintain the existing rent :
- Provided that no deduction shall be made for the cost of any extension to, or replacement of, such premises;
- (g) the amount considered by the Commissioner to be just and reasonable as representing the diminution in value of any implement, utensil or similar article, not being machinery or plant in respect of which a deduction may be made under the Second Schedule, employed in the production of gains or profits;
- (h) any entrance fee or annual subscription paid during such year of income to a trade association which has made an election under subsection (2) of section 21;
- (i) in the case of gains or profits of the owner of any land from the sale of, or the grant of the right to fell, standing timber which was growing on such land at the time such owner acquired such land-
- (i) where such land was acquired for valuable consideration, so much of such consideration as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable as representing the cost of such standing timber; or

- (ii) where no valuable consideration was given for the land, so much of such amount as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable as representing the value of such standing timber at the time such owner acquired such land, as is attributable to such timber sold during such year of income;
- (j) in the case of gains or profits from the sale of standing timber by a person who has purchased the right to fell such timber, so much of the price paid for such right as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable as attributable to the timber sold during such year of income-
- (k) any expenditure of a capital nature incurred in such year of income by the owner or tenant of any agricultural land, as defined in the Second Schedule, on clearing such land, or on clearing and planting thereon permanent or semi-permanent crops;
- (l) any expenditure incurred in such year of income in mining a specified mineral, and for the purposes of this paragraph "expenditure" shall have the meaning assigned to it by paragraph 18 of the Second Schedule as if specified minerals were not excluded from the operation of that paragraph;
- (in) any expenditure incurred by any person for the purposes of any business carried on by him being-
 - (i) -expenditure of a capital nature on scientific research; or
 - (ii) expenditure not of a capital nature on scientific research; or
 - (iii) a sum paid to any scientific research association approved for the purposes of this paragraph by the Commissioner as being an association which has as its object the undertaking of scientific research related to the class of business to which such business belongs; or
 - (iv) a sum paid to any university, college, research institute or other similar institution approved for the purposes of this paragraph by the Commissioner for such scientific research as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (iii) of this paragraph;
- (n) any sum contributed in such year of income by an employer to a national provident fund or other retirement benefits scheme established for employees in the United Republic by the provisions of any written law;
- (o) any sum contributed in such year of income by an employer to a provident fund or a pension fund approved for the purposes of Part V and the sum so deductible shall be determined in accordance with section 25;
- (p) any expenditure on advertising in connection with any business to the extent that the commissioner considers just and reasonable, and for this purpose "expenditure on advertising" includes any expenditure intended to advertise or promote whether directly or indirectly, the sale of the goods or services provided by such business.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1) of this section in ascertaining the total income of any person for any year of income the following amounts shall be deducted-

- (a) the amount of interest paid in respect of such year of income by such person upon any money borrowed' by him and employed wholly and exclusively in the production of income chargeable under this Act to the extent to which it is not expense deductible in ascertaining the gains or profits chargeable under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 3;
- (b) any amount paid during such year of income by such person which is chargeable under paragraph (d) of the said subsection (2) of section 3, or would be so chargeable 'if it were derived from the United Republic:

Provided that, if such person was entitled during such year of income to any income which is not so charged, the deduction under this paragraph shall be such proportion of such amount as his total income under this Act ascertained before any deduction allowable under this paragraph bears to his income from all sources for such year of income;

- (c) in the case of a partner, the amount of the excess, if any, of his share of any loss incurred by the partnership, calculated after deducting the total of any remuneration and interest on capital payable to any partner by the partnership and after adding any interest on capital payable by any partner to the partnership, over the sum of any such remuneration and any such interest so payable to, him less any such interest so payable by him;
- (d) the amount of any loss arrived at in computing for such year of income gains or profits chargeable to tax under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 3 other than any loss incurred in any business which, having regard to the nature of the business, to the principal occupation of the owner, partners, shareholders or other persons having a beneficial interest therein, to the relationship of any such person or to any other relevant factor, the Commissioner considers reasonable to regard it as not being carried on mainly with a view to the realization of profits; and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, a business shall be deemed not to be carried on for any year of income with a view to the realization of profits where more than one quarter of the amount of the revenue expenditure incurred in such business in such year relates to goods, services amenities or benefits, or to the production of goods, services, amenities or benefits, which are of a personal or domestic nature enjoyed by the owner, partners, shareholders or other persons having a beneficial interest in the business or a member of the family or the domestic establishment of any such person.

(4) Where the ascertainment of the total income of any person results in a deficit for any year of income, the amount of such deficit shall be an allowable deduction in ascertaining the total income of such person for the next succeeding year of income but not so as to be a deduction either wholly or in part in ascertaining such total income for more than three such consecutive succeeding years of income, or such greater number of consecutive succeeding years of income as the Minister may, in any case, by order under his hand prescribe:

Provided that any deficit for the year of income 1973 shall be regarded for the purposes of this subsection as having arisen entirely in that year of income.

No. 22

(5) Where pursuant to and in compliance with an order made under section 12 of the Companies (Regulation of Dividends and Surpluses and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1972 a company incorporated outside Tanganyika (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as "the foreign company") causes a company to be incorporated under the Companies Ordinance (such company so incorporated is hereinafter in this subsection referred to as "the local company") and transfers to such local company all of its assets, liabilities and business in Tanganyika, and the Minister is satisfied that the local company is a company over which the foreign company has control or that both the foreign company and the local company are controlled by the same person or persons, he may, by order under his hand, direct that the local company shall be entitled to a deduction, in the year of income in which it succeeds to the business of the foreign company, in respect of such part of any deficit in the total income of the foreign company of the year of income in which it ceased to carry on business in Tanganyika as is attributable to any losses incurred by the foreign company in the business in that year of income or in the preceding two years of income, and where any such order is made the provisions of subsection (4) shall apply in relation to the business carried on by the foreign company prior to such transfer and the business carried on by the local company subsequent to the transfer as if both the businesses were one business carried on by the same person:

Provided that no such deduction shall exceed the loss incurred on operations in the United Republic during that year of income and in the preceding two years of income.

(6) A person to whom this subsection applies who has succeeded to any business or to a share therein, either as a beneficiary under the will or on the intestacy of a deceased person who carried on, solely or in partnership, that business shall be entitled to a deduction in the year of income in which he so succeeds in respect of such part of any deficit in the total income of the deceased for his last year of income as is attributable to any losses incurred by the deceased in the business in that year of income or in earlier years of income to the same extent as the deceased would have been entitled to such deduction had he not died.

(7) Subsection (6) shall apply to a person who is the widow, widower or child of the deceased person and to a person who was an employee or partner of the deceased person in that business; and, where there are two or more such persons, each such person shall be entitled to a deduction of so much of the whole amount deductible as his share in the business under the will or on the intestacy bears to the sum of the shares of all such persons.

[ss. 16-18]

(8) For the purposes of this section-

- (a) "scientific research" means activities in the fields of natural or applied science for the extension of human knowledge, and when applied to any particular business includes-
- (i) any scientific research which may lead to, or facilitate, an extension of such business or of businesses of that class;
 - (ii) any scientific research of a medical nature which has a special relation to the welfare of workers employed in that business, or in businesses of that class;
- (b) expenditure of a capital nature on scientific research does not include any expenditure incurred in the acquisition of rights in, or arising out of, scientific research but, subject thereto, does include all expenditure incurred for the prosecution of, or the provision of facilities for the prosecution of, scientific research.

17.-(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, for the purposes of ascertaining 'the total income of any person for any year of income, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of-

Deductions
not allowed

- (a) any expenditure or loss which is not wholly and exclusively incurred by him in the production of the income;
 - (b) any capital expenditure, or any loss, diminution or exhaustion of capital.
- (2) No deduction shall be allowed in respect of-
- (a) any expenditure incurred by any person in the maintenance of himself, his family or establishment, or for any other personal or domestic purpose;
 - (b) any expenditure or loss which is recoverable under any insurance, contract, or indemnity;
 - (c) save to the extent specifically provided for by or under this Act, any income tax or tax of a similar nature paid on income;
 - (d) any sums contributed to any pension, saving, or provident scheme or fund, except as provided in paragraphs (n) and (o) of subsection (2) of section 16;
 - (e) any premium paid under an annuity contract;
 - (f) any expenditure incurred in the production of income deemed under section 10 of this Act to have accrued in or to have been derived from the United Republic where such expenditure was incurred by a non-resident person not having a permanent establishment within the United Republic.

18.-(1) This section shall not apply to an individual.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply subject to the provisions of section 16 and of Part IV of the Second Schedule.

Ascertain-
income of corporation, partnerships, etc, from farming

[ss. 18-19]

(3) Every fanner shall include in his return of income for each year of income the value of all stock held and not disposed of by him (hereinafter referred to as "the value of stock held") at the beginning and end of each year of income.

(4) The value of stock held at the beginning of any year of income shall be deemed to be—

- (a) where the farmer carried on farming operations on the last day of the previous year of income, the value of stock held on that date; and
- (b) where the farmer commenced farming during the year of income, the cost to him of any stock acquired prior to commencement of farming.

(5) The value of stock, held at the end of any year of income shall be deemed to be the purchase price or, where the stock was acquired otherwise than by purchase, such price as the Commissioner may determine to be the current market price.

(6) Except at the commencement of farming, the value of livestock held by any farmer, other than a company, shall be reduced by such amount as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is reasonable having regard to the risk of mortality of such livestock.

(7) For the purposes of this section any livestock which is the subject of an agreement between the owner and any other person whereby the owner retains the right of ownership of such livestock or of any progeny thereof, shall be deemed to be livestock held and not disposed of by such owner.

(8) Where any person discontinues farming operations during a year of income but does not dispose of his stock, the value of stock held at the end of the year of income shall be included in his income for that year of income.

(9) Where any farmer makes a donation of any stock during any such year of income to any other person there shall be included in the gross income of that farmer for the year of income an amount equal to the price which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is the current market price of such stock.

(10) In this section "stock" means all livestock and produce, and crops which have been harvested.

Ascertain-
business in relation to certain non-resident person

19,-(1) Where a non-resident person carries on any business in the United Republic which consists of manufacturing, growing, mining, in or producing or harvesting, whether from the land or from the water, to any product or produce and sells outside, or for delivery outside, the United Republic such product or produce, whether or not the contract of sale is made within or without the United Republic, if utilizes such product or produce in any business carried on by him outside the United Republic, then the gains or profits from such business carried on in the United Republic shall be deemed to be income derived from the United Republic and to be gains or profits of such amount as would have accrued if such product or produce had been sold wholesale to the best advantage.

[ss. 19-20]

(2) Where a non-resident person, carries on business with a related resident person and the course of such business is so arranged that it produces to, the resident person either no profits or less than the ordinary profits which might be expected to accrue from such business if there had been no such relationship, then the gains or profits of such resident person from such business shall be deemed to be of such an amount as might have been expected to accrue if the course of such business had been conducted by independent person dealing at arm's length.

(3) For the purpose of ascertaining the gains or profits of any business carried on in the United Republic no deductions shall be allowed in respect of any expenditure incurred outside the Partner States by a non-resident person other than expenditure in respect of which the Commissioner determines that adequate consideration has been given-, and, in particular, in the case of expenditure no remuneration for services rendered by the non-resident directors (other than whole-time service directors) of a non resident company the directors whereof have a controlling interest therein, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of the excess of such expenditure over ten per cent of the total income of such company, calculated before the deduction of such expenditure, or over fifty thousand shillings in respect of all such directors taken together, whichever is the greater.

(4) When a non-resident person carries on any business in the United Republic through a permanent establishment in the United Republic the gains or profits of the permanent establishment shall be ascertained without any deduction in respect of any interest, royalties or management or professional fees paid or purported to be paid 'by the permanent establishment to the non-resident person.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, a person is related to another if-

- (a) either person participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of the business of the other; or
- (b) any third person participates directly or indirectly in the management, control, or capital of the business of both.

20,-(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, this section shall apply for the purpose of computing the gains or profits of insurance corporations from insurance business which is chargeable to tax; and for the purposes of this Act a mutual insurance corporation shall be deemed to, carry on an insurance business the surplus from which shall be ascertained in the manner provided for in this section for ascertaining gains or profits and which shall be deemed to be gains or profits which are charged to tax under this Act.

(2) Where an insurance corporation carries on life insurance business in conjunction with insurance business of any other class, the life insurance business of the corporation shall be treated as a separate business from any other class of insurance business carried on by the corporation.

(3) The gains or profits for any year of income from the insurance business, other than life insurance business, of a resident insurance corporation, whether mutual or proprietary, shall be the amount arrived at ,after-

- (a) taking, for such year of income, the aggregate of-
 - (i) the amount of the gross premiums from such business (less such premiums returned to the insured and such premiums held in connection with such business); and
 - (ii) the amount of other income from such business including any commission or expense allowance received or receivable from re-insurers and any income derived from investments held in connection with such business; and
 - (b) deducting from such sums a reserve for unexpired risks referable to such business at the percentage adopted by the corporation at the end of such year of income and adding to such sum the reserve deducted for unexpired risks at the end of the previous year of income; and
 - (c) deducting from the figure arrived at under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection-
 - (i) the amount of the claims admitted in such year of income in connection with such business less any amount recovered in respect thereof under reinsurance; and
 - (ii) the amount of agency expenses incurred in such year of income in connection with such business; and
 - (iii) the amount of any other expenses allowable as a deduction in such year of income in computing the gains or profits of such business, under this Act.
- (4) The gains or profits for any year of income from the insurance business, other than life insurance business, of a non-resident insurance corporation, whether mutual or proprietary, shall be the amount arrived at after-
- (a) taking for such year of income, the aggregate of-
 - (i) the amount received or receivable in the United Republic of the gross premiums from such business (less such premiums returned to the insured and such premiums paid on reinsurance as relates to, such business); and
 - (ii) the amount of other income from such business, not being income from investments received or receivable in the United Republic including any commission or expense allowance received or receivable from reinsurance of risks accepted in the United Republic; and
 - (iii) such amount of income from investments as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable as representing income from investment of the reserves referable to such business done in the United Republic; and
 - (b) deducting from such sum a reserve for unexpired risks outstanding at the end of such year of income in respect of policies for which the premiums are received or receivable in the United Republic at the percentage adopted by the corporation in relation to its insurance business as a whole, other than life insurance, but adding to such sum the reserve deducted for similar unexpired risks at the end of the previous year of income; and

- (c) deducting from the figure arrived at under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection-
- (i) the amount of the claims admitted in such year of income in connection with such business less any amount recovered in respect thereof under reinsurance; and
 - (ii) the amount of agency expenses incurred in, such year of income in connection with such business; and
 - (iii) an amount being such proportion as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable of such of the expenses of the head office of such corporation as would have been allowable as a deduction in such year of income in computing its gains or profits if the corporation had been a resident Corporation, in so far as such amounts relate to policies the premiums in respect of which are received or receivable in the United Republic.

(5) The gains or profits for any year of income from the life insurance business of a resident insurance corporation, whether mutual or proprietary, shall be the aggregate of the following-

- (a) the difference between the amount of the investment income of its life insurance fund and the expenses of management (including commission) referable thereto; and
- (b) the amount of any interest paid by such corporation from its annuity fund on surrender of policies or on the return of premiums, other than any such interest which relates to premiums paid under an approved pension scheme or an approved pension fund.

(6) The gains or profits for any year of income from the life insurance business of a non-resident insurance corporation, whether mutual or proprietary, shall, be the amount arrived at after-

- (a) taking the same proportion of the investment income of its life insurance fund as the life insurance premiums received in the United Republic bear to the total life insurance premiums received or, if the Commissioner so determines it to be just and reasonable, as the actuarial liability in respect of its life insurance business (other than its annuity business) in the United Republic bears to the actuarial liability in respect of its total life insurance business (other than its annuity business); and
- (b) deducting from the amount arrived at under paragraph (a) of this subsection the life insurance expenses of agencies in the United Republic and such proportion as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable of such of the life insurance expenses of the head office of such corporation as would have been allowable as a deduction in such year of income in computing its gains or profits if the corporation had been a resident corporation; and
- (c) adding thereto the amount of any interest paid by such corporation from its annuity fund on the surrender of policies the premiums in respect of which were received in the United Republic or on the return of Premiums received in the United Republic other than any such interest which relates to premiums paid under an approved pension scheme or an approved pension fund;

Provided that the Commissioner may, if he determines it to be just and reasonable, substitute some basis other than that set out in paragraph (a) of this subsection for the purpose of ascertaining the portion of the income from investments to be charged as being income derived from business carried on in the United Republic.

(7) In this section

"annuity fund" means, where an annuity fund is not kept separately from the life insurance fund of the company such part of the life insurance fund as represents the liability of the company under its annuity contracts;

"corporation" includes a body of persons whether or not incorporated;

"life insurance fund" does not include the annuity fund, if any, nor such part of the life insurance fund as represents the liability of the company under any approved annuity contract, approved trust scheme, approved pension scheme or approved pension fund;

"life insurance premiums" means premiums referable to the life insurance business other than annuity business.

(8) The amount of the gains or profits from insurance business, both from life insurance and from other classes of insurance business, arrived at under this section shall be taken into account together with any other income of the corporation charged to tax in ascertaining the total income of such company.

Members' clubs and

21.-(1) A members' club shall be deemed to be carrying on a business and the gross receipts on revenue account (including entrance fees and subscriptions) shall be deemed to be income from a business:

Provided that where not less than three-quarters of such gross receipts are received from the members of such club, such body of persons shall not be deemed to be carrying on a business and no part of such gross receipts shall be income.

(2) A trade association may elect, by notice in writing to the Commissioner, in respect of any year of income to be deemed to carry on a business charged to tax, whereupon its gross receipts on revenue account from transactions with its members (including entrance fees and annual subscriptions) and with other persons shall be deemed to be income from business for that and succeeding years of income.

(3) In this section-

"members' club" means a club or similar institution all the assets of which are owned by or held in trust for the members thereof;

"member" means-

(a) in relation to a members' club, a person who, while he is such a member, is entitled to an interest in all the assets of such club. in the event of its liquidation;

(b) in relation-to a trade association, a person who is entitled to vote at a general of such trade association.

PART V

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO RETIREMENT BENEFITS

22. In this Part, except where the context otherwise requires- Construction
- "approved fund" includes an approved pension fund and an approved provident fund;
- "approved pension scheme" means a scheme relating to an approved pension fund;
- "gross remuneration" means, in relation to an employee, the gains or profits from his employment together with his employer's contribution. to an approved fund in respect of him;
- "service pension scheme" means a scheme or arrangement relating to service in a particular employment and having for its object or one of its objects to make provision in respect of persons serving therein against future retirement or partial retirement, against future termination of service through death or disability, or against similar matters, being a scheme or arrangement under which any part of the cost of the provision so made is or has been borne otherwise than by those persons by reason of their service (whether it is the cost or part of the cost of the benefits provided, or of paying premiums or other sums in order to provide those benefits, or of administering or instituting the scheme or arrangement);
- "trustees" means the persons by whatever name called having the management or control of a fund which either is or was an approved fund or which is a fund in relation to which an application is made under section 23 or section 24 for the approval of the Commissioner.

