Grants to local government
authorities

10.-(1) There shall be paid annually to an urban authority by way of grants from the public revenue of the United Republic the following amounts, for which payment there shall be no further authorization other than this section, that is to say-

- (a) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister for the time being responsible for finance from time to time, determine as being the cost incurred by the urban authority in the provision and maintenance of public health services, educational services; construction, reconstruction and maintenance of roads and the construction and maintenance of sewerage and agricultural extension services;
- (b) a sum equivalent to the total expenditure incurred by the urban authority in connection with outbreaks of infectious diseases-
- (c) a sum equivalent to thirty-three and one-third per centum, in the case of a municipal council and, in the case of a town council equivalent to fifty per centum, of the total annual salaries of all heads of departments of the urban authority concerned-

(2) The Government may, subject to such general or specific conditions, limitations or exceptions as it may impose or make, make such grants to any urban authority relating to the development or maintenance of any services within its area as he may determine.

(3) There shall, be paid annually to a district council by way of grants from the public revenue of the United Republic the following amounts, for which payment there shall be no further authorization other than this section, that is to say-

- (a) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister for the time being responsible for finance, determine, as being costs incurred by the district council on the construction, reconstruction or maintenance of roads within the area of the authority which are classified under the Highways Ordinance as district roads;

- (b) a sum equivalent to such percentage, as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister for the time being responsible for finance, determine, of the total annual salaries of any officers employed and paid by the authority whose appointment and salaries are approved for this purpose by the Minister;
- (c) such sum as the Minister may from time to time direct in respect of the recurrent cost to the authority of maintaining public health services in the area of the authority and of measures taken outside the area of authority and approved by the Minister for the prevention and abatement of nuisances causing danger or injury to health within the area;
- (d) a sum equivalent to all expenditure incurred by the authority in connection with outbreaks of infectious diseases;
- (e) such sum as the Minister may, after consultation with the Minister for the time being responsible for finance, determine as being the costs incurred by the district council on the provision and maintenance of water supply services and educational services within the area of the authority.
- (4) Payments of the amounts specified in subsection (3) (a) and (e) shall be subject to the conditions that-
- (a) the Minister approves the standard of construction or reconstruction, or of construction and maintenance of the roads in question before the cost on it is incurred;
- (b) subject to the direction of the Minister in that behalf, provision shall be made in the annual estimates of the authority for recovery of the remaining moiety of the costs so incurred (or where the moiety is to be met from loan funds, from the recovery of interest and loan charges) out of rates to be imposed by the authority;
- (c) the authority shall cause a special account to be kept of the costs so incurred and of expenditure incurred in connection with outbreaks of infectious diseases and, where any question arises as to the correctness or admissibility of any charge against the special account, the decision of the Minister shall be final.
- (5) The Government may, subject to such general or specific conditions, limitations or exceptions as it may impose, make such grant to any rural authority relating to the development or maintenance of any services within its area as it may determine.

11.-(1) A local government authority may, from time to time, with the approval of the Minister, given after consultation with the Minister for the time being responsible for finance, raise within the Power to borrow

United Republic loans for such amounts, from such sources, in such manner, for such purposes and upon such conditions as the authority concerned may deem fit subject to subsection (2).

(2) Loans raised under this section may be secured upon the revenues of the authority or by mortgage or charge of any land or premises in its ownership or disposition or may be secured both upon such revenues and by such mortgage or charge and shall be repaid within such period as the Minister may approve.

(3) Where any interest or any payment of capital due on any loan remains unpaid for three months after a demand for it has been served on the authority in writing by the person entitled to do so, the Minister may-

(a) order that a rate necessary to produce the sum due be levied upon and collected from the rate-payers of the area either immediately or at such date as he shall order, and for the purpose of raising that sum the Minister shall in addition have the same power as the authority concerned of making and levying a rate under this Act or any other written law;

(b) if requested so to do by that person, order the sale of any property, on which the loan is secured.

(4) The Minister shall have and may exercise all power conferred upon him by subsection (3) in any case where a loan made to an authority has been guaranteed by the Government and where under the terms of that guarantee the Government has made to or to the order of the lender payment of capital or interest due on the loan.

(5) The power of the Minister under this section of making and levying a rate and issuing a requisition may be exercised at any time.

overdrafts

12.-(1) Subject to subsection (2), a local government authority may, with the approval of the proper officer, obtain advances from banks by overdraft upon the credit of the authority.

(2) No overdraft shall at any time in any circumstances exceed the income of the authority in the previous financial year.

PART III

MAKING AND COLLECTION OF RATES

power to impose taxes
and rates

13.-(1) Subject to this Act and to rules made by the Minister under this section, a local government authority may make by-laws imposing such rates to be paid by the inhabitants or such categories of inhabitants, for, on or in connection with such services, things, matters or acts as the authority may describe or specify in the by-laws in question.