23.-(1) Where an employer has established any scheme for payment, under regulations relating thereto, of pensions and other benefits to his employees in respect of service with him on the retirement of such employees from such service or to the dependants of such employees on the death of such employees, then application under section 25 may be made for such scheme to be so approved by the Commissioner-, and where any scheme is so approved it shall be known as an approved pension fund and for any year of income in which such scheme continues to be so approved the amount which may be deducted under section 16 by the employer, shall be the employer's deductible pension contribution. Approval of pension fund

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Commissioner shall not approve any scheme unless he considers that the regulations relating thereto have as their main object the provision of pensions to employees on their retirement from the service of the employer on or after attaining a specified age and unless the Commissioner is satisfied-

- (a) that such scheme is established under an irrevocable trust in the Partner States in connection with any business carried on wholly or partly in the United Republic by the employer; and
- (b) that such scheme complies with the requirements of the Employees, Terminal Benefits Schemes (Registration and Regulation) Act, 1973;

- (c) that such regulations do not-
- (i) provide for the payment to any employee during his life of any sum except a pension, which may, subject to this section, be commuted, or, in the event of such employee leaving such service in circumstances in which no pension is payable to him, any contributions to the scheme together with reasonable interest thereon made in respect of him;
 - (ii) provide for the payment of such pension otherwise than on the retirement of such employee from such service on or after attaining the age of forty-five years or on earlier retirement on account of any infirmity of mind or body or of abolition of office;
 - (iii) provide for the payment of any other sums on the death of such employee except a lump sum, or sums payable by way of annuity to the widow or widower or dependants of such employee;
 - (iv) provide for the payment of such pension otherwise than during the life of such employee or for the payment to the widow or widower of such employee of an annuity otherwise than for a term certain or during the life of such widow or widower or during the minority of any dependant of such employee;
 - (v) provide for such pension, where such employee has been in such service for 30 years or more, to be in excess of two-thirds of the highest average remuneration over any three consecutive years of his service, or, where such employee has been in such service for less than 30 years, to be in excess of an amount which bears to two-thirds of his average remuneration over the last three years of his service the same proportion as the number of his completed years of service bears to 30;
 - (vi) provide for the payment on the death of such employee of any lump sum in excess of one hundred twenty thousand shillings by way of death benefit; and any lump sum payable to the executors or administrators of such employee by way of the return of contributions together with reasonable interest thereon shall not be regarded as a lump sum for the purposes of this sub-paragraph;
 - (vii) provide for the annuity, if any, payable to such widow or widower to be of a greater annual amount than such pension; and
- (d) that such regulations do-
- (i) provide that any sums payable under the scheme shall be paid in the United Republic;
 - (ii) provide that no pension, annuity or other sum payable under it shall be capable of surrender or assignment;
 - (iii) provide that, where any pension payable under it to such employee exceeds two thousand five hundred shillings per annum, not more than one-quarter of such pension may be commuted and that not more than one hundred and twenty thousand shillings may be payable by way of such commutation;

- (iv) provide that no contribution made to the scheme by the employer or the employee shall be returnable to either of them except in the event of such employee leaving such service in circumstances in which no pension is payable to him or in the event of the winding up of the scheme;
 - (y) provide that every employee who contributes to such scheme shall have a specific right to benefits therefrom and shall be informed of the nature of such benefits;
 - (vi) provide, in any case where the employer is a company the directors whereof have a controlling interest therein, that no director, or the widow or widower or any dependant of such director, of such company shall be entitled to any payment under such scheme in respect of his service while he is such a director and that no contributions shall be made to such scheme and in respect of the service of such director; and for the purposes of this sub-paragraph director does not include a whole time service director;
 - (vii) provide that, in respect of any employee, the aggregate of the contributions for any year of income of the employer and employee shall not exceed, where benefits are payable only in respect of such employee, twenty per cent of his gross remuneration for such year of income or five-sixths of twenty thousand shillings, whichever is the less, and, where benefits are payable also in respect of the widow or widower or dependant of such employee, twenty-four per cent of such gross remuneration for such year of income or twenty thousand shillings whichever is the less;
 - (viii) provide that, if such scheme is wound up, the assets thereof shall be applied first in the purchase of annuities and other benefits of a like nature to the pension and other benefits to which such employee and the widow or widower or dependants of such employee were entitled under such scheme immediately before it was wound up and then, if there are any surplus assets after such purchase, in the purchase of enhanced annuities and other benefits for such employee, widow, widower or dependants (so, however, that such enhanced annuities and other benefits shall be of a like nature to such pension and other benefits to which such persons were so entitled and shall not result in any of such persons receiving any benefit greater than that which he could have received if such scheme had not been wound up) or in the repayment of the employer.
- (3) The Commissioner may, if he considers it fit and subject to any conditions he thinks proper to impose-
- (a) approve a scheme, the regulations relating to which otherwise satisfy subsection (2) of this section notwithstanding that such scheme-

[ss. 23-24]

- (i) is established outside the United Republic and provides that any sums payable under the scheme are payable outside the United Republic, if the scheme is established by an employer in connection with any business the greater part of which is carried on outside the United Republic and if the employees in the United Republic in relation to whom the scheme is established are liable under the terms of their service to serve in countries outside the United Republic and were recruited or engaged outside the United Republic, are in the United Republic solely for the purpose of serving the employer and are not citizens of the United Republic;
 - (ii) is established in connection with a function exercised in the United Republic by the employer, which is not a business;
 - (iii) provides for a pension to be paid to an employee before he attains the age of 45 years, but not before he attains the age of 40 years, if the Commissioner is satisfied that the nature of the service of such employee is one in which persons customarily retire before attaining the age of 45 years;
 - (iv) provides, in the event of the death of an employee after he has commenced to draw a pension under the scheme, for the payment of such a sum as together with the total amount paid to him by way of pension does not exceed the contributions made to the scheme in respect of him together with reasonable interest thereon;
 - (v) does not provide that all sums payable under the scheme shall be paid in the United Republic;
 - (vi) provides for the employer to recover out of the amount standing to the credit of any employee any sum due by the employee under this Act and paid on his behalf by the employer;
- (b) approve a scheme notwithstanding that the regulations relating thereto do not satisfy the other provisions of this section if, in his opinion, such regulations satisfy substantially those provisions;
 - (c) approve part of a schema where the regulations relating to that part satisfy substantially the other provisions of this section; and in any such case the part so approved shall be the approved pension fund.

Approval of provident

24.-(1) Where an employer has established any fund for the payment, under regulations relating thereto, of lump sums and other benefits to his employees in respect of service with him on such employees leaving such service after a specified period of service or to the dependants of such employees on the death of such employees while in such service, then application under section 26 may be made for such fund to be approved by the Commissioner; and where any fund is so approved it shall be known as an approved provident fund and for any year of income in which such fund continues to be so approved the amount which such employer may deduct under section 16 shall be the employer's deductible provident fund contribution.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Commissioner shall not approve any fund unless he considers that the regulations relating thereto have as their main object the payment of Jump sums to employees on their leaving the service of the employer after a specified period of service and unless the Commissioner is satisfied-

- (a) that such fund is established under an irrevocable trust in the Partner States in connection with any business carried on wholly or partly in the United Republic by the employer; and
- (b) that the provisions of the employees' Terminal Benefits Schemes (Registration and Regulation) Act, 1973 have been complied with in respect of such fund;
- (c) that such regulations do not-
 - (i) provide for the payment to any employee during such service of any sum;
 - (ii) provide for the payment to such employee of any sum other than a lump sum on such employee leaving such service after a specified period of service or, in the event of such employee leaving such service prior to the expiry of such period, and of an amount less than the aggregate of his contributions to fund together with reasonable interest thereon;
 - (iii) provide for the payment, in the event of the death of such employee, to the widow or widower or any dependant of such employee of any sum other than the sum standing to the credit of such employee in such fund at the time of his death;
 - (iv) provide for the payment to such employer of any sum other than his contributions to the fund, together with reasonable interest thereon, in respect of any employee who has left such service in circumstances in which he is not entitled to the employer's contributions;
 - (y) provide for the payment to any person of any other sum; and
- (d) that such regulations do-
 - (i) provide that no sum payable to such employee out of the fund shall be capable of surrender or assignment;
 - (ii) provide that such employer shall not have any charge or lien on, or right to, any contribution to such fund by such employee or any interest thereon;
 - (iii) provide that every employee who contributes to such fund shall have a specific right to benefits therefrom and shall be informed of the nature of such benefits;
 - (iv) provide that the contributions to the fund in respect of an employee shall be credited to the employee's individual account in the fund at intervals not exceeding one year;
 - (v) provide that the contribution in any year of income of such employer in respect of any employee shall not exceed ten per cent of such employee's gross remuneration in such year of income or two thousand four hundred shillings, whichever is the less;

- (vi) provide that the total of the contributions to any approved provident fund by such employer in respect of an employee for all years of income shall not exceed fifty thousand shillings;
 - (vii) provide that such fund shall comprise only contributions by the employer in respect of his employees and contributions by the employees and any reasonable interest paid on such contributions and any securities purchased out of the amount standing to the credit of such fund, together with the interest paid on such securities;
 - (viii) provide that any sum due to such employee out of such fund shall be paid to him as soon as practicable after he leaves such service or, in the event of his death, shall be paid to the person entitled thereto as soon as practicable after such death;
 - (ix) provide, in any case where the employer is a corporation, that no director, other than a whole time service director, of such corporation shall be entitled to any payment from such fund, and that no contributions shall be made to such fund, in respect of his service as such a director;
 - (x) provide that, if such fund is wound up, the accumulated balance due to each such employee shall only be payable to him on his leaving such service or on such employer ceasing to carry on his business, whichever is the earlier.
- (3) The Commissioner may, if he considers it fit and subject to any conditions he thinks proper to impose-
- (a) approve a fund the regulations relating to which otherwise satisfy subsection (2) notwithstanding that such regulations provide-
 - (i) for the payment of a lump sum to such employee prior to the expiry of a specified period of service if such lump sum is payable on such employee leaving such service on account of any infirmity of mind or body;
 - (ii) for the payment to such employee during such service of an amount in the nature of an advance which is returnable to the fund by such employee where such amount is paid on account of his illness or the illness of his wife or his children;
 - (iii) for the payment to such employer out of the amount standing to the credit of any employee of any sum due by the employee under this Act and paid on his behalf by the employer;
 - (b) approve a fund notwithstanding that the regulations relating thereto do not satisfy the other provisions of this section if, in his opinion, such regulations satisfy substantially those provisions-

[ss. 24-26]

- (c) approve part of a fund where the regulations relating to that part satisfy substantially the other provisions of this section; and in any such case the part so approved shall be the approved provident fund.

25.-(1) For any year of income-

- (a) the employer's deductible pension contribution shall be the amount of his ordinary annual contribution for such year of income to an approved pension fund:

Provided that where an employer makes a contribution to an approved pension fund which is not his ordinary annual contribution thereto, the Commissioner may permit the whole or part of such contribution to be included within the employer's deductible pension contribution for such year of income and any succeeding year of income;

- (b) the employer's deductible provident fund contribution shall be the amount of his ordinary annual contribution for such year of income to an approved provident fund or to any national provident fund or national social security fund established by the Government.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the ordinary annual contribution-

- (a) of an employer to an approved pension fund or an approved provident fund shall be the annual contribution, fixed in amount or computed by reference to the number of his employees or to their earnings or to their ordinary annual contributions,, made by such employer to any such fund;
- (b) of an employee to an approved pension fund shall be the annual contribution, fixed in amount or computed on a pre-determined basis by reference to his remuneration, made by such employee to such fund.

26.-(1) Where application is made for the approval of any scheme under section 23 or of any fund under section 24, then the trustees of such scheme or fund shall make such application in writing to the Commissioner; and such application shall be accompanied by two copies of any instrument under which the scheme or fund is established and of the regulations relating to such scheme or fund.

(2) After consideration of any application referred to in subsection (1), the Commissioner shall inform the trustees of the scheme or fund in writing of his decision and, if such decision is an approval of the scheme or fund, of the year of income in relation to which it is approved, whether the scheme or fund is approved in whole or in part and of any conditions to which such approval is subject; and where any scheme or fund or part thereof has been approved by the Commissioner for any year of income, such scheme or fund or part thereof shall, subject to subsection (3), be deemed to be approved for each subsequent year of income unless the Commissioner withdraws approval under subsection (4).

provisions relating to approval of funds

[ss. 26 -27]

(3) Where there is any alteration to the instrument establishing any approved fund or to any regulations relating to any such fund, then the trustees of such fund shall immediately inform the Commissioner in writing of such alteration; and if the Commissioner is not so informed the approval of such fund shall be deemed to have been withdrawn as from the date of such alteration.

(4) The Commissioner may at any time by notice in writing withdraw his approval of any approved fund if, in his opinion-

- (a) the conditions on which the approval of such fund was granted have not been complied with; or
- (b) there has been any alteration to the instrument establishing such fund or to any regulations relating to- any such fund; or
- (c) any requirement under the Employees Terminal Benefits Schemes (Registration and Regulation) Act, 1973 has been contravened.

(5) The accounts of an approved scheme or fund shall be maintained in such form and for such periods as the Commissioner may determine.

PART VI

TRANSACTIONS TO AVOID TAX

Transactions designed to avoid liability to tax

27.- (1) Where the Commissioner is of the opinion that the main purpose or one of the main purposes for which any transaction was effected (whether before or after the enactment of this Act) was the avoidance or reduction of liability to tax for . any year of income, or the prevention or obstruction of the collection of the tax due, or that the main benefit which might have been expected to accrue from the transaction in the three years immediately following the completion thereof was the avoidance or reduction of liability to, tax, or the prevention or obstruction of the collection of the tax due, he may, if he determines it to be just and reasonable, direct that such adjustments shall be made as respects liability to tax as he considers appropriate to counteract the avoidance or reduction of liability to tax or the prevention or obstruction of the collection of tax due which could otherwise be effected by the transaction.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by subsection (1) of this section, those powers shall extend-

- (a) to the charging to tax of or collection of tax from, persons who, but for the adjustments, would not be charged to the same or to any extent;
- (b) to the charging of a greater amount of tax than would be charged but for the adjustments;
- (r-) to the taking of steps for the recovery of the tax due as if the transaction had not been effected.

(3) Any direction of the Commissioner under this section shall specify the transaction or transactions giving rise to the direction and the adjustments in respect of liability to, or payment of, tax which the Commissioner considers appropriate.

28. (1) Where the Commissioner is of the opinion that a private company has not distributed to its shareholders as dividends within a reasonable period, not exceeding twelve months, after the end of its accounting period such part of its income for that period as could lawfully be so distributed without prejudice to the requirements of the company's business, he may, subject to any directions of the Minister in that behalf, direct that such part of the income of the company shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as having been distributed as a dividend to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests and shall be deemed to have been paid on a date twelve months after the end of such accounting period.

(2) When the Commissioner is of the opinion that it is desirable to do so, he may direct that a charge be made upon any company in respect of adjustments to the liability of any shareholder as a result of a direction under subsection (1) of this section:

Provided that-

- (a) if such a charge is made, such company shall be entitled to recover from such shareholder the amount of tax attributable to the adjustment made in respect of such shareholder; and
- (b) where an adjustment is made under this section relating to the distributable profits of a company and such profits are subsequently distributed the proportionate share therein of any shareholder shall be excluded in computing the total income of such shareholder.

(3) A private company may at any time before making a distribution of a dividend to its shareholders inquire of the Commissioner whether such distribution would be regarded by him as sufficient for the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, and the Commissioner, after calling on the company for such information as he may reasonably require, shall advise the company whether or not he proposes to take action under this section.

(4) Where under this section part of the income of a company is treated as having been distributed and divided to its shareholders and in consequence thereof, another company is treated as having received such dividend, then for the purpose of applying the provisions of subsection (1) of this section to such other company, the dividend which it is treated as having received shall be deemed to be part of the income of such other company available for distribution by such other company to its shareholders as dividends.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing the Commissioner to treat a portion of the income of a company as having been distributed as dividends in excess of the portion which the company could lawfully distribute as dividends under the provisions of the Companies (Regulation of Dividends and Surpluses and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1972.

PART VII

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SETTLEMENTS

Income

29.-(1) Where under any settlement, any income is paid in any year of income during the life of the settlor to or for the benefit of a child of the settlor, such income shall be deemed to be income of the settlor for such year of income and not income of any other person:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any year of income in which—

- (a) the income so paid does not exceed one hundred shillings; or
- (b) the child attains the age of eighteen years.

(2) For the purposes of, but subject to, this section—

- (a) income which is dealt with under a settlement so that it, or assets representing it, will or may become payable or applicable to or for the benefit of a child of the settlor in the future (whether on the fulfillment of a condition or the happening of a contingency, or as the result of the exercise of a power of discretion, or otherwise) shall be deemed to be paid to or for the benefit of that child;
- (b) any income so dealt with which is not required by the settlement to be allocated, at the time when it is so dealt with, to any particular child or children of the settlor shall be deemed to be paid in equal shares to or for the benefit of each of the children to or for the benefit of whom or any of whom the income or assets representing it will or may become payable or applicable;
- (c) in relation to any settlor, only income originating from that settlor shall be taken into account as income paid under the settlement to or for the benefit of a child of the settlor.

(3) Where under subsection (1) of this section any tax is charged on and is paid by the person by whom the settlement was made, that person shall be entitled to recover from any trustee or other person to whom the income is payable under the settlement the amount of the tax so paid, and for that purpose to require the Commissioner to furnish to him a certificate specifying the amount of the tax so paid, and any certificate specifying the amount of the tax so paid, and any certificate so furnished shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein.

(4) Where the amount of the tax chargeable upon any person for any year of income, is, by reason of subsection (1) of this section, affected by any tax deducted from the income under Head B of Part IX, the amount by which the tax is affected shall, if the amount of tax is thereby reduced, be paid by him to the trustee or other person to whom the income is payable under the settlement or, where there are two or more such persons, shall be apportioned among those persons as the case may require; and if any question arises as to the amount of any payment or as to any apportionment to be made under this subsection, that question shall be decided by the Commissioner whose decision thereon shall be final.

(5) Any income which is deemed under this section to be the income of any person shall be deemed to be the highest part of his income.

(6) This section shall apply to every settlement, wheresoever it was made or entered into and whether it was made or entered into before or after the commencement of this Act except a settlement made or entered into before 1st January, 1939, which immediately before that date was irrevocable, and shall (where there are two or more settlers or persons who made the settlement) have effect in relation to each settlor as if he were the only settlor.

(7) In this section-

- (a) "child" means a child under the age of eighteen years and includes a step-child, an adopted child, and an illegitimate child;
- (b) "settlement" includes any disposition, trust, covenant, agreement, arrangement, or transfer of assets, but does not include any such disposition, trust, covenant, agreement, arrangement, or transfer of assets, resulting from an order of a court unless such order is made in contemplation of this provision;
- (c) "settler", in relation to a settlement, includes any person by whom the settlement was made or entered into directly or indirectly, and any person who has provided or undertaken to provide funds directly or indirectly for the purpose of the settlement, or has made with any other person a reciprocal arrangement for that other person to make or enter into the settlement;
- (d) reference to income originating from a settlor are references to-
 - (i) income from property originating from that settlor-, and
 - (ii) income provided directly or indirectly by that settlor;
- (e) references to property originating from a settlor are references to-
 - (i) property which that settlor has provided directly or indirectly for the purposes of the settlement; and
 - (ii) property representing that property; and
 - (iii) so much of any property which represents both property so provided and other property as, on such apportionment as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable, represents the property so provided;
- (f) references to-
 - (i) property or income which a settlor has provided directly or indirectly include references to property or income which has been provided directly or indirectly by another person in pursuance of reciprocal arrangements with that settlor

[ss- 29-30]

but do not include references to property or income which that settlor has provided directly or indirectly in pursuance of reciprocal arrangements with another person;

- (ii) property which represents other property include references to property which represents accumulated income from that other property.

(8) Where, under this section, income is deemed to be income of the settlor, it shall be deemed to be income received by him as a person beneficially entitled thereto under the settlement.

Income from certain settlements deemed to be income of settlor

30.-(1) All income which in any year of income accrued to or was received by any person under a settlement from assets remaining the property of the settlor shall, unless such income is deemed under section 29 of this Act to be income of the settlor for an earlier year of income, be deemed to be income of the settlor for the year of income in which it so accrued to or was received by such person and not income of any other person whether or not such settlement is revocable and whether it was made or entered into before or after the commencement of this Act.

(2) All income which in any year of income accrued to or was received by any person under a revocable settlement shall be deemed to be income of the settlor for such year of income and not income of any other person.

(3) Where in any year of income the settlor, or any relative of the settlor, or any person, under the direct or indirect control of the settlor or any of his relatives or the settlor and any of his relatives, by agreement with the trustees of a settlement in any way, whether by borrowing or otherwise, makes use of any income arising, or of any accumulated income which has arisen, under such settlement to which he is not entitled thereunder, then the amount of such income or accumulated income so made use of shall be deemed to be income of such settlor for such year of income and not income of any other person.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a settlement shall be deemed to be revocable if under its terms the settlor-

- (a) has a right to reassume control, directly or indirectly, over the whole or any part of the income arising under the settlement or of the assets comprised therein; or
- (b) is able to have access, by borrowing or otherwise, to the whole or any part of the income arising under the settlement or of the assets comprised therein; or
- (c) has power, whether immediately or in the future and whether with or without the consent of any other person, to revoke or otherwise determine the settlement and in the event of the exercise of such power, the settlor or the wife or husband of the settlor will or may become beneficially entitled to the whole or any part of the property comprised in the settlement or to the income from the whole or any part of such property:

Provided that a settlement shall not be deemed to be revocable by reason only that under its terms the settlor has a right to reassume control, directly or indirectly, over any income or assets relating to the interest of any beneficiary under the settlement in the event that such beneficiary should predecease him.

(5) In this section-
"relative" of a person means-

- (i) his spouse;
- (ii) any ancestor, lineal descendant, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, step-father, step-mother, step-child, adopted child, and, in the case of an adopted child, his adopter or adopters;
- (iii) the spouse of any such relative as is mentioned in subparagraph (ii) of this definition;

"settlement" includes any disposition, trust, covenant, agreement, arrangement, or transfer of assets, other than-

- (i) a settlement made for valuable and sufficient consideration;
- (ii) any agreement made by an employer to confer a pension upon an employee in respect of any period after the cessation of employment with such employer, or to provide an annual payment for the benefit of the widow or any relative or dependant of such employee after his death, or to provide a lump sum to an employee on the cessation of such employment.

(6) Where, under this section, any tax is charged on and is paid by the settlor, the settlor shall be entitled to recover from any trustees or other person to whom the income is payable under the settlement the amount of the tax so paid, and for that purpose to require the Commissioner to furnish to him a certificate specifying the amount of the tax so paid; and any certificate so furnished shall be conclusive evidence of the facts appearing therein.

(7) Where, under this section, income is deemed to be income of the settlor, it shall be deemed to be income received by him as a person beneficially entitled thereto under the settlement.