(2) The Minister shall, after consultation with the Minister for the time being responsible for finance, make rules, to be known as rating rules, prescribing limitations and imposing conditions upon which any local authority or category of local authorities may make legislation imposing rates under this section.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred in the preceding provisions of this section, the Minister may in rules made under subsection (1), provide for procedures to be complied with by local government authorities for the purposes of imposing and collecting rates. in their respective areas;

14. Every district council and every urban authority shall, subject to this Act, make or levy such rates as will ensure the raising of income from rates which, in combination with income from other sources of revenue, will be sufficient to provide for such part of the estimated total expenditure to be incurred by it during the period in respect of which the rate is made or levied as is to be met out of money raised by rates including in that expenditure any additional amount as is, in the opinion of the authority, required to cover expenditure previously incurred or to meet contingencies or to defray any expenditure which may fall to be defrayed before the date on which the money to be received in respect of the next subsequent rate will become available; save that an authority which submits for the necessary approval a proposal to make or levy a rate which complies with the requirements contained in this section shall be deemed to have complied therewith.

Duty to make
rates

15.-(1) Subject to the prior approval of the Minister, and to the provisions of subsection (2), a local government authority may make and levy an annual rate on every person of or above the age of eighteen years who is a person in respect of whom, or a member of a category or description of persons in respect of which the functions of the authority are exercisable and who resides or owns property in its area of jurisdiction, based upon any one or more of the following systems, that is to say-

Methods of rating

- (a) a uniform rate per capita;
- (b) a graduated rate per capita;
- (c) a rate based on the value of immovable property. situated within the area of the authority or in any part of that area:
- (d) a rate assessed on the earnings, livelihood or possessions of persons in the area liable to payment of rate.

(2) Nothing in this section or in this Part shall be construed as exempting any person from paying rate under this section for the reason only that a tax or other payment has been or is liable to be paid or made to the Government in respect of any property, income, business or activity.

- 16. Notice of every rate made under section 15 shall be given by the local government authority making the rate within fifteen days after the passing of a resolution making the rate, and the rate shall not be valid unless notice of it is duly given in the manner for the time being prescribed by rules made under section 30.
- 17.-(1) For the purposes of this section, the term "resident" means any person who habitually resides in the area of jurisdiction of a local government authority.
- (2) It shall be the duty of every resident of a local government authority to pay rates or duties which he is by or under this Act required to pay to the authority for the purposes of ensuring the development of the area in accordance with the purposes and provisions of the Act, unless he is otherwise exempted from payment of the rate or duty by this Act or by the authority concerned under this Act.
- 18. Where a local government authority gives notice of a rate in accordance with section 16, every person liable to pay the rate shall pay the amount of the rate to a rate collector or other person duly authorized or appointed by the authority in question to collect and receive the rate at such time and at such place as may be specified by the authority from time to time.
- 19.-(1) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act to the contrary-
- (a) if any person who would otherwise be liable for payment of a uniform or graduated rate to any local government authority produces to the chief executive officer of that authority or rate collector appointed by the authority a valid receipt issued by or on behalf of any other local government authority evidencing the payment by him of the uniform or graduated rate levied by that other authority for the current year, being a rate which he was liable to pay under the provisions of this Act, he shall not be liable for payment of that uniform or graduated rate for that year levied by the first-mentioned local government authority except to the extent, if any, by which the uniform or graduated rate exceeds that to which the receipt relates;
- (b) the following tenements shall be exempt from assessment and rating under this Act, namely-
- (i) all lands and buildings appropriated exclusively for the purposes of public worship;
  - (ii) cemeteries and burial grounds;
  - (iii) charitable and educational institutions;
  - (iv) any tenements specifically exempted by the Minister by order published in Gazette.

(2) A local government authority may reduce or remit payment of any rate on account of the inability of any person liable to pay it who is completely dependent on others for his livelihood and may, for the like cause exempt such persons from liability to pay the rate.

(3) Any sums paid as rates imposed under any written law in respect of premises within the area of a local government authority payable by person resident within that area in respect of the year in which the local government authority is established shall be deemed to be sums paid on account of rates to be made and levied by the authority in respect of that year.

20.-(1) If any person fails to pay any rate for which he is liable on or before the date on which it is payable, the local government authority concerned may recover it as a civil debt together with costs and such penalty as may be prescribed by rules made under section 31.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), in any proceeding to recover a rate or a penalty, the rate books and other records of the local government authority concerned and all certified copies of entries purporting to be made in them signed by the Chairman shall, upon their production be prima facie, evidence of the rate, and of the matters stated in them, without any evidence that the requirements of this Act have been complied with.

Claim for amount of rate

(3) It shall be competent for any person proceeded against under this section to offer evidence to prove the contrary.

(4) Any rate dues under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be a local rate within the meaning of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 39 of the Bankruptcy Ordinance.

21.-(1) Any person who neglects or refuses to pay any rate payable by him to a local government authority under this Act within three months after the rate becomes due and payable shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months unless he proves that the apparent neglect or failure was due to provable circumstances beyond his control.