PART VIII

ACCOUNTING PERIODS AND CESSATION OF BUSINESS

31.-(1) Where any person usually makes up the accounts of his business for a period of twelve months ending on any day other than 31st December, then for the purpose of ascertaining his total income for any year of income, the income of any such accounting period ending on such other date shall, subject to such adjustment as the Commissioner may consider appropriate, be taken to be income of the year of income in which the accounting period ends-

- (a) in the case of a person other than an individual, as regards all income charged under section 3 of this Act; and
- (b) in the case of an individual, as regards all income charged under that section other than gains or profits from any employment or services rendered.

Accounting periods not coinciding with year of income, etc.

[ss. 30-33]

(2) Where any person makes up the accounts of his business for a period greater or less than twelve months, the Commissioner may, subject to such adjustments as he may consider appropriate, including the assessment for any year of income which, but for any alteration in the date to which the accounts of the business are made up, would have been assessed for such year of income, treat the income of any accounting period as income of the year of income in which the accounting period ends, and tax shall be charged accordingly.

Income and expenditure after cessation of business

32. (1) Where any sum is received by any person after the cessation of his business which, if it had been received prior to such cessation, would have been included in the gains or profits from such business, then, to the extent to which such sum has not already been included in such gains or profits, such sum shall be income of such person for the year of income in which such sum is received.

(2) Where any sum is paid by any person after the cessation of his business which, if it had been paid prior to such cessation, would have been deductible in computing his gains or profits from such business, then, to the extent to which such sum has not already been deducted in computing such gains or profits, it shall be deducted in ascertaining his total income for the year of income in which it is paid and to the extent that such sum or remainder of such sum, as the case may be, cannot be so deducted, it shall be deducted in ascertaining his total income for the year of income in which such business ceased.

PART IX

RATES, DEDUCTIONS AND SET-OFF OF TAX AND DOUBLE TAXATION RELIEFS

A. Rates of Tax

Rates of tax

33. (1) Subject to this section-

- (a) tax upon the total income of an individual (other than income received by a trustee in his capacity as trustee) shall be charged for any year of income at the individual rates for such year of income; and
- (b) tax upon the total income of a partnership shall be charged for any year of income at the partnership rates for such year of income; and
- (c) tax upon the total income of the administrators of the estate of, or the executors of the will of, a deceased person received by such administrators or executors in their capacity as such (but not including any income forming part of a settlement under a will in respect of which the executors are the trustees) shall be charged for any year of income at the administration rates for such year of income;
- (d) tax upon the total income of any person other than a person to whom paragraph (a), (b) or (c) applies shall be charged for any year of income at the corporation rates for such year of income.

(2) Tax upon the income of a non-resident person not having a permanent establishment in the United Republic, which consists of-

[ss. 33-34]

- (i) any management or professional fee;
- (ii) any royalty;
- (iii) any rent, premium or like consideration for the use or occupation of property;
- (iv) any dividend;
- (v) any interest; or
- (vi) any pension or retirement annuity,

shall be charged for any year of income at the appropriate non-resident rates for such year of income and shall not be charged to tax under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Tax upon capital gains income to which section 13 applies shall be charged for any year of income at the capital gains rates for such year of income and shall not be charged to tax under subsection (1) of this section.

B. Deductions of Tax

34.-(1) Every person shall, upon payment of any amount to any non-resident person not having a permanent establishment in the United Republic in respect of-

- (a) any management or professional fee;
- (b) any royalty;
- (c) any rent, premium or like consideration for the use or occupation of property;
- (d) any dividend;
- (e) any interest; or
- (f) any pension or retirement annuity, which is chargeable to tax, deduct therefrom tax at the appropriate non-resident withholding tax rate.

(2) Every person shall, upon payment of any amount to any person resident or having a permanent establishment in the United Republic in respect of-

- (a) any dividend; or
- (b) any interest on a loan or deposit, other than a loan from or a deposit with-
 - (i) any financial institution specified in the Fourth Schedule which is a resident or has a permanent establishment in the United Republic; or
 - (ii) a co-operative society, which is chargeable to tax, deduct therefrom tax at the appropriate resident withholding tax rate.

(3) No deductions shall be made under subsection (1) or (2) of this section from any payment which is income exempt from tax under this Act, or to which any order made under subsection (6) or (7) of this section applies.

(4) Where any person deducts tax under this section he shall, within thirty days of making such deduction-

- (a) remit the amount so deducted to the Commissioner together with a return in writing of the amount of the payment, the

Deduction
of tax from certain incomes

amount of tax deducted, the name of the person to whom payment is made and particulars of the consideration in respect of which the payment is made, and

(b) furnish the person to whom the payment is made with a certificate stating the amount of the payment and the amount of the tax deducted.

(5) Where any person who is required under this section to deduct tax-

(a) fails to make the deduction or fails to deduct the whole amount of the tax which he should have deducted; or

(b) fails to remit the amount of any deduction to the Commissioner within thirty days of the date on which such deduction was made or ought to have been made,

the provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax, and the payment of interest thereon, shall apply to the collection and recovery of such amount as if it were tax due and payable by such person the due date for the payment of which was the date thirty days after the date on which such amount was or should have been deducted.

(6) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, exempt from the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) of this section any payment or class of payments made by any person or class of persons resident or having a permanent establishment in the United Republic.

(7) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette from time to time amend, vary or replace the Fourth Schedule.

Deduction
of tax from annuities, etc., paid under a will, etc.

35.-(1) The trustees of a will or settlement shall, upon payment of any annuity under such will or settlement, deduct therefrom tax at the rate paid or payable on the income out of which such annuity is payable:

Provided that-

(a) no deduction of tax shall be made from such part of an annuity as is paid out of income in respect of which no tax is payable;

(b) any such annuity directed to be paid free of tax shall be paid without deduction of tax, and any sums paid by the trustees to the annuitant to meet his liability to tax on the annuity shall also be paid without deduction of tax and the trustees shall be entitled to repayment of the tax paid by deduction or otherwise on such an amount of the income of the trust as is equal to the total of the annuity and the sums so paid;

(c) the Commissioner may authorize the trustees on payment of any annuity other than an annuity directed to be paid free of tax, to deduct from the amount of such annuity, tax at a rate lower than the rate paid or payable on such income or no tax, and thereupon the trustees shall deduct from the amount of any such annuity so paid tax at such lower rate or no tax, as the case may be.

(2) For the purposes of this section where an annuity is not payable out of income of specified assets, it shall be deemed to be payable out of income liable to tax under this Act to the extent to which such income is available for the payment thereof.

(3) In any case to which paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 11 of this Act applies the trustee shall furnish each person to whom or on whose behalf any amounts are paid in any year of income with a certificate setting forth the gross amount of the payments, the amount of tax appropriate thereto, and the net amount so paid in such year of income.

36.-(1) An employer to whom this section applies shall, on the last day of every month deduct from the salaries, wages and other moneys paid or payable by him to any person employed by him in respect of such person's employment with such employer during that month, the amount of tax payable by such employee on his income in respect of such employment and the employer shall remit to the Commissioner the amount so deducted within seven days from the date of the deduction.

Deduction
of tax from
emoluments

(2) Where any employee of an employer to whom this section applies, has a chargeable income in addition to the chargeable income in respect of his employment, the Commissioner may direct the employer to make deductions from the salaries, wages and other moneys payable to such employee, of the tax payable by such employee in respect of such additional chargeable income, and where an employer has been so directed, he shall, in addition to the deductions required to be made by subsection (1), make deductions of such amount and in such manner as the Commissioner may, in his directions, specify.

(3) This section shall not apply in respect of any employee who satisfies his employer that by virtue of the provisions of this Act or any order made thereunder, or by reason of the operation of any provision of any other written law, he is exempt from payment of tax.

(4) Where an employer who is required to deduct tax in respect of the income of his employee from the emoluments payable by him to the employee-

- (a) fails to make the deduction or fails to deduct the whole amount of the tax which should have been deducted; or

the provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax, and the payment of interest thereon, shall apply to the collection and recovery of such amount as if it were tax due and payable by such employer the due date for the payment of which was the date seven days after the date on which such amount was or should have been deducted.

(5) This section shall apply to employers of such number of persons or to such category or class of employers as the Minister may by order published in the Gazette direct.

[ss. 36 -37]

- (6) For the purposes of this section —
- (a) "employer" includes his legal representative and any person who under any arrangement or by operation of law becomes liable to pay salaries, wages and other moneys due to an employee whose tax is to be recovered in the manner provided for by this section;
- (b) where any employer to whom this section applies is paying any person any pension or other moneys in respect of such person's past employment with the employer or in respect of such person's past employment with any previous employer the person to whom such payment of pension or other moneys is made shall be deemed to be an employee of such employer, and this section shall apply to such person and the tax due from him accordingly as if such payment were payment of emoluments.

(7) Where in any case the salaries, wages or other moneys payable by an employer to an employee are payable at intervals of less than a month or at intervals of greater than a month, the provisions of this section shall apply as if such employee were entitled to monthly payments and-

- (a) the chargeable income of such employee in respect of his employment for any month shall be deemed to be the income that would have accrued to the employee had the salaries, wages and other moneys been payable monthly;
- (b) the employer shall pay the employee's tax in accordance with this section and make deduction of the payment made by him from any payment next to be made by him to the employee in respect of his employment or, where no further payment is to be made to the employee, the employer shall be entitled to recover the amount of the employee's tax paid by him under this section from the employee by way of a civil suit.

Deduction
of tax from

37.-(1) Where a partnership firm pays to a partner his share of profits in the partnership (such share of profits is hereinafter in this section referred to as "partnership income"), the partnership firm shall deduct from such partnership income the tax Payable thereon, by the partner to whom the payment is made and the firm shall remit to the Commissioner the amount so deducted within seven days from the date of deduction.

(2) Any payment by way of a loan or withdrawal against partnership profits made by a partnership firm to or on behalf of a partner shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be payment to the partner of his share in the profits.

(3) Where any partner has a chargeable income in addition to, the partnership income, the Commissioner may direct the firm to make deductions from the Partnership income of such partner, of the tax payable by such partner in respect of such additional chargeable income, and where a firm has been so directed, the firm shall, in addition to the deductions required to be made by subsection (1), make deductions of such amount and in such manner as the Commissioner may, in his directions, specify.

[ss. 37-41]

(4) This section shall not apply in respect of any partner whose partnership income is, by virtue of the provisions of this Act or any order made thereunder, or by reason of the operation of any provision of any other written law, not chargeable to tax or exempt from tax.

(5) Where a partnership firm which is required by this section to make any deduction of tax from the partnership income of a partner-

(a) fails to make the deduction or fails to deduct the whole amount of the tax which should have been deducted; or

the provisions of this Act relating to collection and recovery of tax, and the payment of interest thereon, shall apply to the collection and recovery of such amount as if it were tax due and payable by such firm the due date for the payment of which was the date seven days after the date on which such amount was or should have been deducted.

38. Where a co-operative society pays to its member his share of the operating surplus the provisions of section 37 shall apply as if-

(a) such co-operative society were partnership firm;

(b) such member were a partner; and

(c) such member's share in the operating surplus were his partnership income:

Provided' that this section shall not apply where a consumer co-operative society pays to any member in any year of income a share in the operating surplus of a sum or sums which or the aggregate of which does not exceed two hundred and fifty shillings.

39. The provisions of this Part relating to deductions of tax shall and the Government; and for the avoidance of doubts it is hereby declared that the said provisions shall also bind the Community, the Corporations within the Community, the East African Development Bank and the institutions of the Community.

40.-(1) The Minister may by regulations under the Act provide for the better carrying into effect of the objects and provisions of sections 34, 35, 36, 37, 38 and 39.

(2) The Minister may by an order in the Gazette exempt any person from any of the provisions of this Part which relate to deductions of tax.

C. Set-off tax

41. Any amount of tax which-

(a) has been deducted under section 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, or 39;

(b) has been borne by any trustee in his capacity as such on any amount paid as income to any beneficiary, shall be deemed to have been paid by the person chargeable with such tax and shall be set off for the purposes of collection against the tax charged on such person for the year of income in respect of which it was deducted, and where an assessment is made by the Commissioner on any person for any year of income under section 79 of this Act the amount of any tax which has already been paid under a provisional assessment on such person for such year of income shall be set off for the purposes of collection against the tax charged in the assessment made under the said section 79:

Deduction of tax from payment by co-operative societies of operating surplus

Application to Government

Regulation and exemption

Set-off of tax deducted

[ss. 41-44]

Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of any tax deducted at the administration rate on any payment by an executor or administrator in his capacity as such to any beneficiary.

Relief in respect of tax paid in a Partner State

42. (1) If any resident person chargeable to tax for any year of income on income accrued in or derived from another Partner State proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has paid tax in such Partner State for such year of income in respect of the same income, he shall be entitled to relief by way of credit from the tax so charged on such income.

(2) The tax chargeable on the income of any person in respect of which credit is to be allowed under this section shall be taken to be the amount by which the tax chargeable (before allowance of credit under this section) in respect of his total income is increased by the inclusion of such income in his total income:

Provided that where tax is payable at different rates on different parts of such person's income, the tax chargeable on such income shall be apportioned on each such part in such amounts as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable.

(3) Credit under this section shall not exceed the amount of the tax chargeable on the income in respect of which the credit is to be allowed, or upon each part of such income, as the case may be, computed in accordance with this Act.

Special arrangements for relief from double taxation

43. If arrangements have been made between the Government of the United Republic and the government of any place outside the United Republic with a view to affording relief from double taxation in relation to any income tax, or any tax of a similar character, imposed by the laws of that place, then such arrangements shall, notwithstanding, anything in this Act, have effect as if such arrangements were provided for in this Act.

Computation of credits under special arrangements

44.-(1) This section shall have effect where, under any special arrangement, foreign tax payable in respect of any income is to be allowed as a credit against tax chargeable in respect of such income.

(2) The amount of tax chargeable upon the income referred to in subsection (1) shall be reduced by the amount of the credit:

Provided that a credit shall not be allowed against tax for any year of income unless the person upon whose income the tax is chargeable was resident in the United Republic in such year of income.

(3) The tax chargeable upon the income of any person in respect of which a credit is to be allowed under a special arrangement shall be the amount by which the tax chargeable (before allowance of the credit) in respect of his total income is increased by the inclusion of such income in his total income:

Provided that where foreign tax is payable at different rates on different parts of the total income of such person, the tax chargeable on such income shall be apportioned to each such part in such amounts as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable.

[ss. 44 -46]

(4) A credit shall not exceed the amount of the tax chargeable upon the income in respect of which the credit is to be allowed or upon each part of such income, as the case may be, computed in accordance with this Act.

(5) Where-

(a) any special arrangement provides, in relation to dividends of some classes but not in relation to dividends of other classes, that foreign tax not charged directly or by deduction in respect of dividends is to be taken into account in considering whether any, and if so, what, credit is to be given against tax in respect of such dividends; and

(b) a dividend is paid which is not of a class to which such arrangement so applies,

then, if such dividend is paid to a company which controls, directly or indirectly, not less than one half of the voting power in the company paying the dividend, a credit shall be allowed as if such dividend were a dividend of a class in relation to which such arrangement so provided.

(6) A credit shall not be allowed under any special arrangement against tax chargeable upon the income of any person for any year of income if he elects by notice in writing to the Commissioner that credit shall not be allowed in the case of his income for such year of income.

(7) Where the amount of any credit or exemption given under any special arrangement is rendered excessive or insufficient by reason of any adjustment of the amount of any income tax, or tax of a similar nature, payable either in the United Republic or elsewhere, nothing in this Act limiting the time for the making of assessments or claims for relief shall apply to any assessment or claim to which the adjustment gives rise, being an assessment or claim made within six years from the time when all such assessments, adjustments and other determinations have been made, whether in the United Republic or elsewhere, as are material in determining whether any and, if so, what credit is to be given.

(8) In this section, "credit" means a credit mentioned in subsection (1).

45. Subject to subsection (7) of section 44 of this Act any claim for an allowance by way of credit under this part of the Act shall be made to the Commissioner within six years from the end of the year of income to which it relates.

RETURNS AND NOTICES

income and

Provided that in the case of a person carrying on a business who has made a provisional return of income the return of income under this subsection may be made within a period not exceeding nine months from the date to which he makes up the accounts of such business.

(2) In the case of the executors or administrators of a deceased person, or of the liquidator of a resident company, or partners of a firm being wound up or of a bankrupt, or of any person whom the Commissioner has reason to believe is about to leave the United Republic, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require him to furnish a return of income at any time whether before or after the end of the year of income to which such return relates.

(3) Every person chargeable to tax for any year of income who has not within four months after the end of such year of income been required to make a return of income for such year of income under subsection (1) of this section, shall, within fourteen days after the expiration of such period of four months, give notice in writing to the Commissioner that he is so chargeable:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in relation to-

- (a) a person who carries on business the accounting period for which ends on some day other than 31st December and who has made a return of income for such year of income within four months of the end of such accounting period; or
- (b) an employee-
 - (i) if such employee had no income chargeable to tax for such year of income other than his income from emoluments; and
 - (ii) if the tax payable in respect of such emoluments has been recovered by deduction under Part IX of this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act an individual farmer may elect that in relation to any year of income his income be ascertained by the District Advisory Committee of the district in which he ordinarily resides and where such election is made by a farmer the foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply in relation to such farmer and the income of such farmer shall be ascertained by the District Advisory Committee in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Minister; and in the performance of its functions under this subsection every District Advisory Committee shall have such powers as may be prescribed:

Provided that no election under this subsection may be made by a farmer in relation to whom the District Advisory Committee is satisfied that he is not engaged in traditional farming and is able to keep books of account.

[ss. 57-58]

58.-(1) Subject to this section, and without prejudice to his other powers under this Part, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require any person to furnish him for any year of income with a provisional return of income:

Provisional returns

Provided that—

- (a) an employee shall not be required to furnish such a return —
 - (i) if to the best of his knowledge and belief he will have no income chargeable to tax for such year of income other than from emoluments; and
 - (ii) if he has reasonable grounds to believe that the whole of the tax payable by him in respect of such emoluments will be recovered by deduction under Part IX; and
- (b) no person shall be required to furnish such a return if he has furnished a return under section 57 or his income has been ascertained under subsection (4) of that section, and an assessment has been made by the Commissioner for such year of income.
- (2) A provisional return of income for any year of income —
 - (a) shall be furnished-
 - (i) in a case to which subsection (1) of section 31 of this Act applies-
 - A. where the return is required to be submitted by a person other than an individual, not later than three months from the date to which such person has made up his accounts in such year of income;
 - B. where the return is required to be submitted by an individual, not later than three months from the date to which such person has made up his accounts for the preceding year of income; and
 - (ii) in any other case, not later than the 31st March following the year of income to which such return relates;
 - (b) shall contain an estimate-
 - (i) of the income of such person, including income deemed to be his under this Act, charged to tax, based on all the information available to him at the date on which the return is made and which he believes to be true; and
 - (ii) of the tax chargeable, on such income, calculated by reference to the rates of tax appropriate to such person as in force at the date of such return; and
 - (c) shall include a declaration by such person or by the person in whose name he is assessable that such provisional return contains full and true estimates of his income and tax to the best of this knowledge and belief.

(3) Any person who might be required to furnish a provisional return of income and who has not received a notice under subsection (1) of this section within the period specified in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section shall, within fourteen days of the expiration of such period, notify the Commissioner in writing that he has not received such notice.

Documents to be included in return of income

59.-(1) Where any person who carries on any business makes a return of income for any year of income and accounts of his business for any accounting period relating to such year of income have been prepared or examined by an auditor or accountant in a professional capacity, then he shall furnish with such return of income-

(a) a copy of such accounts signed by himself and by such auditor or accountant together with a certificate signed by such Person-

(i) where such accounts were prepared by such auditor or accountant, specifying the nature of the books of accounts and documents from which such accounts were so prepared; and

(ii) stating whether and subject to what reservations, if any, he considers that such accounts present a true and fair view of the gains or profits from such business for such period;

(b) in the case of a corporation or partnership, with a certificate specifying the nature and amounts of all payments of whatsoever kind made, and the nature of any benefit, advantage, or facility of whatsoever kind granted to the director or, as the case may be, the partners, or to the employees whose employments are at the rate of twenty-four thousand shillings a year or more; and such certificate shall be signed by a majority of the directors or partners (of whom one shall be the partner who signed the return of income of the partnership), as the case may be, or, if there are less than three such directors or partners, by all such directors or partners.

(2) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require any person who has made a return of income and to whom subsection (1) of this section applies to furnish him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice, with a certificate signed by the auditor or accountant who prepared or examined the accounts a copy of which was sent with such return-

(i) stating whether to the best of his knowledge and belief the certificate referred to in paragraph (b) of the said subsection is true and correct;

(h) where such accounts were prepared by such auditor or accountant, recording the extent of his verification of the books of account and documents produced to him;

(iii) where such accounts were examined by such auditor or accountant, specifying the nature of the, books of account and documents produced to him and the extent of his examination thereof.

(3) Where any auditor or accountant refuses to give any certificate referred to in subsection (1) or (2) of this section he shall furnish to the person who made the return a statement in writing of such refusal and of the reasons therefor and the person who made such return shall send such statement to the Commissioner.

(4) Without prejudice to section 62, where any person who carries on any business makes a return of income for any year of income and accounts of his business for any accounting period relating to such year of income have not been prepared or examined by an auditor or accountant, then he shall furnish with such return of income such accounts of his business for the accounting period relating to such year of income as are necessary to support the information contained in such return together with a certificate signed by himself-

(i) specifying the nature of the books of account and documents from which such accounts were prepared;

(ii) stating whether such accounts reflect all the transactions of his business and present a true and fair view of the gains or profits from such business for such period;

(5) For the purposes of this section "accounts" means a balance sheet or a statement of assets and liabilities, and a trading account, profit and loss account, receipts and payments accounts, or other similar account however named.

60. (1) A return of income or a provisional return of income required to be submitted to the Commissioner by any person shall be deemed not to have been submitted unless such return was prepared or certified by an authorized auditor or an authorized accountant.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply in the case of a return of the income of an individual or of a partnership firm-

(a) the whole of whose income is derived from employment; or

(b) the whole of whose gross annual income is less than one hundred fifty thousand shillings.

(3) For the purposes of this section "authorized auditor" and "authorized accountant" shall have the meanings assigned to those expressions respectively in the Auditors and Accountants (Registration) Act, 1972.

Returns to be prepared and certified by qualified auditor or accountant

Acts, 1972
No. 33

61.-(1) Where a person appearing to be chargeable with tax fails or refuses to keep books of accounts which, in the opinion of the Commissioner are adequate for the purpose of computing tax, then the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require such person to keep such records, books, and accounts, and to keep them in such language, as may be specified in such notice.

Books and accounts

(2) Every person carrying on a business shall preserve every book of account and every document which is essential to the explanation of any entry in such book of account, relating to such business for a period of not less than ten years after the year of income to which such book of account or document relates:

Provided that, subject to section 62, this section shall not require the preservation of any document or book of account-

[ss. 60-63]

- (a) in respect of which the Commissioner has notified that person in writing that preservation is not required; or
- (b) in the case of a company which has gone, into liquidation and has been finally dissolved or in the case of the cessation of a business other than one carried on by a company, for more than six months after the date on which the person having custody of the documents or books of account relating to such company or business as the case may be, informs the Commissioner that he proposes to destroy them.

Production and preservation of books, attendance, etc.

62. (1) For the purpose of obtaining full information in respect of the income of any person or class of persons, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require, in the case of the income of any person, that person or any other person, and in the case of any class of persons, any person-

- (i) to produce for examination by the Commissioner at such time and place as may be specified in such notice, any account, books of account, and other documents which the Commissioner may consider necessary;
- (ii) to produce forthwith for retention by the Commissioner for such period as may be reasonable for their examination any accounts, books of account and other documents which the Commissioner may specify in such notice;
- (iii) not to destroy, damage or deface on or after service of such notice any of the accounts, books of account and other documents so specified without permission of the Commissioner in writing:

Provided that in the case of a financial institution listed in the Fourth Schedule to this Act the power of the Commissioner under this section shall be limited to the inspection of books or documents at the place at which they are kept and to the taking of copies of any relevant entries therein.

(2) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require any person entitled to or in receipt of any income, whether on his own behalf or as representative of any other person, to attend at such time and place as may be specified in such notice for the purpose of being examined respecting his income or the income of any such other person or any transaction or matter appearing to be relevant thereto.

(3) The Commissioner may exercise the powers conferred on him by this section in relation to any year of income at any time prior to the expiry of seven years after such year of income:

Provided that, where the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that any fraud, any gross or willful neglect has been committed in connection with, or in relation to, tax for any year of income, the Commissioner may exercise such powers in relation to any year of income.

Return as to salaries, pensions, etc.

63. (1) The Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require any employer or any other person making the payments herein referred to, to furnish him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice, with a return containing-

[ss. 63-64]

- (a) the names and addresses of all persons to whom or in respect of whom payments and allowances were made by him in respect of their employment, and the amounts of the payments and allowances made to each of such person;
- (b) the names and addresses of all persons to whom he paid pensions in respect of past employment with him or with any other person and the amount of the pension paid to each of such persons:

Provided that Commissioner may by notice in writing exclude from such return any class of persons or payments or allowances.

(2) For the purposes of this section, references in subsection (1)-

- (a) to payments and allowances made to persons in respect of their employment include all payments, and all benefits, advantages and facilities which are referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (e) of subsection (2) of section 5;
- (b) to persons employed include in relation to a corporation, a director of that corporation.

(3) By notice published in the Gazette, the Commissioner may require all employers, or any employer or class of employers, to furnish him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of the publication of such notice, with a written return containing the name and address of the employer and the number of his employees from whose emoluments tax is to be deducted in accordance with Part IX of this Act and with such other information as the Commissioner by such notice may require.

64.-(1) The Commissioner may, by notice, in writing, require any person carrying on any business to furnish him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice, with a return of all payments made by such person of any kind specified in the notice, being—

- (a) payments made in the course of the business for services rendered, or in anticipation of services to be rendered, by persons not employed in such business;
- (b) payments for services rendered, or in anticipation of services to be rendered, in connection with the formation, acquisition, development, or disposal of the business or any part of it, by persons not employed in such business; or
- (c) periodical or lump sum payments in respect of any royalty or management or professional fee.

(2) A return made under this section shall give the names and addresses of all persons to whom payments were made, the amounts of the payments and such other particulars as may be specified in the notice.

(3) For the purposes of this section-

- (a) references to payments for services include references to payments in the nature of commission of any kind and references to payments in respect of expenses incurred in connection with the rendering of services;
- (b) references to the making of payments include references to the giving of any form of valuable consideration.

Return as to fees, commissions,
royalties, etc.

and the requirement imposed by subsection (2) of this section to state the amount of a payment shall, in relation to any consideration given otherwise than in the form of money, be construed as a requirement to give particulars of the consideration.

75. The Commissioner may, by notice in writing require any person to furnish him within a reasonable time specified in the notice, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice, with further returns or particulars in relation to any matter contained in a return made under this Act, or in relation to any transactions or matters appearing to the Commissioner to be relevant to the ascertainment of the income of any person.

time

76. Where any notice has been served under this Part requiring any return to be made within a specified number of days, the Commissioner may, by a further notice in writing served on the person, extend the period in which such return is to be made.

Return deemed to be furnished by the authority

77. A return, statement, or form, purporting to be furnished under this Act by or on behalf of any person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been furnished by that person or by his authority, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved, and any person signing any such return, statement, or form, shall be deemed to be cognizant of all matters contained therein.

Additional tax in event of failure to furnish return or fraud in relation to a return

- 78. (1) Any person who, in relation to any year of income, fails-
- (a) to furnish a return of income or to give a notice to the Commissioner, as required by section 57 of this Act shall, for each period of one month or part thereof during which such failure continues, be charged with additional tax equal to two per cent of the normal tax; or
 - (b) to furnish a provisional return of income or to give a notice to the Commissioner, as required by section 58, shall, for each month or part thereof from the commencement of such failure up to the date on which the Commissioner makes a provisional assessment for such year of income under subsection (3) of section 80 or an assessment under section 79, whichever is the earlier, be charged with additional tax equal to two per cent per month of the normal tax in such provisional assessment or assessment, as the case may be:

Provided that-

- (i) such additional tax shall not be less than five hundred shillings in the case of an individual, or one thousand shillings in any other case;
- (ii) if the Commissioner is satisfied that owing to absence from the United Republic, sickness or other reasonable cause the person was prevented from furnishing the return or giving notice within the required period, the Commissioner may at any time remit the whole or any part of such additional tax.

(2) Any person who, in relation to any year of income, omits from his return of income any amount which should have been included therein or claims any deduction to which he is not entitled, or at any time makes any incorrect statement in relation to any matter affecting his liability to tax shall, where such omission, claim or statement was due to any fraud or to any gross neglect, be charged for such year of income with an amount of tax equal to three times the difference between the normal tax chargeable on the basis of the return made by him, the deduction claimed by him or the statement affecting his liability to tax, as the case may be, and the normal tax properly chargeable in respect of his total income under this Act, and any person who, in his return of income for any year of income, deducts or sets off any amount the deduction or set-off whereof is not allowed under this Act, or shows as an expenditure or loss of any amount which he has not in fact expended or lost, shall be deemed for the purposes of this subsection to have omitted such amount from his return of income.

(3) Where any such failure, omission, claim statement, deduction or set-off as is referred to in subsection (1) and (i) of this section has been made in connection with a return of income required under this Act to be furnished by any person on behalf of another person, both such person and such other person shall be jointly and severally liable for any additional tax charged under this section.

(4) Where any such failure, omission, claim, statement, deduction or set-off as is referred to in subsections (1) and (2) has been made in a return prepared or certified by an authorized auditor or an authorized accountant, such authorized auditor or authorized accountant as well as the person to whom the return relates, shall be jointly and severally liable for any additional tax charged under this section:

Provided that no liability under this section shall arise against an authorized auditor or authorized accountant who prepared or certified the return if he satisfies the Commissioner that he was not aware of and could not by the exercise of reasonable professional diligence have been aware of, such failure, omission, claim, statement, deduction or set-off.

- (5) The additional tax charged under this section-
 - (a) shall be charged in an assessment or provisional assessment made under this Act whether or not any proceedings are commenced for any offence against this Act arising out of the same facts; and

[ss. 78-79]

(b) shall be payable in addition to the normal tax and shall be levied and collected as if it were normal tax:

Provided that such additional tax shall be deemed not to be tax paid or payable for the purposes of sections 11, 35, 41, 43 or 44, or of calculating any fine under subsection (1) of section 1.18.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in Part XV, where in any appeal against an assessment which includes additional tax one of the grounds of appeal relates to the charge of such additional tax, the decision of the Appeals Board or the Tribunal in relation to such ground of appeal shall be confined to the question--

(a) where additional tax has been charged under subsection (1) of this section, as to whether or not there was any failure within the meaning of that subsection; or

(b) where additional tax has been charged under subsection (2) of this section, as to whether or not the omission, claim, statement, deduction or set-off which gave rise to the charge was due to any fraud or to any gross neglect;

(c) where an authorized accountant or auditor is made liable for the additional tax, whether reasonable professional diligence was exercised, and where any such question is decided in favour of the person concerned no such additional tax shall be payable.

(7) The Minister may, in his discretion, at any time remit the whole or part of any additional tax imposed under subsection (2) of this section and a refusal to make a remission under this subsection shall not be questioned in any court.

(8) In this section "normal tax" means tax charged under this Act apart from this section and "additional tax" means tax charged under this section in addition to the normal tax.

PART XIV

ASSESSMENTS

Assessments

79.-(1) Save as otherwise provided, the Commissioner shall assess every person who has income chargeable to tax as expeditiously as possible. after the expiry of the time allowed to such person under this Act for the delivery of a return of income.

(2) Where a person has delivered a return of income, the Commissioner may-

(a) accept such return and assess him on the basis thereof; or

(b) if he has reasonable cause to believe that such return is not true and correct, determine, according to the best of his judgment, the amount of the income of such person and assess him accordingly.

(3) Where a person has not delivered a return of income for any year of income, whether or not he has been required by the Commissioner so to do, and the Commissioner considers that such person has income chargeable to tax for such year, he may, according to the best of his judgment, determine the amount of the income of such person and assess him accordingly; but such assessment shall not affect any liability otherwise incurred by such person under this Act in consequence of his failure to deliver such return: Provisional assessment

Provided that in the case of a person whose income in any year of income has been ascertained by a District Advisory Committee under subsection (4) of section 57 the Commissioner shall proceed to assess tax on the basis of such ascertainment.

80.-(1) Without prejudice to his powers under section 79, the Commissioner shall proceed to make a provisional assessment in respect of every person as expeditiously as possible after the expiry of the time allowed to such person under this Act for the delivery of a provisional return of income.

(2) When a person has furnished a provisional return of income he shall thereupon be deemed to have been provisionally assessed under this section on the basis of the estimates contained in such return.

(3) Where a person has not submitted a provisional return of income for any year of income, whether or not he has been required by the Commissioner so to do, and the Commissioner considers such person has or will have income chargeable to tax for such year, he may, according to the best of his judgment, estimate the income of such person and make a provisional assessment upon him accordingly.

81. Where the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to leave the United Republic, or has left the United Republic and his absence is unlikely to be only temporary, and such person has not been assessed to tax on income chargeable to tax for any year of income, then, the Commissioner may, according to the best of his judgment, determine the amount of the income of such person for such year of income and assess him accordingly, but such assessment shall not affect any liability of such person otherwise arising under this Act. Assessment of person about the leave left the United Republic

82. The Commissioner shall not assess an employee for any year of income- Assessment not to be made on certain employees

- (i) if such employee had no income chargeable to tax for such year of income other than income consisting of emoluments; and
- (ii) if on the basis of such emoluments the tax payable by such employee in respect of such emoluments has been recovered by deduction under section 36, unless, prior to the expiry of seven years after such year of income, such employee applies to the Commissioner to be assessed, whether in connection with any claim for repayment of tax or otherwise, or the Commissioner considers an assessment to be necessary or expedient so as to arrive at the correct amount of the tax to be charged upon or to be payable by such employee for such year of income.

[ss. 83-86]

Additional assessment

83. Where the Commissioner considers that any person has been assessed at a less amount, either in relation to the income assessed or to the amount of tax payable than that at which he ought to be assessed, the Commissioner shall, by an additional assessment, assess such person at such additional amount as, according to the best of his judgment, such person ought to be assessed.

Service of notice of assessment, etc.

84. The Commissioner shall cause a notice of an assessment or provisional assessment to be served on each person assessed, and such notice shall state the amount of income assessed and the amount of tax payable and shall inform the person assessed of his rights under section 91 of this Act:

Provided that no such notice need be served in the case of a person deemed to have been assessed under subsection (2) of section 80.

Time limit for making assessment

85.-(1) An assessment may be made under this Act at any time prior to the expiry of seven years after the year of income to which the assessment relates:

Provided that-

- (a) where any fraud or any gross or willful neglect has been committed by or on behalf of any person in connection with or in relation to tax for any year of income, an assessment in relation to such year of income may be made at any time.
- (b) in the case of income consisting of gains or profits from employment or services rendered, an assessment in relation thereto may be made at any time prior to the expiry of seven years after the year of income in which the gains or profits are received;
- (c) in any case to which —
 - (i) the proviso to paragraph (d) of section 4; or
 - (ii) the proviso to paragraph 22 of the Second Schedule, applies, an assessment in relation thereto may be made at any time prior to the expiry of seven years after the year of income in which the circumstances which gave rise to the assessment occurred;
- (d) in the case of an assessment made upon the executors or administrators of a deceased person in respect of the income of such person, the assessment shall be made prior to the expiry of three years after the year of income in which such deceased person died.

(2) The question whether an assessment has been made after the time specified in this section for the making thereof shall be raised only on an objection made under section 91 and on any appeal consequent thereon.

Assessment list

86.-(1) As soon as is reasonably practicable after the expiry of the time allowed under this Act for the delivery of returns of income in respect of each year of income, the Commissioner shall cause to be prepared a list of persons assessed to tax in respect of that year, and each such list shall contain in relation to each person so assessed-

[ss. 86-89]

- (a) his name and address;
- (b) the amount of income upon which assessment has been made; and
- (c) the amount of tax payable.

(2) In any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, under this Act, a document purporting to be an extract from an assessment list and certified by the Commissioner to be a true copy of the relevant entry in the list shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated therein.

87.-(1) No assessment, warrant or other document purporting to be made, issued or executed under this Act shall be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable, for want of form or be affected by reason of a mistake, defect or omission (therein, if it is in substance and effect in conformity with or according to the intent and meaning of this Act and if the person assessed or intended to be assessed or affected thereby is designated therein according to common intent and understanding.

Errors, etc,
in assessments
or notices

(2) An assessment shall not be impeached or affected by reason of any-

- (a) mistake therein as to-
 - (i) the name of the person assessed; or
 - (ii) the description of any income;
- (b) variance between the assessment and the duly served notice thereof, which is not likely to deceive or mislead any person affected by the assessment.

PART XV

OBJECTIONS, APPEALS AND RELIEF FOR MISTAKE

A. Appeals Boards and Appeals Tribunal

88. In this Act—

Construction

"appellate authority" means, in the case of an appeal to an Appeals Board, the Appeals Board, and in the case of an appeal to the Tribunal, the Tribunal;

"Appeals Board" means a Tax Appeals Board established under section 89,

"the Tribunal" means the Tax Appeals Tribunal established by section 90.

Board

- (a) in each region of Tanganyika and shall be known as the Tax Appeals Board of the region for which it is established;
- (b) in Zanzibar, to be known as the Tax Appeals Board for Zanzibar;
- (c) in Pemba, to be known as the Tax Appeals Board for Pemba:

Provided that the Minister may, on the advice of the First Vice-President, establish two or more Tax Appeals Boards for Zanzibar and Pemba.

[s. 89]

(2) An Appeals Board shall consist of a chairman and not less than two and not more than five other members:

Provided that no public officer normally employed in relation to the assessment or collection of income tax shall be eligible for appointment as a chairman or member of an Appeals Board.

(3) The chairman and the members of an Appeals Board shall be appointed by the Minister:

Provided that in relation to the Appeals Boards for Zanzibar and Pemba such appointments shall be made after consultation with the First Vice-President.

(4) A member of an Appeals Board shall hold office for such period, not exceeding three years, as may be specified in his appointment unless, prior to the expiration of such period-

- (a) he resigns his office by notice in writing to the Minister; or
- (b) his appointment is revoked by the Minister.

(5) Where at any meeting of an Appeals Board the chairman is absent, then, subject to the subsection (6), the members present may, from amongst their number elect a temporary chairman who shall be the chairman of the Board for that meeting.

(6) The quorum for a meeting of an Appeals Board shall be three members.

(7) The members of an Appeals Board shall be entitled to receive such subsistence and travelling allowances as the Minister may prescribe.

(8) The members of an Appeals Board shall not be personally liable for any act or default of the Board done or committed in good faith in the course of exercising the powers conferred by this Act.

(9) Subject to the provisions relating to quorum no proceeding or decision of an Appeals Board shall be invalid by reason only of some defect in the appointment of a person who purports to be a member thereof or of any vacancy in the membership thereof.

(10) The Minister for the time being responsible for legal affairs may after consultation with the Minister make rules-

- (a) prescribing the manner in which an appeal under this Act may be made to an Appeals Board and the fees to be paid in respect of any such appeal;
- (b) Prescribing the procedure to be adopted by an Appeals Board in hearing such appeal and the records to be kept by such Board;
- (c) prescribing the manner in which an Appeals Board shall be convened and the places where and the time at which it shall hold sittings;
- (d) prescribing a scale of costs which may be awarded by Appeals Board;
- (e) for the taking of evidence on oath and the administration of oath to a witness by a member of the Board;
- (f) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act relating to Appeals Boards and appeals thereto.

[ss. 90-91]
The Tribunal

90.-(1) There is hereby established a Tax Appeals Tribunal which shall exercise the functions conferred upon it by this Act.

(2) The Tribunal shall consist of a Judge of the High Court of Tanzania nominated by the Minister for the time being responsible for legal affairs and two assessors at least one of whom shall be an auditor or an accountant registered as an authorized auditor or an authorized accountant under the Auditors and Accountants (Registration) Act, 1972 and in determining any matter or issue before the Tribunal the presiding Judge shall require each of the two assessors, before any decision on such matter or issue is given, to give his opinion on such matter or issue:

Provided that in determining any such matter or issue the presiding Judge shall not be bound to conform with the opinion of the assessors.

(4) The Minister for the time being responsible for legal affairs may, after consultation with the Minister make rules-

- (a) prescribing the manner in which an appeal shall be made to the Tribunal and the fees to be paid in respect of any such appeal;
- (b) prescribing the procedure to be adopted by the Tribunal in hearing an appeal and the records to be kept by the Tribunal;
- (c) prescribing the manner in which the Tribunal shall be convened, the places where and the time at which sittings shall be held and the manner in which assessors shall be selected;
- (d) prescribing a scale of costs which may be awarded by the Tribunal;
- (e) prescribing allowances to be paid to assessors; and
- (f) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act relating to the Tribunal and appeals thereto.

B. Objections

91.-(1) any person who disputes an assessment made upon him under this Act may, by notice in writing to the Commissioner, object to the assessment:

Notice of object to assessment

Provided that no objection to an assessment shall be entertained unless payment of the amount of tax not in dispute, or deemed by subsection (6) of section 99 not in dispute, has been paid in accordance with the provisions of that section.

(2) A notice given under subsection (1) of this section shall not be valid notice of objection unless it states precisely the grounds of objection to the assessment and is received by the Commissioner within thirty days after the date of service of the notice of assessment:

Provided that if the Commissioner is satisfied that owing to absence from the United Republic, sickness or other reasonable cause the person objecting to the assessment was prevented from giving such notice within such period and that there has been no unreasonable delay on his part, the Commissioner may, upon application by the person objecting, and upon payment by him of the tax not in dispute or deemed by subsection (6) of section 99 not to be in dispute, admit any such notice after the expiry of such period and such admitted notice shall be a valid notice of objection.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Commissioner to admit a notice of objection under the proviso to subsection (2) of this section may, on depositing with the Commissioner the whole of the amount of tax assessed under the assessment to which the objection is made and on paying any interest due under section 101, appeal against such refusal to an Appeals Board, whose decision on whether or not the notice of objection be admitted by the Commissioner shall be final and no appeal shall lie against such decision.

Power of Commissioner
on receipt
objection

92. -(1) On an objection under this Part it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to hear or receive any evidence relevant to the assessment and the Commissioner may-

- (a) amend the assessment in accordance with objection, or
- (b) amend the assessment in the light of the objection and any further evidence adduced, according to the best of his judgment; or
- (c) refuse to amend the assessment.

(2) Where the Commissioner either-

- (a) agrees to amend the assessment in accordance with the objection; or
- (b) proposes to amend the assessment in the light of the objection and any further evidence adduced and the person objecting agrees with the Commissioner as to such proposed amendment, the assessment shall be amended accordingly and the Commissioner shall cause a notice setting out such amendment and the amount of the tax payable to be served on such person.

(3) Where the Commissioner-

- (a) proposes to amend the assessment in the light of the objection and any further evidence adduced and the person objecting does not agree with the Commissioner as to such proposed amendment, the assessment shall be amended as proposed by the Commissioner and he shall cause a notice setting out such amendment and the amount of the tax payable to be served on such person;
- (b) refuses to amend the assessment, he shall cause a notice confirming the assessment to be served on such person.

C. Appeals

Right of appeal from Commissioner's determination of

93.-(1) A person who has been served with a notice under subsection (3) of section 92 of this Act may appeal against the decision of the Commissioner-

- (a) if he is resident person, to the Appeals Board of the region or area in which he ordinarily resides or carries on business;
- (b) if he is a non-resident person, to the Appeals Board for Dar es Salaam Region:

Provided that an Appeals Board shall not entertain any appeal under this section unless-

- (i) the appellant gave notice of appeal in writing to the Commissioner within thirty days after the date of service upon him of the notice under subsection (3) of section 92;

[ss. 93-94]

- (ii) such appeal is lodged with the Appeals Board within forty-five days of the date of service upon the appellant of the notice under subsection (3) of section 92.

(2) If the Commissioner or the appellant is aggrieved with a decision of an Appeals Board on appeal under subsection (1) of this section he may appeal against such decision to the Tribunal upon giving notice of appeal in writing to the other party to the original appeal within fifteen days after the date on which a notice of such decision has been served upon him and upon lodging an appeal with the Tribunal within thirty days of such date last mentioned.

(3) The decision of the Tribunal on any appeal under subsection (2) shall be final and no appeal shall lie against such decision to any court or other authority.

(4) Where a party to an appeal or a person intending to appeal has failed to give notice of appeal within a period specified in this section, he may apply to the appellate authority to which the appeal is intended to be made for an extension of the time in which to give such notice of appeal, and such appellate authority may, on being satisfied that the delay was occasioned by absence from the United Republic, sickness or other reasonable cause, and that there has been no unreasonable delay on the part of the applicant, grant such extension subject to such terms as to costs or otherwise as the appellate authority may consider just.

(5) An appellate authority shall not entertain any appeal under this section unless the appellant did, before lodging such appeal, deposit with the Commissioner the whole of the tax assessed under the assessment, or as the case may be, the amended assessment to which the appeal relates together with any interest due under section 101.

94. In every appeal under section 93-

- (a) the appellant shall appear before the appellate authority either in person or by his duly authorized agent on the day and at the time fixed for the hearing of the appeal:
Provided that-
- (i) if it be proved to the satisfaction of the appellate authority that owing to absence of the appellant from the United Republic, sickness, or other reasonable cause, he is prevented from attending or being represented at the hearing of the appeal on the day and at the time fixed for that purpose, the appellate authority may postpone the hearing of such appeal for such reasonable time as it may think necessary;
- (ii) in the case of an appeal to the Tribunal the appellant may be represented by an advocate;
- (b) the appellate authority shall have the right to summon and hear any witness and receive evidence in the manner and to the same extent as if it were a court exercising civil jurisdiction in a civil case and the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code. 1966

Procedure on appeals

Acts 1966
No. 49

[ss. 94 -95]

relating to summoning of witnesses, the taking of testimony on oath, and non-compliance with a witness summons shall apply in relation to an appeal before an appellate authority:

Provided that the Tribunal may not admit any fresh evidence save in the circumstances in which the High Court may admit fresh evidence on a first appeal in a civil case;

- (c) the onus of proving that the assessment or decision appealed against is excessive or erroneous shall be on the appellant;
- (d) the appellate authority may confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment concerned or make such other order thereon as it may think fit;
- (e) the costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the appellate authority;
- (f) the appellate authority shall, within fifteen days of its decision, cause a notice of such decision and of the date thereof to be issued and such notice shall be served on the parties to the appeal;
- (g) where the decision of the appellate authority results in any amendment to an assessment, the assessment shall be amended accordingly and the Commissioner shall cause a notice setting out such amendment and the amount of tax payable to be served on the person assessed.

Finality of assessment

95.-(1) Where, in relation to any assessment-

- (a) no notice of objection has been given; or
- (b) a notice of objection has been given and-
 - (i) the assessment has been amended under subsection (2) of section 92; or
 - (ii) a notice has been served under subsection (3) of that section but no appeal has been brought; or
 - (iii) the assessment has been finally determined on an appeal, the assessment as made, or so amended, or determined on appeal, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the Commissioner from making any additional assessment for any year of income which does not involve re-opening any matter which has been determined on an appeal or an assessment for such year of income:

Provided that when any fraud or any gross or willful neglect has been committed by or on behalf of any person in connection with or in relation to tax for any year of income, the Commissioner may make an additional assessment on that person for such year of income notwithstanding that it involves re-opening a matter which has been determined on such appeal.

96.-(1) Any person aggrieved by-

- (a) a notice given by the Commissioner under subsection (1) of section 62; or
- (b) a refusal by the Commissioner to make any refund or repayment under section 112 or 113; or
- (c) an apportionment of any amount or sum by the Commissioner under the Second Schedule which affects, or may affect, the liability to tax of two or more persons; or
- (d) a determination by the Commissioner under paragraph 32 (4) of the Second Schedule,

Application of appeal procedure to decision etc., of Commissioner may appeal therefrom to an Appeals Board.

(2) The provisions of this Act relating to appeals to an Appeals Board against assessments and the provisions relating to further appeals to the Tribunal shall have effect with respect to any appeal under this section as if such appeal were an appeal against an assessment.

97. Where any appeal is lodged under this Part against any decision or act of the Commissioner which affects, or is likely to affect, the incomes of two or more persons, then-

Appeals affecting two or more person

- (a) in a case where the same Appeals Board has jurisdiction with respect to the persons concerned, the appeal shall be heard by such Appeals Board;
- (b) in a case where different Appeals Boards have jurisdiction with respect to the persons concerned, the appeal shall be heard by such one of those Appeals Boards as may be agreed upon by such persons or, in default of agreement, by the Appeals Board having jurisdiction in relation to the person who first lodges. an appeal;
- (c) a person lodging an appeal shall serve a copy of all the appeal documents on all other such persons who shall be entitled to appear on the appeal as if they were parties thereto;
- (d) if the Appeals Board before which such appeal is heard considers that any other person should be joined, it may order that a copy of all the appeal documents shall be served on such other person who shall be entitled to appear on the appeal as if he were a party thereto.

D. Relief for Errors

98-(1) Where for any year of income, a person who, having made a return of income, has been assessed to tax under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 79, and alleges that the assessment was excessive by reason of some error or mistake of fact in such return, then he may, not later than seven years after the expiry of such year of income, make an application to the Commissioner for relief.

Relief in respect of error or mistake

(2) On receiving any such application the Commissioner shall inquire into the matter and, after taking into account all relevant circumstances, shall give such relief by way of repayment as is reasonable and just:

Provided that no relief shall be given in respect of an error or mistake as to basis on which the liability of an applicant should have been computed where the return of income was in fact made on the basis or in accordance with the practice generally prevailing at the time such return of income was made.

PART XVI

COLLECTION, RECOVERY AND REPAYMENT OF TAX

Time within which payment to be made

99.-(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, or any subsidiary legislation made hereunder, tax charged h, any assessment shall be payable in accordance with this section.

(2) The tax charged in any assessment other than a provisional assessment shall be payable-

- (a) in the case of an individual, within thirty days from the date of service of notice of such assessment;
- (b) in the case of a person other than an individual-
 - (i) where a return has been submitted under section 57 and assessment made under section 79 before 31st March in the Year following the year of income in respect of which the tax is charged, the whole tax on or before 31st March in such following year; and
 - (ii) in all other cases, within thirty days from the date of service of notice of such assessment.

(3) Where a Provisional assessment is made on any person other than an individual in accordance with section 80 the whole of the tax charged shall be payable within three months from the end of the accounting period:

Provided that where such provisional assessment is made under subsection (3) of section 80 the whole of the tax shall-

- (a) be payable within thirty days from the date of service of notice of such assessment; and
- (b) be deemed for the purposes of section 101 to have been payable-
 - (i) on a date three months from the end of the accounting period in a case to which section 31 applies; or
 - (ii) on 31st March in any other case.

(4) Where a provisional assessment is made on an individual in accordance with section 80 the tax charged shall be payable in four equal quarterly installments-

- (a) in any case to which section 31 applies not later than three months, six months, nine months and twelve months respectively, after the end of the accounting period; and
- (b) in any other case, not later than 31st March, 30th June, 30th September and 31st December respectively:

Provided that-

- (i) where such provisional assessment is amended under the proviso to subsection (2) of section 80. the installments still remaining unpaid shall be varied accordingly;
- (ii) where such provisional assessment is made under subsection (3) of section 80 the tax (to the extent that due dates specified in this subsection shall already be past), shall be payable within thirty days from the date of service of notice of such assessment.

(5) In the case of a company which is being wound up, the due dates for payment of tax on any income chargeable for the year of income in which the winding-up commences and for the preceding year of income shall be deemed for the purpose of priority of debts, but for that purpose only, to be the date next before the date of the winding-up order or the resolution, special resolution or extra-ordinary resolution, as the case may be, passed for the winding-up of the company and whether or not assessments have been made before that date.

(6) Where a valid notice of objection has been given under section 91 then, notwithstanding that the assessment has not been finally determined-

- (a) where that tax is payable under subsection (3) of this section, the tax not in dispute shall be payable in accordance with subsection (2) and the balance of tax charged shall be payable in accordance with section 100, and
- (b) if the amount of tax payable under the assessment as finally determined is less than the amount paid in accordance with this subsection then the amount overpaid together with any amount deposited with the Commissioner shall be repaid under section 112:

Provided that where more than one-half of the tax assessed is in dispute, the amount of the tax not in dispute shall, for the purposes of this section and section 100, be deemed to be one-half of the tax assessed.

(7) The Commissioner may, in his discretion, extend the period within which any tax is payable and may specify a later due date for payment.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (6) and subject to the proviso to that subsection, the tax which is not in dispute shall be, where the person assessed has given a valid notice of objection, the amount which would be charged if the assessment were amended in accordance with such valid notice.

100. The balance of tax referred to in subsection (6) of section 99 shall be paid-

- (a) in any case to which subsection (2) of section 92 of this Act applies, before the expiry of thirty days after the date of service of the notice under that subsection;

Payment of tax where notice of objection, etc

[ss. 100-102]

- (b) in any case to which subsection (3) of the said section 92 applies but no appeal has been brought under section 93, before the expiry of thirty days after the date of service of the notice under that subsection;
- (c) in any case where an appeal to an appellate authority is intended to be lodged, on the date on which such appeal is lodged or on the expiry of thirty days from the date on which the notice under subsection (3) of section 91 was served on the appellant, whichever first occurs.

Interest on unpaid tax

101.-(1) Where any amount of tax remains unpaid after the due date interest of five per cent shall immediately become due and payable thereon.

(2) Where any amount of tax remains unpaid after the expiration of five months after the due date interest at the rate of ten per cent shall immediately become due and payable thereon, and similar interest shall so become due and payable upon the expiration of each succeeding period of five months on any amount of tax still remaining unpaid at each such expiration.

(3) Any interest charged under this section shall, for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section and of all other provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax, be deemed to be tax.

(4) The Commissioner may, in his absolute discretion, remit the whole or any part of any interest charged under this section.

Interest on underestimated tax

102.-(1) If, for any year of income, the amount of tax finally assessed on the income of any person is greater by twenty per cent than the estimate of tax chargeable contained in a provisional return of income made by that person in respect of such year, interest at the rate of one per cent per month shall be payable on the whole of the difference between the tax so assessed and the tax so estimated.

(2) Interest under subsection (1) of this section shall be calculated-

- (a) in the case of a person other than an individual, from the due date specified in subsection (3) of section 99;
- (b) in any other case, from the due date of payment of the second installment specified in subsection (4) of that section, to the date of payment.

(3) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that a difference referred to in subsection (1) of this section was due to some reasonable cause, he may remit the whole or any part of the interest payable under this section, and where for any year of income any such difference arises wholly or partly from an estimate of tax to be charged made before a change in any allowance, relief or rate of tax, the Commissioner shall remit the interest thereon to the extent to which it is attributable to such change,

[s. 103]
Appointment and duties of agent

103.-(1) In this section-

"agent" means a person appointed as such under subsection (2) of this section;

"appointment notice" means a notice issued by the Commissioner under that subsection appointing an agent;

"moneys" includes any debt, deposit or credit, any salary, wages and pensions payments and any other remuneration whatsoever;

"Principal" means the person in respect of whom an agent is appointed.

(2) The Commissioner may, in his discretion, by written notice addressed to any person-

- (a) appoint him to be the agent of another person for the purposes of the collection and recovery of tax due from such other person; and
- (b) specify the amount of such tax to be collected and recovered.

(3) An agent shall pay the tax specified in his appointment notice out of any moneys which may, at any time during the twelve months following the date of the notice, be held by him for, or become due from him to, his principal.

(4) Where an agent claims to be, or to have become, unable to comply with subsection (3) of this section by reason of the lack of moneys held by, or due from him, he shall, as soon as may be practicable, notify the Commissioner accordingly in writing setting out fully the reasons for his inability so to comply, and the Commissioner may-

- (a) accept the notification and cancel or amend the appointment notice accordingly; or
- (b) if he is not satisfied by such reasons, reject the notification.

(5) Unless and until a notification is given by an agent under subsection (4) of this section-

- (a) sufficient moneys for the payment of the tax specified in his appointment notice shall be presumed to be held by him for, or due from him to, his principal; and
- (b) in any proceedings for the collection or recovery of such tax, he shall be estopped from asserting the lack of such moneys.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, at any time require any person to furnish him within a reasonable time, not being less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice, with a return showing any moneys which may be held by such person for, or become due to him by, any other person from whom tax is due.

(7) Whom an agent fails to pay any amount of tax specified in his appointment notice within thirty days-

- (a) of the date service of such notice on him, or
- (h) of the date on which any moneys come into his hands for. or become due by him to, his principal,

[ss. 103-105]

whichever is the later, and-

- (i) he has not given a notification under subsection (4) of this section; or
- (ii) he has given such notification which has been rejected by the Commissioner,

the provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax shall apply to the collection and recovery of such amount as if it were tax due and payable by the agent, the due date for the payment of which was the date upon which such amount should have been paid to the Commissioner under this subsection.

(8) An agent who has made any payment of tax under this section shall for all purposes be deemed to have acted therein with the authority of his principal and of all other persons concerned, and shall be indemnified in respect of such payment against all proceedings, civil or criminal, and all process, judicial or extrajudicial, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any written law, contract or agreement.

(9) Any person who, in giving a notification under subsection (4) of this section, willfully makes any false or misleading statement, or willfully conceals any material fact, shall be guilty of an offence.

(10) For the purposes of this section, cases where moneys are held by an agent for, or due by him to, his principal, shall include cases where the agent-

- (a) owes or is about to pay or becomes liable to pay money to the principal; or
- (b) holds money for or on account of the principal; or
- (c) holds money on account of some other person for payment to the principal; or
- (d) has authority from some other person to pay money to the principal.

Deceased persons

104. Where any person dies, then, to the extent to which-

- (a) any tax charged in an assessment made upon him has not been paid; or
- (b) his executors are charged to tax in an assessment made under section 53, the amount of tax unpaid or charged, as the case may be, in any such assessment as finally determined shall be a debt due and payable out of his estate.

Collection of tax from person leaving or having left the United Republic

105. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, where the Commissioner has assessed any person under section 81 he may, by notice in writing served on the person assessed, require that payment of the whole of the tax assessed or such part thereof as remains unpaid be made within such time as may be specified in the notice or that security to his satisfaction be given for such payment.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, where the Commissioner has reason to believe that any person who has been assessed to tax otherwise than under section 81 or by whom any tax is payable under any provision of this Act-

- (i) is about to leave the United Republic without having paid such tax; or
- (ii) has left the United Republic without having paid such tax and his absence is unlikely to be only temporary,

he may, whether or not the due date for the payment of such tax has arrived, by notice in writing served on such person, require-

- (a) that payment of the whole, or such part as remains unpaid, of the tax assessed or payable be made within such time as may be specified in the notice; or
- (b) that security to his satisfaction be given for such payment.

(3) Where any notice has been served on any person under section the amount of the tax assessed or payable and required to be paid, shall, notwithstanding that a notice of objection to, or appeal against, the assessment has been given or is pending, be deemed to be due and payable on the date specified in such notice, and in default of compliance with such notice the Commissioner shall, in addition to any action taken under subsection (4) of this section or under section 103, be entitled forthwith to recover the tax by suit or distress under this Act;

Provided that, if subsequent to the commencement of any suit under this section compliance is made with such notice, any such suit shall be discontinued.

(4) Where any person has failed to comply with a notice served personally on him under this section, the Commissioner may apply to a resident magistrate for the arrest of such person, and if the resident magistrate is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise-

- (a) that an amount of tax is due and payable by such person; and
- (b) that such person has failed to comply with such notice; and
- (c) that there is reason to believe that such person is about to leave the United Republic, he may issue a warrant to arrest such person and bring him before the court to show cause why he should not pay such tax or give security therefor to the satisfaction of the Commissioner:

Provided that such person shall not be arrested if he pays to the officer entrusted with the warrant the amount of the tax due.

(5) Where any person brought before a court under subsection (4) of this section fails to show cause as thereby required, the magistrate may order him either forthwith to pay the amount of tax due or forthwith to give security therefor to the satisfaction of the Commissioner and, in default of compliance, to be committed to prison until either such tax due is paid or such security given:

[ss. 105-106]

Provided that: -

- (a) no such person shall be detained in prison for a longer period than six months;
- (b) the detention in prison of any such person shall not release such person from the liability to pay such tax.

(6) In any proceedings under subsection (4) or (5) of this section the production of a certificate signed by the Commissioner giving the name and address of the person and the amount of tax due and payable by him shall be sufficient evidence that such amount of tax is due and payable by such person.

(7) The compliance by any person with a notice served on him under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not prejudice his right to give notice of objection to, or to appeal against, the assessment and if, after the assessment has been finally determined, the amount of tax due and payable by such person is-

- (a) less than the amount paid, then the amount overpaid shall be refunded under section 112, together with interest thereon at such rate as the Court may order;
- (b) more than the amount paid, then the amount underpaid shall be payable under section 100 as if it were a balance of tax charged referred to in subsection (6) of section 99.

Tax clearance

106.-(1) For the purposes of safeguarding collection of tax, no individual, other than an exempt individual, shall leave or attempt to leave the United Republic unless he is in possession of a tax clearance certificate.

(2) A transport operator shall not issue a ticket to any individual entitling such individual to the use of transport for a journey from the United Republic, to a destination outside the United Republic, or convey or attempt to convey any individual from the United Republic to a destination outside the United Republic on the authority of a ticket issued outside the United Republic, unless such individual is-

- (a) an exempt individual; or
- (b) in possession of a tax clearance certificate.

(3) Upon the application of an individual who intends to leave the United Republic whether temporarily or permanently, the Commissioner shall, if he is satisfied-

- (a) that no tax is, or is likely to become, due and payable by such individual; or
- (b) that enforceable arrangements have been made to secure the payment of tax which is, or may become, due and payable by such individual; or
- (c) that there is no reason to expect any loss of tax due to such individual leaving the United Republic, issue a tax clearance certificate to the effect that for the purposes of this Act there is no objection to the departure of that individual from the United Republic.

(4) An application for a tax clearance certificate shall be addressed to the office of the Commissioner to which the applicant last furnished a return of income or, where he has not furnished such a return, to the office of the Commissioner in the area in which the applicant normally resides, or is employed or carries on business.

(5) Before issuing a tax clearance certificate the Commissioner may require the applicant to make such returns or furnish such information as he may consider necessary.

(6) A tax clearance certificate shall be valid for such number of journeys to a destination outside the United Republic or for such period from the date of issue as may be specified therein.

(7) The Commissioner may by notice in writing served on an individual to whom a tax clearance certificate has been issued cancel the certificate and such cancellation shall take effect from the date of such service.

(8) Any individual on whom a notice has been served under subsection (7) of this section shall forthwith return the tax clearance certificate to the Commissioner for the purpose of cancellation thereof.

(9) A transport operator shall, on issuing a ticket to any individual in possession of a tax clearance certificate valid for one journey only, cancel such certificate by writing thereon the number of the ticket issued and the name of the transport operator.

(10) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section, where the individual to whom a tax clearance certificate has been issued or any other person who has offered security for the payment of tax that is or may become due and payable by such individual is the owner of land or buildings in the United Republic and by notice in writing to the Commissioner requests that his interest in such land or buildings be the subject of security for tax that is or may become due and payable by such individual, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, notify the Registrar of Titles of such request, and the Registrar shall, without fee, register such notification as if it were an instrument of mortgage over or charge on, as the case may be, such land or buildings; and thereupon such notification shall operate in all respects as a legal mortgage over or charge on such land or buildings to secure the amount of tax due and payable, or which may become due and payable, by such individual; and, on being satisfied that such individual has returned to the United Republic, the Commissioner shall notify the Registrar of the cancellation of such notification, and the Registrar shall without fee record such cancellation and thereupon such notification shall cease to operate as a mortgage or charge on such land or buildings.

(11) For the purpose of this section and of section 115-

- (e) an individual who applies for a ticket for air travel on the authority of an air movement order supplied by the Government or by the Community, or for sea travel to the order of the Government or of the Community.
- (f) an individual who is in the United Republic on the authority of a Visitor's Pass;
- (g) a non-resident individual who is in transit between any one place outside the United Republic and any other place outside the United Republic; and
- (h) such other class or category of individuals as the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, specify:

Provided that where any individual described in paragraphs (d) to (h) inclusive of this subsection has been served with a notice under section 105, he shall cease to be an exempt individual until such time as he has complied with such notice or until such notice ceases to have effect.

Collection of
guarantor

107.-(1) Where any security has been given under subsection (1) or (2) of section 105 and such security consists of a form of guarantee under which, in default of payment of tax in terms of the security, a person (in this section referred to as guarantor) is obliged to pay such tax, the Commissioner may, in default of payment of the tax, by notice in writing served on the guarantor require him to pay within ninety days of the notice, such amount of tax (not exceeding the amount guaranteed by him) as shall be specified in such notice.

[ss. 107-109]

(2) The provisions of this Act relating to the collection and recovery of tax shall apply to the collection and recovery of the amount of tax specified in a notice issued under this section as if that amount were tax due and payable by the guarantor and as if the due date for the payment of that amount were the date upon which the amount was due for payment under the notice.

108.- (1) Where-

- (a) payment of any tax has not been made on or before the due tax date; or
- (b) a notice which has been served on any person under section 105 has not been complied with.

Collection of
by suit

the tax due by such person may be sued for and recovered as a debt due to the Government in a court of competent jurisdiction by the Commissioner in his official capacity.

(2) In any suit under this section the production of a certificate signed by the Commissioner giving the name and address of the person concerned and the amount of tax due and payable by him shall be sufficient evidence that such amount of tax is due and payable by such person.

109.-(1) In any case in which tax is recoverable in the manner provided by section 108 the Commissioner may, instead of suing for such tax, recover the same by distress, and for that purpose may by order under his hand authorize any public officer or an officer of a court to execute such distress upon the goods and chattels of the person from whom such tax is recoverable and such officer may, at the cost of the person from whom such tax is recoverable, employ such servants or agents as he may think necessary to assist him in the execution Of the distress:

tax by distraint

Provided that-

- (a) where the full amount of the tax due and payable is not recovered by such distress, the Commissioner may forthwith recover the deficiency in the manner provided by section 108;
- (b) where the full amount of tax due and payable has been paid after the issue of an order under this section and before the execution of distress, any costs and expenses incurred by the Commissioner prior to the payment of the tax shall be deemed to be a debt due and payable to the Government by the person in respect of whom the order was issued and may be recovered by the Commissioner as tax under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of levying any distress under this section an officer authorized under subsection (1) of this section together with such servants or agents as such person may consider necessary, may break open in the daytime any premises, and any such officer may require any police officer to be present while such distress is being levied and any police officer so required shall comply with such requirement.

(3) A distress levied under this section shall be kept for ten days, either at the premises at which such distress was levied or at, such other place as the authorized officer may consider appropriate, at the cost of the person from whom the tax is recoverable.

[ss. 109-111]

(4) If the person from whom tax is recoverable by distress does not pay such tax together with the costs of the distress within the period of ten days referred to in subsection (3) of this section, the goods and chattels distrained upon shall be sold by public auction for payment of the tax due and payable and all such costs; and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied first towards the cost of taking, keeping and selling the goods and chattels distrained upon and then towards the tax due and payable and any remainder of such proceeds shall be restored to the owner of the property distrained.

Security on property for unpaid tax

110.-(1) Where any person being the owner of land or of any premises situated in the United Republic, fails to make payment of any tax due by him on or before the due date or fails to comply with a notice served on him under section 105, the Commissioner may by notice in writing notify such Person of his intention to apply to the Registrar of Titles for such land or premises to be the subject of security for tax of an amount specified in the notice.

(2) If any person on whom a notice has been served under this section fails to make payment of the whole of the amount of the tax specified in the notice within thirty days of the date of the service of the notice the Commissioner may by notice in writing direct the Registrar of Titles that the land or building, to the extent of the interest of such person therein, be the subject of security for tax of a specified amount, and the Registrar shall, without fee, register such direction as if it were an instrument of mortgage over or charge on, as the case may be, such land or premises and thereupon such registration shall, subject to any prior mortgage or charge, operate while it subsists in all respects as a legal mortgage over or charge on such land or premises to secure the amount of the tax.

(3) The Commissioner shall, upon the payment of the whole of the amount of the tax secured under section (2) of this section by notice in writing to the Registrar of Titles cancel the direction made under that subsection and the Registrar shall, without fee, record such cancellation and thereupon such direction shall cease to subsist.

Collection of tax from shipowner, etc.

111.-(1) In addition to any other powers of collection of tax provided in this Act, the Commissioner may, in any case where tax recoverable in the manner provided by section 108 has been charged on the income of any person who, carries on The business of shipowner, charterer or air transport operator, issue to the proper officer of Customs by whom clearance may be granted, a certificate containing the name of such person and the amount of the tax due and payable and on receipt of such certificate the proper officer of Customs shall refuse clearance from any port or airport in the United Republic to any ship or aircraft owned by such person until such tax has been paid.

(2) No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the proper officer of Customs or any other authority in respect of a refusal of clearance under this section, nor shall the fact that a ship or aircraft is detained under this section affect the liability of the owner, charterer or agent to pay harbour or airport dues and charges for the period of detention.

112.-(1) If it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that, " respect of any year of income, any tax has been paid by or on behalf of any person, whether directly or by deduction or otherwise, which is in excess of the amount payable by such person as finally determined in respect of that year of income, the Commissioner shall refund the amount of such excess, together with any interest which may be payable thereon. under this Act, to the person entitled to such refund.

overpaid

(2) When any tax is due and payable by any person in respect of any assessment any amount refundable to such person under this section shall be applied towards the satisfaction of the tax so due and payable to the extent of such tax and the amount so applied shall not be refunded.

(3) Every claim for repayment under this section shall be made within seven years after the expiry of the year of income to which the claim relates:

Provided that in any case to which proviso (c) to subsection (1) of section 85 of this Act applies, a claim for repayment may be made within the period in which an assessment may be made.

113.-(1) Where under any settlement, other than a settlement to which section 29 or 30 of this Act applies, any income (in this section referred to as the trust income) arising from any fund is accumulated for the benefit of any person contingently on his attaining some specified age or marrying. then, if such person proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such contingency has happened, he shall, on making to the Commissioner a claim for that Purpose, be entitled to have repaid to him a sum equal to the amount by which the total amount of tax borne by the trust income during the period of accumulation exceeds the total amount of additional tax which would have been borne by him during such period if such trust income and the income from any other fund subject to the like trust for accumulation had been included in his total income; but in calculating such sum a deduction shall be made in respect of any tax borne by the trust fund and already repaid to him.

of tax in respect of
accumulated under trust

(2) Every claim for repayment under this section shall be made in writing to the Commissioner within six years after this expiry of the year Of income in which the contingency happened.

119. Any person who in any way obstructs or attempts to obstruct an officer in the performance of his duties or in the exercise of his powers under this Act shall be guilty of an offence.

Obstruction of officer

120.-(1) In any proceeding for an offence under this Act the burden to prove that-

Provisions relating to evidence

- (a) a return is a true return of income or of particulars stated therein;
- (b) that any tax has been paid;
- (c) that the accused is a person not liable to pay any tax,
- (d) that any amount of tax deducted under Part IX was remitted to the Commissioner within the time within which it is required to be so remitted, shall be on the person charged.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, statements made or documents produced by or on behalf of a person shall not be inadmissible in any proceedings to which this section applies by reason only that such person was led to believe that-

- (a) in relation to tax, the Commissioner might accept pecuniary settlement instead of sanctioning the institution of a prosecution; or
- (b) though no undertaking could be given as to whether or not the Commissioner would accept pecuniary settlement in the case of any particular person, it is the practice of the Commissioner to be influenced by the fact that a person has made a full confession of any fraud or default to which he has been a party and has given full facilities for investigation, and that he was or may have been induced thereby to make the statement or produce the documents.

(3) Subsection (2) shall apply to-

- (a) any criminal proceedings against the person in question for any form of fraud, neglect or default in connection with, or in relation to, tax; or
- (b) any proceedings for the recovery of any sum due under this Act.

[ss. 121-122]

Power of Commissioner to compound
offences

121.-(1) Where any person has committed any offence under this Act other than an offence under section 133 the Commissioner may, subject to such directions as the Minister may give on that behalf, at any time prior to the commencement of the hearing by any court of any charge in relation thereto, compound such offence and order such person to pay such sum of money, not exceeding one half of the amount of the fine to which such person would have been liable if he had been convicted of such offence, as he may think fit:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not exercise his powers under this section unless the person concerned admits in writing that he has committed such offence under this section.

(2) Where the Commissioner compounds any offence under this section, then the order referred to in subsection (1) of this section-

- (a) shall be reduced to writing and there shall be attached to it the written admission and request referred to in the proviso to the said subsection and a copy of such order shall be given, if he so requests, to the person who committed the offence; and
- (b) shall specify the offence committed, the sum of money ordered to be paid, and the date or dates on which payment is to be made; and
- (c) shall be final and shall not be subject to the provisions of subsection (3) be subject to any appeal; and
- (d) shall not be invalid by reason only of non-compliance with any direction given by the Minister; and
- (e) may be enforced in the same manner as a decree of a court for the payment of the amount stated in the order.

Cap 20

(3) Where any person is aggrieved by any order made under subsection (1), he may, within thirty days of such order being made, appeal against such order to the High Court, and the provisions of Part X of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to every such appeal as if it was an appeal against sentence passed by a district court in the exercise of its original criminal jurisdiction.

(4) Where the Commissioner compounds any offence under this section, the person concerned shall not be liable to any prosecution in respect of such offence; and if any such prosecution is brought it shall be a good defence for such person to prove that such offence has been compounded under this section.

Place of

122. Any person charged with any offence under this Act may be proceeded against, tried and punished, by any court in Tanganyika within the jurisdiction of which he may be in custody for that offence or to which he may be brought after arrest on a warrant issued by that court, as if the offence had been committed within the jurisdiction of such court and the offence shall for all purposes incidental to, or consequential upon, the prosecution, trial or punishment thereof, be deemed to have been committed within the jurisdiction of that court.

[ss. 123-126]

123.-(1) A partnership firm may, notwithstanding any other written law, be charged with and tried, convicted and punished for an offence under this Act as if it were a corporation.

Liability of firms, partners, directors and officers of firms and corporations

(2) Where any offence under this Act is committed by a corporation or a partnership firm then, as well as the corporation or the firm, as the case may be, any person who, at the time of the commission of the offence, was concerned, as a director partner or an officer, with the management of the affairs of such body corporate or firm, shall be guilty of the offence and be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that he had no knowledge, and could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have had knowledge of the commission of the offence.

124. Notwithstanding anything contained in any written law any officer duly authorized in writing in that behalf by the Commissioner may appear in any court on behalf of the Commissioner in any proceedings to which the Commissioner is a party and, subject to the directions of the Director of Public Prosecutions, any such officer may conduct any prosecution for an offence under this Act and for such purpose shall have all the powers of a public prosecutor appointed under the Criminal Procedure Code.

Officer may appear on prosecution

125. The amount of any tax or interest due and payable under this Act shall not be abated by reason only of the conviction or punishment of the person liable for the payment thereof for an offence under this Act or of the compounding of such offence under section 121 of this Act.

Tax charged to be payable notwithstanding prosecution

126.-(1) If an officer authorized by the Commissioner to inquire into the affairs under this Act of any person satisfies a magistrate that such person has committed, or is reasonably suspected of committing, an offence under this Act, the magistrate may by warrant authorize the officer to exercise all or any of the following powers-

Power to search and seize

- (a) to enter any premises between sunrise and sunset to search for money, documents or other articles relevant to such inquiry;
- (b) to open, or remove from the premises and open, any container, box or package in which it is suspected that money, documents or relevant articles are contained;
- (c) to seize any money, documents or relevant articles which may be necessary for such inquiry or for the purpose of any civil or criminal proceedings and to retain them for as long as they are so required:

Provided that in the case of documents held by any financial institution listed in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, the powers of such officer under this section shall be limited to making copies or extracts therefrom.

[ss. 126-129]

(2) In the exercise of any powers authorized by warrant under subsection (1) of this section, the officer shall if practicable, require a police officer to be present during the exercise thereof and any police officer so required shall comply with such requirement.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the magistrate may require the officer or any other person to give such evidence on oath as may be necessary to satisfy him that the person whose affairs are the subject of inquiry has committed, or is reasonably suspected of committing, the offence concerned.

Power to inspect books and documents

127.-(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any provision or rule of law any officer authorized by the Commissioner to inquire into the affairs of any person for any of the purposes of this Act, shall at all times have full and free access to all lands, building, and places, and all books and documents, whether in the custody or control of a public officer, a body corporate or of any other person whatsoever, for the purposes of inspecting any books and documents or for any other purpose he may consider relevant to such inquiry, and may make extracts from or copies of any such books or documents.

(2) An officer acting under subsection (1) this section may require the owner or manager of any property or business, or any person employed in connection with such property or business, or any other person, to give him all reasonable assistance and to answer all proper questions relating to such inquiry, either orally or in writing and for that purpose may require the owner or manager, or in the case of a company any officer of the company, or such other person, to attend at the premises with him.

Admissibility of documents

128. Notwithstanding any written law or any provision or rule of law to the contrary-

- (a) any document, or copy of or extract from any document, relating to the affairs of any person which has been seized or obtained by; or
- (b) any statement made by any person relating to his affairs is made to, an officer in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be admissible in any proceedings, civil or criminal, under this Act to which such person is a party.

PART XVIII

ADMINISTRATION

Appointment of Commissioner or other officers

129. -(1) There shall be appointed a Commissioner of Income Tax and such other officers as may be necessary for the proper and efficient administration of this Act; and the Commissioner of Income Tax so appointed shall, subject to the control of the Minister and general supervision of the Principal Secretary to the Treasury, be responsible for the assessment, collection and recovery, and for the accounting of, tax.

(2) The Minister shall appoint an Income Tax Advisory Committee for every district and each such committee shall have such functions as are conferred upon it by this Act or as the Minister shall prescribe;

Provided that the Minister may establish one Advisory Committee with jurisdiction over two more contiguous districts.

[ss. 130-132]

130.-(1) Notwithstanding other provisions of this Act, in any case where he is of the opinion that he should refrain from assessing to tax, or recovering tax from, any person by reason of-

- (a) uncertainty as to any question of law or fact; or
- (b) considerations of hardship or equity; or
- (c) impossibility, or undue difficulty or expense, of recovery of tax, the Commissioner may elect to refrain from assessing or recovering the tax in question and thereupon liability to such tax shall be deemed to be extinguished or such tax shall be deemed to be abandoned or remitted, as the case may be, and the provisions of this Act other than this section shall no longer apply thereto:

Provided that the Commissioner shall not proceed to act under this section where the amount of such tax would have exceeded five thousand shillings.

(2) Where the Commissioner has elected to refrain from assessing or recovering tax under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, he shall report such election in writing to the Minister as soon as may be after such election and shall set out in full in such report the circumstances and reasons leading to such election.

(3) In any case which has been referred to him and where he considers it appropriate, the Minister may direct the Commissioner to take such action under this section as he deems fit.

(4) The refusal or failure of the Commissioner to elect to refrain from exercising his powers under this section shall not be called into question in any court.

131.-(1) Subject to any express direction by the Commissioner to the contrary, any of the powers and duties of the Commissioner under this Act, other than his powers under section 121 thereof may be exercised by any public officer authorized in writing in that behalf by the Commissioner:

Provided that the Minister may, subject to such restrictions and limitations as he may specify, confer upon any public officer the powers of compounding an offence under section 121.

(2) In absence of the Commissioner the powers of the Commissioner may be exercised by any officer appointed as Acting Commissioner or, where no Acting Commissioner has been appointed, by the officer nominated in that behalf by the Minister, and references in this Act to the Commissioner shall include references to any such officer.

132.-(1) Every officer and every other person employed in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall regard and deal with all documents and information relating to the income of any person and all confidential instructions in respect of the administration of this Act which may come into his possession or to his knowledge in the course of his duties as secret.

[s. 132]

(2) No officer and no other person employed in carrying out the provisions of this Act, shall be required to produce in any court any document, or to communicate to any court any information, which has come into his possession or to his knowledge in the performance of his duties under this Act except as may be necessary for the purposes of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act or in order to bring or assist in a prosecution for any offence committed in relation to tax.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent-

- (a) any officer or person from revealing any document or information relating to the income of any person or any confidential instructions in respect of the administration of this Act to any other such officer or person so employed in the course of his duties, or to any person authorized in that behalf by the Minister in relation to any person resident in the United Republic or to income accruing in or derived from the United Republic or to any court or person for the purposes of this Act;
- (b) any officer from revealing any such document or information solely for revenue or statistical purposes to any person in the service of the Government or of the Community in a revenue or statistical department where such document or information is needed for the purposes of the official duties of such last mentioned person and where such last-mentioned person has made and subscribed a declaration of secrecy in relation to any information coming to his knowledge in the course of his official duties;
- (c) any officer from revealing any such document or information to the Controller and Auditor-General, or to any authorized member of his Department, where such document or information is needed for the performance of his official duties;
- (d) any officer from revealing any such document or information to the Treasury Registrar where such document or information is required by the Treasury Registrar for the performance of his functions under any written law.

(5) Where under this Act or any law in force in any country, or under any special arrangement, provision is made for the allowance of relief from income tax in respect of the payment of tax in the United Republic, the obligation as to secrecy imposed by this section shall not prevent the disclosure to the authorized officers of the Government of the place to which such provision of this Act applies or with which such arrangement was made, of such facts as may be necessary for the obtaining of such relief or for the prevention of fraud or for the administration of statutory provisions against legal avoidance in relation to such taxes.

133.-(1) Any officer or any other person employed in carrying out the provisions of this Act who-

- (a) directly or indirectly asks for, or takes, in connection with any of his duties any payment or reward whatsoever, whether pecuniary or otherwise, or any promise or security for any such payment or reward, not being a payment or reward which he is lawfully entitled to receive; or
- (b) enters into or acquiesces in any agreement to do, abstain from doing, permit, conceal, or connive at, any act or thing whereby the tax revenue is or may be defrauded, or which is contrary to the provisions of this Act or to the proper execution of his duty hereunder; or
- (c) in contravention of the provisions of section 132 of this Act, and without lawful excuse, reveals to any person any document or information which has come into his possession or to this knowledge in the course of his official duties, or permits any other person to have access to any document in the possession or custody of the Commissioner in his official capacity, shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment; and in addition thereto such person shall be liable for any loss of revenue resulting wholly or partly from the offence of which he is convicted, which amount of loss shall be recoverable from him in accordance with the provisions of this Act (including the provisions relating to payment of interest in default of payment of tax on due date) as if such amount of loss were tax due under this Act the due date for which was the date of such conviction, and in any proceedings relating to the recovery of such amount of loss a certificate under the hand of the Commissioner to the effect that the amount of loss specified in the certificate was incurred as a result of the offence committed by such person shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements contained therein.

(2) Any person who-

- (a) directly or indirectly offers or gives to any officer, or to any other person employed in carrying out the provisions of this Act any payment or reward whatsoever, whether pecuniary or otherwise, or any promise or security for any such payment or reward; or
- (b) proposes or enters into any agreement in order to induce such officer or person to do, abstain from doing, permit, conceal, or connive at, any act or thing whereby the tax revenue is or may be defrauded, or which is contrary to the provisions of this Act, or to the proper execution of the duty of such officer or person, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) No proceedings for an offence under this section shall be commenced without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Offences
by or in relation to officers, etc.

[ss. 133-135]

(4) Where a transaction, act or omission which constitutes an offence under this section also constitutes an offence under any other Act or Ordinance, the accused may, notwithstanding any other written law, be charged with, convicted of and punished for the offence under such other Act or Ordinance notwithstanding that he has been convicted of and punished for, or acquitted of, the offence under this section in respect of the same transaction, act or omission, or, if the accused has been convicted of and punished for the offence under such other Act or Ordinance, he may, notwithstanding such conviction or acquittal, be charged with, convicted of and punished for an offence under this section in respect of the same transaction, act or omission.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Form of

134.-(1) The Commissioner may specify the form of any notice, return of income, or other form or return, required for the purposes of this Act, and where any form has been so specified then notice, return of income, or other form or return shall be in the form so specified.

(2) Notices given by the Commissioner under this Act may be signed by any officer authorized by him, in that behalf, and any notice purporting to be signed by order of the Commissioner shall, unless the contrary is proved be presumed to have been signed by an officer so authorized.

(3) Every form, notice or other document issued, served or given by the Commissioner under this Act shall be sufficiently authenticated if the name or title of the Commissioner or of the officer authorized in that behalf, is printed, stamped, or written thereon.

Service of
notices, etc.

135.-(1) Where under this Act any notice or other document is required or authorized to be served on or given to, the Commissioner, then such notice or other document may be so served or given-

- (a) by delivering it to a public officer in the office of the Commissioner; or
- (b) by leaving it at the office of such public officer; or
- (c) by sending it by post addressed to such public officer in his official capacity.

(2) Where under this Act any notice or other document is required or authorized to be served on or given to any person by the Commissioner an Appeal's Board or the Tribunal then such notice or other document may be so served or given by addressing it to such person, or, where such person is a corporation or a firm, to the principal officer, director, partner or secretary of such corporation or firm, and

- (a) delivering it personally to him; or
- (b) leaving it at his usual or last known place of address or the address shown on the latest return of income furnished by him or on his behalf to the commissioner; or

[ss. 135 -1.39]

- (c) sending it to him, addressed in his name and by the office held by him in the corporation or firm, by post to his usual or last known place of address or to any post office box rented in the name of such person or of the corporation or firm or other employer or to the address shown on the latest return of income furnished by him or on his behalf to the Commissioner.

(3) Where a notice or other document is served or sent by post, service shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been effected-

- (a) where it is sent to any address in the United Republic, ten days after the date of posting;
- (b) where it is sent to any address outside the United Republic, at the time at which the notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice or other document was properly addressed and was posted:

Provided that where the person to whom a notice or other document has been sent by registered post is informed of the fact that there is a registered letter awaiting him at a post office, and such person refuses or neglects to take delivery of such letter, and such letter consists of such notice or other document, then service of such notice or other document shall be deemed to have been effected.

(4) Where the income of any person is assessable and chargeable in the name of any other person, then if any notice or document which is required or authorized to be served on or given to such first mentioned person is served on or given to such other person such notice or document shall be deemed also to have been served on or given to such first mentioned person.

136. Where any obligation is imposed by or under this Act on any corporation, the general manager or other principal officer of such corporation shall be responsible for performing such obligation.

Liability of manager of corporate body

137. The Minister may make regulations prescribing anything which is to be prescribed under this Act and generally for the better carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Regulation

138. All securities of whatsoever nature over property, movable or immovable, and all transfers of such property in favour of or by the Commissioner shall be exempt from stamp duty.

Exemption from stamp duty

139. (1) This Act shall have effect notwithstanding any Act of the Community and shall not be construed as being repealed by any Act of the Community enacted hereafter.

Repeals and transitional provisions

(2) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, the East African Income Tax Management Act shall cease to have the force of law in the United Republic with effect from 1st January, 1974.

Community Laws Cap. 24

(3) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, the Income Tax (Allowances and Rates) Act, 1972 is hereby repealed.

Acts, 1972 No. 9

(4) Subject to the provisions of section 5 the Personal Tax Act, 1967 is hereby repealed.

Acts, 1967 No. 46

[ss. 139-140 SCH. I]

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, the East African Income Tax Management Act, the Income Tax (Allowances and Rates) Act, 1972 and the Personal Tax Act, 1967 shall remain in force for all purposes in relation to the year of income 1973 and the previous years of income.

(6) The transitional provisions contained in the Sixth Schedule shall have effect notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary.

(7) If any difficulty should arise in administering the transition from the previous laws relating to income tax and personal tax to the provisions of this Act, the Minister may, by order in the Gazette made at any time within eighteen months of the commencement of this Act, amend the Sixth Schedule.

Application to Zanzibar

140. This Act shall extend to Zanzibar as well as Tanganyika:

Provided that in the case of income of an individual ordinarily resident in Zanzibar and which is accrued in or derived from Zanzibar, other than income from the Government of the United Republic, the rates of tax and provisions relating to personal allowances in force immediately before the coming into force of this Act shall apply as if subsections (2) and (3) of section 139 had not been enacted, so however that the provisions of subsection (5) of section 139 and the provisions of the Sixth Schedule to this Act shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to all such incomes for the year of income 1974 and subsequent years of income to the same extent as those provisions apply to the incomes for the year of income 1973 and the preceding years of income.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Section 14)

SECOND SCHEDULE

(Sections 4, 5 & 16)

DEDUCTIONS IN RESPECT OF CAPITAL EXPENDITURE

- Deductions 1.-(1) Subject to this Schedule where a person incurs capital expenditure on the construction of an industrial building to be used in a business carried on by him or his lessee, a deduction equal-
- in any case where the amount of the deduction has not been increased under this Schedule and which is not a case referred to in item (c), to one-fortieth; and
 - in any case where such amount has been so increased, to such fraction as so increased; and
 - in any case referred to in item (c) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 5, to one-twenty-fifth,
- of that expenditure shall be made in computing the gains or profits of such person for any year of income in which such building is so used:
- Provided that where such building was so used for part only of such year of income the deduction shall be proportionately reduced.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in this Part, in no case shall the amount of deduction for any year of income exceed that which apart from the making of such deduction, would be the residue of expenditure at the end of such year of income.
- (3) Notwithstanding any provision of this Schedule, where in respect of an hotel which was first used as an hotel prior to the commencement of this Act and no deduction under this Part of this Schedule has been claimed in respect of its construction, the Minister may, by order under his hand, direct that such deduction be allowed, and where such order is made, such deduction will be allowed and will be deducted from the gains and profits, in the year of income specified in the order and any subsequent years of income in which the building was or is used as an hotel, and the person entitled to such deductions shall have the right conferred by paragraph 24 (1) to make the election as to the apportionment of the total amount of deductions in relation the year of income in which the order is made and any previous years of income to which the order applies, as if such deductions were an investment deduction.
- Increase of deductions 2. Notwithstanding item (a) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 where the Commissioner is satisfied that having regard to the type of construction or to the use to which any industrial building is put, its life is likely to be substantially less than forty years, he may, upon the application of the person entitled to claim a deduction under this Part, increase the amount of the deduction to such an amount as he may consider just and reasonable; and all the provisions of this Part shall apply accordingly.
- Ascertainment of residue of expenditure 3. In this Part, the residue of expenditure at any time shall be-
- in relation to a building which had not been used before the year of income 1974, the capital expenditure incurred on the construction of the building less any deductions made under this Part and any deductions which would have been made had the building been an industrial building when first used;
 - in relation to a building which at the end of the year of income 1973 was an industrial building for the purposes of the Management Act, the residue of expenditure as ascertained under paragraph 3 of the Second Schedule to that Act less any deductions made under this Part,

[SCH. II]

(c) in relation to a building which had been used before the end of the year of income 1973 but was not an industrial building for the purposes of the Management Act at the end of that year of income, the amount which would have been the residue of expenditure as ascertained under item (b) of this paragraph it had always been an industrial building.

4.-(1) Where capital expenditure is incurred on the construction of a building and before that building is used, it is sold-

Sale of building prior to use

- (a) any such expenditure actually incurred on the construction thereof shall be left out of account for the purposes of this Schedule; but
- (b) the person who purchases the building shall be deemed to have incurred capital expenditure on the construction thereof equal to the capital expenditure actually incurred on the construction of the building or to the amount paid by him, whichever is the less:

Provided that where the building is sold more than once before such building is used, (b) of this sub-paragraph shall have effect only in relation to the last of such sales.

(2) Where the expenditure incurred on the construction of a building was incurred by a person carrying on a business which consists, as to the whole or any part thereof, in the construction of building with a view to their sale and before the building is used he sells it in the course of that business or such part thereof, item (b) of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall have effect as if the reference to the capital expenditure actually incurred on the construction of the building were a reference to the capital expenditure actually incurred on the construction of the building were a reference to the price on such sale.

5.-(1) Subject to this paragraph, in this Schedule "industrial building" means-

Meaning of industrial building

- (a) a building in use-
 - (i) for the purposes of a business carried on in a mill, factory or other similar premises; or
 - (ii) for the purposes of a transport, dock, bridge, tunnel, inland navigation, water, electricity or hydraulic power undertaking; or
 - (iii) for the purposes of a business which consists in the manufacture, of goods at materials or the subjection of goods or materials to any process; or
 - (iv) for the Purposes of a business which consists in the storage of goods or
 - (A) which are to be used in the manufacture of other goods or materials; or
 - (B) which are to be subjected, in the course of a business, to any process; or
 - (C) which, having been manufactured or produced or subjected, in the course of a business, to any process, have not yet been delivered to any purchaser; or
 - (D) on their arrival by sea or air into any part of the Partner States; or
 - (v) for the purposes of a business consisting of ploughing or cultivating agricultural land as defined in paragraph 22 (other than land in the occupation of the person carrying on the business) or doing any other operation on such land, or threshing the crops of another person; or
 - (vi) for the purposes of any business which may be declared by the Minister by notice in the Gazette as being within the provisions of this paragraph either generally, or in relation to a particular class or in a particular instance within such class;
- (b) a prescribed dwelling-house, that is to say a dwelling-house constructed for and occurred by employees of a business carried on by the person owning such dwelling-house, and which conforms with such conditions as may be prescribed;
- (c) a building which is in use as an hotel or part of an hotel;
- (d) a building in use for the welfare of workers employed in any business or undertaking referred to in item (a) of this subparagraph.

(2) Item (a) of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall apply in relation to a part of a business or undertaking as it applies in relation to a business of undertaking;

Provided that, where part of a business or undertaking complies with the conditions set out in such item, a building shall not, by virtue of this sub-paragraph, be an industrial building unless it is in use for the purpose of such part of such business or undertaking.

[SCII. 11]

(3) Notwithstanding sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) but subject to sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph, the expression "industrial building" does not include any building in use as, or as part of, a retail shop, showroom, office or dwelling-house, or for any purpose ancillary to the purposes of a retail shop, showroom or office:

Provided that this sub-paragraph shall not apply to prescribed dwelling-house, or to, or to part of, a building which is a dwelling-house constructed for the occupation by persons employed in any business or undertaking referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph or to a building constructed for the welfare of such persons if such buildings will cease to belong to the person carrying on such business or undertaking or no value to such person where such business or undertaking ceased to be carried on, or if the building would have little or no value to such person if he ceased to carry on such business or undertaking on the termination of, or had little or no value to such person where such business or undertaking ceased to be carried on during, the year of income in respect of which any claim for a deduction has been made under this part.

(4) Where part of a building is, and part thereof is not, an industrial building and the capital expenditure which has been incurred on the construction of the second-mentioned part is not more than one-tenth of the total capital expenditure which has been incurred on the construction of the building, the whole building shall be treated as an industrial building.

(5) In this paragraph-

"bridge," means any bridge, the use of which is subject to a charge or toll, and "bridge undertaking" shall be construed accordingly;

"crop" includes any form of vegetable produce;

"dock" includes any harbour, wharf pier or jetty or other work in or at which vessels can ship or unship merchandise or passengers, not being a pier or jetty primarily used for recreation; and "dock undertaking" shall be construed accordingly;

"electricity undertaking" means an undertaking for the generation, transformation, conversion, transmission or distribution of electrical energy;

"hydraulic Power undertaking" means an undertaking for the supply of hydraulic power;

"retail shop" includes any premises of a similar character where a retail business (including repair work) is carried on;

"undertaking" does not include an undertaking not carried on by way of trade;

"water undertaking" means an undertaking for the supply of water for public consumption.

6.-(1) Any reference in this Part to the incurring of capital expenditure on the construction of a building does not include capital expenditure on the provision of machinery or on any asset which has been treated for any year of income as machinery

(2) Reference, in this Part to capital expenditure incurred on the construction of a building do not include any capital expenditure on the acquisition of, or of rights in or over, any land.

PART II

DEDUCTION IN RESPECT OF CAPITAL EXPENDITURE ON MACHINERY

Wear and
deductions

7.-(1) Subject to this Part, where, during any year of income, any machinery owned by a person is used by him for the purposes of his business, there shall be made in computing his gains or profits for that year of income a deduction (in this Part referred to as a "wear and tear deduction").

(2) The amount of the wear and tear deduction for any year of income shall be the appropriate percentage of the written down value at the end of such year, before making such deduction, of the machinery classified as follows-

(i) tractors, combine harvesters, heavy earth-moving equipment and such other heavy self-propelling machines of a similar nature as in his discretion the Commissioner, having regard to the likely usage and depreciation in any particular case, may agree;

(ii) other self-propelling vehicles, including aircraft;

(iii) all other machinery, including ships;

and the appropriate percentage shall be 37½ per cent for class (i), 25 per cent for class (ii) and 12½ per cent for class (iii).

8.-(1) The written down value of each class of machinery referred to in sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 7 shall be calculated separately as at any time and shall be the amount still unallowed of any capital expenditure on machinery of such class as construed in paragraph 9 of the Second Schedule to the Management Act, with the addition of the costs of any capital expenditure on any machinery of that class purchased and the deduction of the amount realized on the sale of any machinery of that class sold in the year of income 1974, or any succeeding year of income, less any deductions made under this Part; and where the amount realized for machinery of any class sold in any year of income exceeds that which, but for the deduction of such amount would be the written down value of machinery of that class at the end of such year of income, the excess shall not be deducted but shall be treated as a trading receipt.

(2) Subject to this Part, where machinery is brought into use for the purposes of a trade without being purchased or ceases permanently to be so used without being sold, it shall be deemed to have been purchased or sold as the case may be and the cost or amount realized shall be deemed to be the price which it would have fetched if sold in the open market.

9. Where machinery is let upon such terms that the burden of the wear and tear thereof falls directly upon the lessor, this Part shall apply in relation to him as if the machinery were, during the period of the letting, in use for the purposes of a business carried on by him.

10. Where a person carrying on a business incurs capital expenditure on alterations to an existing building incidental to the installation of machinery for the purposes of the business, this Schedule shall have effect as if such expenditure were capital expenditure on the provision of such machinery and as if the works representing such expenditure formed part of that machinery.

11.-(1) Where wear and tear deductions have been made in computing the gains or profits of any person under paragraph 7 and that person ceases to carry on the business for the purposes of which the machinery was used and the machinery ceases to be owned by him, there shall be made in computing his gains or profits for the year of income in which such cessation occurs, a deduction or charge (in this Part referred to as a "balancing deduction" or a "balancing charge"):

Provided that-

- (a) for the purpose of this paragraph a partnership shall be deemed not to have to ceased to carry on a business unless all the partners who carries it on cease to carry it on; and
- (b) where the machinery is sold by the liquidator of a company which is in the course of being wound up, the balancing deduction or balancing charge shall be made in computing the gains or profits of such company for the year of income in which the winding-up commenced; and
- (c) where, in the case of a balancing deduction, the total income for such year of income before taking account of such deduction is less than the amount of the deduction, the excess may be carried back and allowed in calculating the total income of the next preceding year of income, and so on for as long as is necessary for such deduction to be, absorbed by the total income of preceding years, not exceeding in all six in number.

(2) Subject to this Part, where on the cessation of a trade a balancing deduction or a balancing charge is to be made under this paragraph and-

- (a) no sale moneys are received, by the person owing such machinery, or the written down value at the time of such cessation exceeds those moneys, the balancing deduction shall be the written down value at the time of such cessation, or the excess thereof over such moneys, as the case may be;
- (a) the sale moneys exceed the written down value, if any, at the time of such cessation, the balancing charge shall be the amount of such excess or, where written down value is nil, the amount of such moneys, as the case may be.

12. Where a person succeeds to any business which until that time was carried on by another person, and machinery which, immediately before the succession was in use for the purposes of the business without being sold is, immediately after such succession, in use for the purposes of the business, such machinery shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be treated as if it had been sold at the date of the succession to the person or persons carrying on the business immediately thereafter and as if the net proceeds of the sale had been the written down value of the machinery.

[SCII. III

Ascertainment of written down value

[SCH. II]
Special provisions as to certain sales

13.-(1) This paragraph shall have effect in relation to sales of any machinery where either-

- (a) the buyer is a body of person over whom the seller has control or the seller is a body of persons over whom the buyer has control, or both the seller and the buyer are bodies of Persons and some other Person has control over both of them; or
- (b) it appears with respect to the sale or with respect to transactions of which the sale is one, that the sole or main benefit which, apart from this paragraph, might have been expected to accrue to the parties or any of them was the obtaining of a deduction under this Schedule.

(2) Where the machinery is sold at a price other than that which it would have fetched if sold in the open market, then, subject to this paragraph, the like consequences shall ensue for the purposes of this Schedule to all persons concerned as would have ensued if the machinery had been sold for the Price which it would have fetched if sold in the open market.

(3) Where the sale is one to which item (a) of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph applies and item (b) of that subparagraph does not apply, and is a sale which would give rise to a balancing charge, and the parties to the sale by notice in writing to the Commissioner so elect, then subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not have effect but the like consequences shall ensue to the buyer and seller as would have ensued if the price for which the machinery was sold had been the written down value:

Provided that no such election shall be made in any case where either the buyer on the seller is at time of the sale a non-resident person.

(4) Where pursuant to and in compliance with the provisions of an order made under section 12 of the Companies (Regulation of Dividends and Surpluses and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1972 of the United Republic of Tanzania a company incorporated outside Tanganyika and carrying on business in Tanganyika (hereinafter referred to in this paragraph as "the foreign company") causes a company to be incorporated under the Companies Ordinance Of Tanganyika (such company so incorporated is hereinafter referred to in this paragraph as "the local company") and transfers to such local company any of its assets, the Minister for Finance of the United Republic may, by order under his hand, direct that an election may be made under sub-paragraph (3) notwithstanding that the foreign company is not a resident company

Private use

14. Where any machinery owned by a person is, during any year of income, used by him for the purposes of a business carried on by him and also used by him for other purposes, then in determining the amount of any wear and tear deduction or any balancing deduction or balancing charge or any amount treated as a trading receipt of the written down value of such machinery for any year of income, regard shall be had to all the relevant circumstances of the case and in particular to the "tent of the use for such other purposes and the Commissioner shall make such adjustments as he may determine to be just and reasonable.

Expenditure
vehicles

15. For the Purposes of this Schedule, where capital expenditure in excess of thirty thousand shillings was incurred on or after 1st January, 1961, in respect of a road vehicle other than a commercial vehicle or a vehicles whose purchaser is a person whose main business is the transport of goods or persons or the hire or sale of vehicles, such capital expenditure shall be deemed to be such and where any such road vehicle is sold the sale price shall be deemed to be such proportion of the proceeds of sale as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable, having regard to the original purchase price and the proportion thereof deemed under this paragraph to be capital expenditure.

DEDUCTIONS IN RESPECT OF MINING OPERATIONS

Definitions
for Part III

16.-(1) In this Part, except where the context otherwise requires-
"expenditure" means capital expenditure incurred in the Partner States by any person carrying a mining operation-

- (a) in searching for or in discovering and testing deposits of minerals, or in winning access to those deposits, whether or not such search is, or such deposits are, in an area contiguous to any mine in relation to which such person carries on mining operation;

[SCH. II]

- (b) in the acquisition of, or of rights in or over, such deposits, other than the acquisition from a person Who has carried on mining in relation to such deposits;
- (c) in the Provision of machinery which would have little or no value to such person if the mine ceased to be worked on the termination of the year of income in respect of which any claim for a deduction has been made under this Part, and any premium., or consideration in the nature of a premium, paid for the use of such machinery;
- (d) on the construction of any building or work which would have little or no value if the mine ceased to be worked on the termination of the year of income in respect of which any claim for a deduction has been made under this Part;
- (e) on development, general administration and management prior to the commencement of production or during any period of non-production:

Provided that the expression "expenditure" shall not include--

- (i) any expenditure on the acquisition of the site of such deposits, or of the site of any such buildings, work, or of right in or over any such site;
- (ii) any expenditure on works constructed wholly or mainly for subjecting raw produce of such deposits to any process except a process designed for preparing the raw product for use as such;

"Mineral" does not include any common clay, murrum, sand, limestone, sandstone, brine, diatomite, gypsum anhydrite, sulphur, dolomite, kaolin, bauxite, any sodium or Potassium compounds, or any other mineral substance which for the time being is declared not to be a mineral under section 2 of the Mining ordinance, unless it has been obtained by underground mining operations, and does not include a specified mineral:

Cap. 123

"Mining" includes every method or process by which any mineral is won.

(2) Any reference in this Part to assets representing any expenditure includes, in relation to expenditure on searching for, discovering and testing deposits, any results obtained from any search, exploration or inquiry upon which the expenditure was incurred.

17.-(1) Subject to this Schedule, where a Person carrying on a business of mining incurs expenditure in any year of income there shall be made, in computing his gains or profit., for such year of income, a deduction equal to two-fifths of such expenditure and in each of the following six years of income a deduction equal to one-tenth of such expenditure-

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph where the Commissioner is satisfied that, having regard to the estimated ore reserves and to any other relevant information, the mine is likely to be worked before the expiration of six years from the end of the year of income in which the expenditure, was incurred, he may, upon the application of the person who incurred the expenditure increase the amount of the deductions for any year to such amount as he may consider just and reasonable.

(3) Where the amount of a deduction under this Part has been in any manner varied for any year, then deductions for subsequent years of income shall be so adjusted that the sum of deduction, for all years of income shall not exceed the expenditure.

18. Where a person (the "transferor") is entitled to deduction under paragraph 17 in respect of any expenditure, and his interest in the asset represented by such expenditure, or in any part of such asset, is transferred whether by operation of law or otherwise to some other person (the "transferee")-

- (a) the amount of the, deduction if any, for the year of income in which the transfer takes place shall be apportioned in such manner, as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable between the transferee and the transferor: and
- (b) the transferee shall to the exclusion of the transferor, be entitled, where the interest transferred is in the whole of the deduction for any subsequent year of income, and where the interest transferred is in part only of the asset, to so much of the deduction as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable.

19. Where separate and distinct mining operations are carried on by the same person in mines that are not contiguous, the mines shall be treated for the purposes of this Part as if separate mining operations were carried on in relation thereto.

[SCH. II]

Expenditure incurred by person not engaged in business of mining. etc.

20.-(1) Any expenditure incurred for the purpose of a business of mining by a person about to carry it on shall be treated for the purposes of this Part as if it had been incurred by that person on the first day on which he does carry it on.

(2) Where a person incurs expenditure to which this Part applies on searching for or on discovering and testing any deposits of minerals, or winning access to those deposits and, without having carried on any business of mining, sells any assets representing such expenditure in relation to those deposits, then if the purchaser carries on a business of mining, such purchaser shall, for the purposes of such business be deemed to have incurred expenditure to which this Part applies equal to the price paid by him for such assets.

Sum received by vendor treated as trading receipt

21. Where, under sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 20, the purchaser of any assets representing expenditure is deemed to have incurred expenditure to which this Part applies equal to the price paid by him for such assets then the sum received by the vendor as the price for such assets, after deducting therefrom any expenditure incurred by him in selling such assets and any expenditure incurred by him in the Partner States on searching for, discovering, testing and winning access to any mineral deposits, so far as such expenditure has not been otherwise deducted 'n ascertaining his total income for any year of income, shall be treated as a trading receipt for the year of income in which the sale took place:

Provided that if such vendor requests the Commissioner in writing to exercise his power under this proviso, the Commissioner may divide the amount of such sum into so many portions, not exceeding six, as he may think fit, and one such portion shall be taken into account in ascertaining the total income of such vendor for the year of income in which such sale took place and for each of the previous years of income corresponding to the number of such portions.

PART IV

DEDUCTIONS IN RESPECT OF CAPITAL EXPENDITURE ON AGRICULTURAL LAND

Deductions in respect of capital expenditure on farm works

22.-(1) Subject to this Schedule where in any year of income the owner or tenant of any agricultural land incurs capital expenditure on the construction of farm works there shall be made, in computing his gains or profits for such year of income and the four following years of income, a deduction equal to one-fifth of such expenditure.

(2) No capital expenditure shall be taken into account for the purposes of this paragraph unless it is incurred for the purposes of husbandry on the agricultural land in question.

(3) Where the capital expenditure--

(a) is on a farm-house, one-third only of such expenditure shall be taken into account or, if the accommodation and amenities of the farm-house are out of due relation to the nature and extent of the farm, such lesser proportion thereof as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable;

(b) is incurred on any assets other than a farmhouse being an asset which it to serve partly the purposes of husbandry and partly other purposes, then only such proportion thereof as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable shall be taken into account for the purposes of this paragraph.

(4) Where a person (the "transferor") would, if he continued to be the owner or tenant, as the case may be, of any agricultural land, be entitled to a deduction under this paragraph in respect of any capital expenditure and the whole of his interest in the land in question, or in any part of such land, is transferred whether by operation of law or otherwise, to some other person, (the "transferee":-

(a) the amount of the deduction, if any, for the year of income in which the transfer takes place, shall be apportioned in such manner as he Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable between the transferor and the transferee; and

(b) the transferee shall to the exclusion of the transferor, be entitled where the interest transferred is in the whole of the land, to the whole of the deduction for any subsequent year of income, and where the interest transferred is in part only of the land, to so much of the deduction as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable.

(5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph where an interest in land is a leasehold interest and that leasehold interest comes to an end, then such interest shall be deemed to have been transferred-

(a) if an incoming tenant makes any payment to the outgoing tenant in respect of assets representing the expenditure in question, to the incoming tenant; and

(b) in any other case, to the owner of the, interest in immediate reversion on the leasehold interest.

[SCH. II]

(6) Where the amount of a deduction under this Part has been in any manner varied for any year, then deductions for subsequent years of income shall be so adjusted that the sum of deductions for all years of income shall not exceed the expenditure.

23. In this Part-
"agricultural land" means land occupied wholly or mainly for the purposes of a trade of husbandry;

Definitions
for Part IV

"farm works" means farmhouses, labour quarters, any other immovable buildings necessary for the proper operation of the farm, fences, daps, drains, water and electricity supply works other than machinery, windbreaks, and other works necessary for the proper operation of the farm.

INVESTMENT DEDUCTIONS

24.-(1) Subject to this Schedule, where-Buildings and machinery

- (a) a person incurs capital expenditure to which this Schedule applies on the construction of an industrial building which is to be used by him or by lessee for the purposes of an approved business or on the purchase of machinery to be installed or used solely in such building for the purposes of such business; or
- (b) a person, being a lessee of such a building as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, incurs capital expenditure to which this Schedule applies on the purchase of machinery to be installed or used solely in such building for the purposes of an approved business; or
- (c) a person incurs capital expenditure to which this Schedule applies on-
- (i) the construction or extension of a building subsequently in use as an hotel and such building or "tension is certified by the Minister to which this Part of this Schedule applies; or
- (ii) the purchase of machinery to be installed or used solely in the hotel; or
- (d) the owner or lessee of a building other than an industrial building incurs after the 1st January, 1974, capital expenditure to which this Schedule applies on the purchase of machinery to be installed or used solely in such building which building, and machinery are subsequently used for the purposes of an approved business and such expenditure has not been incurred substantially for the replacement of machinery previously in use in an existing business carried on by such owner or lessee, an amount equal to twenty per cent of such capital expenditure shall be deducted in computing his gains or profits for the year of income in which the building is first so used or, at the election of such person, for any subsequent year of income, and it shall be lawful for such person to elect that the amount of such deduction be deducted in such portions from the gains or profits for such year and such subsequent years as he may appoint.

25. Subject to this Schedule, where a resident person carrying on the business of a shipowner incurs capital expenditure to which this Schedule applies-

Ships

- (a) on the purchase of a new and hitherto unused power-driven ship of more than 495 tons, gross; or
- (b) on the purchase, and subsequent relating for the purposes of such business, of a used power-driven ship of more than 495 tons gross, an amount equal to forty per cent of such capital expenditure shall be deducted in computing his gains or profits for the years of income in which the ship is first so used or, at the election of such person, for any subsequent year of income, and it shall be lawful for such person to elect that the amount of such deduction be deducted in such portions from the gains and profits for such year or such subsequent years as he may appoint:

Provided that-

- (a) not more than one shipping investment deduction shall be allowed in respect of the same ship;
- (b) no shipping investment deduction shall be allowed in respect of the purchase and refitting of a used ship unless the expenditure on refitting represents not less than twenty-five per cent of the total capital expenditure incurred; and
- (c) where a ship in respect of which a shipping investment deduction has been given, is sold within a period of five years from the end of the year of income in which such deduction was given, the deduction shall be withdrawn and treated as income of the vendor for the year of income in which the sale takes place.

26. Where capital expenditure is incurred on the construction of an industrial building to which paragraph 24 applies and which is sold before it is first used then the provisions of paragraph 4 shall apply.

Sales of
buildings

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Apportionment of consideration for sale exchanges etc of any property or of any hold interests

27.-(1) (a) Any reference in this Schedule to the sale of any property includes a reference to the sale of that property together with any other property; and, where property is sold together with other property, so much of the net proceeds of the sale of the whole property as the Commissioner may determine to be just and reasonable as property attributable to the first mentioned property shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be deemed to be net proceeds of the sale of the first mentioned property, and references to expenditure incurred on the provision or the purchases of property shall be construed accordingly.

(b) For the purposes of this paragraph all the property which is sold in pursuance of one bargain shall be deemed to be sold together, notwithstanding that separate prices are, or purport to be, agreed for separate items of that property or that there are, or Purport to be, separate sales of separate items of that property.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall, with the necessary adaptations, apply in relation to other sale moneys as they apply in relation to the net proceeds of sale.

(3) This Schedule shall have effect as if any reference therein to the sale of any property included a reference to the exchange of any property and in the case of a leasehold interest, also included a reference to the surrender thereof for valuable consideration; and any provisions of this Schedule referring to sales shall have effect accordingly with the necessary adaptations and, in particular with the adaptations that references to the net proceeds of sale and to the price shall be taken to include references to the consideration for the exchange or surrender and references to capital sums included in the price shall be taken to include references to so much of the consideration as would have been a capital sum if it had taken the form of a money payment.

Interpretation of certain references to expenditure, etc

28.-(1) Unless the context otherwise require, references in this Schedule to capital expenditure and capital sums in relation to the person incurring such expenditure, or paying such sums, do not include any expenditure or sum which is deductible otherwise than under this Schedule for the purpose of ascertaining his total income.

(2) Any reference in this Schedule to the date on which expenditure is incurred shall be construed as a reference to the date when the sum in question becomes payable.

Subsidies

29.-(1) Expenditure shall not be regarded for any of the purposes of this Schedule as having been incurred by any person in so far as it has been, or is to be, met directly or indirectly by any Government or a local authority, or by any person, whether in United Republic or elsewhere, other than the first mentioned person.

(2) In considering whether, for the purposes of this Schedule, any expenditure has been met or is to be met directly or indirectly by anyone other than the person incurring the expenditure, there shall be left out of account-

(a) any insurances, moneys or other compensation moneys payable in respect of any asset which has been demolished, destroyed or put out of use; and

(b) any expenditure met, or to be met, by any person, other than a Government or a local authority being expenditure in respect of which, a part from the item, no deduction could be made under sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph

(3) Where a person, for the purposes of a business of a business carried on or to be carried on by him or by a tenant of land in which he has an interest contributes a capital sum (hereinafter referred to as a contribution) to expenditure on the provision of an asset being expenditure which, a part from sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, would have been regarded as wholly incurred by another person and in respect of which, a part from such sub-paragraph, a deduction would have been made under this Schedule, then, subject to this paragraph, such deductions, if any, shall be made to the contributor as would have been made to him if his contribution had been expenditure on the provision, for the purposes of that business, of a similar asset.

(4) Subject to this Schedule, the amount of the deductions and the manner in which they are to be made shall be determined on the following basis-

(a) the asset shall be deemed to continue at all material times to be in use for the purposes of the business;

(b) where the asset is machinery and, when the contribution was made, the business was carried on or was to be carried on by a tenant of land in which the contributor has an interest, the contributor shall be deemed to have let the machinery to such tenant on such terms that the burden of the wear and tear thereof falls directly on the contributor.

[SCH. II)

(5) Where, when the contribution was made, the business for the purposes of which it was made was carried on or was to be carried on by the contributor, then, on any transfer of the business or any part thereof-

- (a) where the transfer is of the whole business, the deductions thereafter shall be made to the transferee.
- (b) where the transfer is of part only of the business, item (a) shall have effect with respect to so much of the deduction as the Commissioner may determine is properly referable to the part of the business transferred.

(6) Where, when the contribution was made, the business was carried on or was to be carried on by a tenant of land in which the contributor had an interest, the deduction for any year of income shall be made to the person who is entitled to the contributor's interest in the land.

30. If deduction is made under any Part in respect of any property, or in respect of capital expenditure on any property, in computing the gains or profits of any person for any year of income then, to the extent to which such a deduction has been made, no further deduction shall be made under that Part or any other Part or under any other provision of this Act in respect of, or in respect of Capital expenditure on, that property in ascertaining the total income of that person for the same or any previous or subsequent year of income:

Provided that this paragraph shall have no application to an investment deduction.

31. The amount of any deduction made under this Schedule may be increased to such an amount as may be prescribed for the Minister either generally, or in relation to any particular class of business, or in a particular instance.

32.-(1) in this Schedule, except where the context otherwise requires-

"approved business" means a business declared by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, to be approved for the purposes of Part V of this Schedule.

Other provisions as to interpretation

"control" in relation to a body corporate, means the power of a person to secure, by means of the holding of shares or the possession of voting power in relation to that or any other body corporate, or by virtue of any powers conferred by the articles of association or other document regulating that or any other body corporate, that the affairs of the first mentioned body corporate are conducted in accordance with the wishes of that person and in relation to a partnership means the right to a share of more than one-half of the assets or of more than one-half of the income of the partnership;

"concession" means a right or privilege granted by the Government, or any local or other authority in any of the Partner States;

"hotel" shall have the meaning assigned to that expression in the, Hotel Levy Act, 1972;

Acts 1972 No. 23

"income" includes any amount on which a charge to tax is authorized to be made under this Act;

"machinery" includes ships and plant use in carrying on any business;

"sale moneys" means, in relation to-

- (a) a sale of any property, the net proceeds of the sale;
- (b) the coming to an end of an interest in property, any compensation payable in respect of that property;
- (c) the demolition or destruction of any property, the net amount received for the remains of the property, together with any insurance or salvage money, reserved in respect of the demolition or destruction and any other compensation of any description received in respect thereof, in so far as that compensation consists of capital sums.

[SCH.- II-III]

(2) Any reference in this Schedule to any building, machinery, works, asset or farmhouse shall, except where the reference is to the whole of a building, be construed as including a reference to a part of any such building, machinery, works, asset or farmhouse.

(3) Any reference in this Schedule to the time of any sale shall be construed as a reference to the time of completion or the time when possession is given, whichever is the earlier.

(4) For the purposes of this Schedule the price which any property would have fetched if sold in the open market shall be determined by the Commissioner.

(5) Where any income of an accounting period ending on some day other than the last day of any year of income is taken into account for the purpose of ascertaining total income for any year of income, then any reference in this Schedule to year of income shall be construed as a reference to such accounting period:

Provided that where any deduction under this Schedule is related to a year of income and any income of an accounting period is so taken into account then, if such accounting period is more or less than twelve months, the amount of such deduction shall be proportionately increased or decreased, as the case may be.

- (b) references in the Personal Tax Act, 1967 to the Appeals Boards and the High Court as the court to which an appeal from a decision of any such Appeals Board lies, shall be construed as references to the Regional Appeals Boards and the Tribunal established under this Act.

(3) Subject to this Schedule the administrative and procedural provisions of his Act shall apply in all matters relating to the administration of laws referred to in subsections (2), (3) and (4) of section 139 as if such provisions were part of those laws and were substituted for the corresponding provisions therein.

2. Any legal proceedings commenced prior to 1st January, 1974, under the Management Act or the Personal Tax Act, 1967 shall not abate by reason only of the operation of subsection (2) of section 139 of this Act, and where the Commissioner-General or any other public officer was a party to any such proceedings the Commissioner shall be substituted as a party in place of the Commissioner-General.

3.-(1) Subject to this Schedule, the continuity of the operation of the laws relating to tax on income shall not be affected by the substitution of this Act for the Management Act or the Personal Tax Act, 1967 and accordingly-

- (a) so much of any enactment or document as refers, whether expressly or by implication, to or to things done or to be done under or for the purposes of any provision of this Act shall, in so far as the nature of the subject matter of the enactment or document permits, be construed as including in relation to the times, years or periods, circumstances or purposes in relation to which the corresponding provision in the Management Act or, as the case may be, the Personal Tax Act, 1967 has or had effect, reference to or as the case may be, to things done or to be done under, or for the purposes of, that corresponding provision;
- (b) so much of any enactment or document as refers, whether expressly or by implication, to or to things done, to be done under or for the purposes of, any provision of the Management Act or the Personal Tax Act, 1967 shall, if and so far as the nature of the subject matter of the enactment or document permits, be construed as including in relation to the times, years or periods circumstances or purposes in relation to which the corresponding provisions of this Act has effect, a reference to, or, as the case may be, to things done or deemed to be done or to be done under or for the purposes of, that corresponding provision.

[SCH. VI]

(2) References in this paragraph to things done or to be done under any provision include in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the references, references to charges to tax, deductions, personal allowances, reliefs, repayments, assessments, notices, or returns made, granted, served or furnished, or to be made, granted served or furnished, under that provision.

4. Notwithstanding any provision of this Schedule where any objection or legal Proceedings in relation, to any assessment of tax or for the recovery of any tax or penalty due under the Management Act or the Personal Tax Act, 1967-

(a) is pending on 31st December, 1973 before any public officer, committee, Board, court or other authority, such objection or proceeding may be determined and concluded as if this Act had not been enacted;

(b) is instituted after 31st December, 1973, such objection or proceeding may be instituted with the Commissioner or in the Appeals Boards or the Tribunal as if the objection, assessment or tax to which such objection or proceedings relate were objection, assessment or tax under this Act and provisions of the Act relating to jurisdiction and procedure shall apply accordingly:

Provided that in determining any question affecting liability and amount of tax due the Commissioner, the Appeals Board or the Tribunal shall have regard to the relevant provisions of the Management Act or, as the case may be, the Personal Tax Act, 1967.

5 Where the ascertainment of the total income of any person for the year of income 1973 results in a deficit, the total income of such person for the year of income 1974 shall be computed for the purposes of subsection (4) of section 16 of this Act as if such deficit first occurs in the year of income 1973.

6. Where any farmer has elected under section 16 of the Management Act not to take into account the value of livestock and produce at the beginning and end of each year of income for the purposes of ascertaining his income therefrom for each such year of income, then such election shall be deemed to be an election made in accordance with section 18 of this Act.

7. Where, immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, there is for the purpose of the Second Schedule to the Management Act in relation to any person any residue of expenditure or any expenditure still unallowed, then such residue of expenditure or expenditure still unallowed, as the case may be, shall, in relation to such person, be the residue of expenditure or expenditure still unallowed, as the case may be, on the commencement of this Act for the purposes of the Second Schedule to this Act.

8. Where under this Act-

(a) any sum is or is deemed to be income of, or in respect of, a year of income prior to the commencement of this Act; or

(b) any sum is deemed to be an amount received under an approved pension scheme, in any year of income prior to the commencement of this Act; or

(c) the Commissioner may divide any amount into portions and any such portion is taken into account in computing the, gains or profits or in ascertaining total income for any of income prior to the commencement of this Act, then an assessment in relation thereto for such year of income may be made as if such sum or portion, as the case may be, had been income charged to tax under the Management Act, and where the Personal Tax Act, 1967 would have applied to such. income, as if such income had been chargeable to personal tax under that Act, and as if the Management Act and the Personal Tax Act, 1967 had not been repealed.

9. Where under the Management Act the income of a beneficiary under any trust or settlement has been charged to tax for any year of income on the basis of the amount receivable under such trust or settlement in such year of income, Nothing in this Act shall operate to charge such beneficiary on income received after the commencement of this Act which has been charged on him under the Management Act

10. Any arrangements specified in notices issued under section 55 of the Management Act shall continue to have effect as if they had been made under section 43 of this Act.

11. All minerals specified for the purposes of the Management Act shall continue to remain specified minerals for the purposes of this Act until such time as the Minister may, by order in the Gazette, provide.

[SCH. VI]

12.-(1) All pension funds, pension schemes and Provident funds approved for the purposes of the Management Act shall continue in effect as approved pension funds, pension schemes or provident funds, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Act until such time as the Minister may, by order in the Gazette, otherwise provide.

(2) Where prior to the commencement of this Act contributions were made to an approved pension scheme or an approved pension fund and a refund of any such contribution is made after the commencement of this Act, the provisions of section 8 of the Management Act shall apply in relation to such refund as if that section were part of this Act.

13. Every order, made under the Management Act exempting any income from tax shall continue in force as an order made under this Act-

(3) until 30th June, 1975; or

(b) until such date as the Minister may, by order in the Gazette, prescribe in relation to any such income, whichever date first occurs.

14. No person who has been allowed any deduction in relation to any capital expenditure or investment under the Second Schedule of the Management Act shall be allowed my such deduction in respect of the same capital expenditure or investment under the Schedule to this Act.

15. All crops which were "permanent or semi-permanent" crops for the purposes of the Management Act shall be deemed to be such crops for the purposes of this Act until such time as the Minister may, by order in the Gazette, otherwise direct.

16. Subject to the provisions of sections 139 and 140 of this Act and of the provisions of this Schedule, sections 14 and 15 of the Interpretation of Laws and General Causes Act, 1972 shall apply to the repeal of the Personal Tax Act, 1967 and the disapplication of the Management Act as if both of those Acts were Acts to which those sections apply and which are replaced by this Act.