Penalty for failure to pay rates and for wilful misrepresentation

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall, in any proceedings under that subsection, be construed as making available to any able-bodied person the defence of ignorance of or failure to remember the obligation to pay the rate concerned, nor shall poverty as such be available as an alternative or original defence for failure or total inability to pay rates.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect or be construed as affecting the right of a local government authority to recover by suit any penalty prescribed by rules made under section 31 of this Act.

(4) Any person who wilfully misrepresents his rateable capacity in any way, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for inciting a person to refuse to pay rate etc

22. Any person who without lawful justification or excuse incites any person to refuse to pay any rate payable by him under this Act after it becomes due and payable, or who incites or assists any person to misrepresent his rateable capacity shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

Unauthorized collection of rates

23. Any person who-

- (a) not being authorized under this Act or by the local government authority concerned or by a rate collector so to do, collects or attempts to collect any rate under this Act; or
  - (b) collects or attempts to collect any rates other than rates described in this Act or authorized by any other written law,
- shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

Duty to give information

24.-(1) Any person required to give any information shall give all such information as may be reasonably required of him by any local government authority, rate collector, or assessment committee appointed under section 28, with a view to obtaining information for the assessment or collection of rates.

(2) For the purposes of obtaining information under subsection (1), a local government authority, rate collector or assessment committee, as the case may be, may require any person to attend before it or him at such time and place as it or he may appoint.

Refusal to give information

25.-(1) Any person who, having been required to give information under section 24, wilfully misleads or attempts to mislead any local government authority, or its agent, rate collector or assessment committee on any matter connected with the collection of a rate shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any person who, having been required to give information under section 24, neglects, refuses or, without lawful excuse, fails to give the information required shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

(3) Any person who, having been required to attend before a local government authority, rate collector or assessment committee under section 24, neglects, fails or refuses to so attend at the time and place appointed by the authority, collector or committee, as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both that fine and imprisonment.

26.-(1) Any local authority responsible for the collection of rates may, in writing, appoint any suitable person to be a rate collector in respect of any area or part of an area.

Rate collectors

(2) It shall be the duty of every rate collector-

- (a) to furnish in writing to the local government authority concerned a nominal roll of all rateable persons or tenements, as the case may be, in the area or part of an area for which he is appointed;
- (b) to collect and receive from each person liable for the payment of the rates in the area or part of an area for which he is appointed the rates payable by each such person;
- (c) to pay all amounts so collected to the local government authority concerned; and
- (d) to report to the local government authority concerned the name of any person who has failed to pay the amount due from him for rate.

27. Any rate collector appointed under this Act who-

- (a) fails to deposit with the local government authority concerned any such sum of money collected by him as rates;
  - (b) knowingly demands from any person an amount in excess of the dully assessed rates,
  - (c) recklessly or knowingly renders false returns, whether orally or in writing, of the numbers of rate payers or the amount of rates collected or received by him;
  - (d) willfully fails to carry out any duty imposed on him as a rate collector by subsection (2) of section 26 of this Act,
- shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

Offences by rate collectors

Appointment of agents

28.-(1) A local government authority may, with the consent of the proper officer, appoint as agents for the collection of rates imposed by it from persons liable to pay them but who are not within its area of jurisdiction, such persons as it thinks fit and may, subject to the provisions of this Act, enter into such agreements as it may deem necessary with any persons so appointed, as to the performance of their functions and to remuneration.

(2) A person appointed as agent under this section shall be deemed, within the area for which he is appointed, to have all the powers as to collection of rates as the authority appointing him may exercise and may sue for the recovery of the amount of rates due with full costs of the suit, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the area for which he is appointed; save that the power of recovery of rates exercisable under this subsection shall be in addition to the powers exercisable in that behalf under the provisions of section 20.

(3) Section 27 shall apply to any agent who collects any sum as rates under the provisions of this section.

Assessment
committees

29. A local government authority may appoint such assessment committee or committees as it thinks fit for the purpose of assessing the liability of any person or persons for payment of any rate levied or to be levied under this Act.

Deduction of rates from wages of employees

30.-(1) A local government authority may, by notice in writ-require an employer, who carries on his business in the area of the authority, to deduct the rate payable to the authority by any persons employed by him or any category of them from the salaries, wages and other moneys due by such employer to those persons, and to apply the amount so deducted to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority in the notice.

(2) Every notice-

(a) shall-

- (i) inform the employer of the amount of the rate payable by each of his employees concerned;
- (ii) require the issue by the employer to each person by whom the rate is payable of an acknowledgement of every sum deducted by the employer, and the issue by the employer of a receipt to every person by whom the rate is payable and from whose salary, wages or other moneys the full amount of rate due from that person has been deducted; and
- (iii) specify the date by which any sums deducted shall be paid by the employer to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the council in the notice;

(b) may-

- (i) require the deduction of the rate to be made in one lump sum or in not more than three instalments;
- (ii) require the making of deductions before the date on which the rate is payable;
- (iii) include such other provisions as may be necessary or convenient for the more effectual collection of the rate by means of deductions by employers and payment of the amount payable to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority.

(3) the local government authority may by notice in writing to the employer amend, cancel or replace any notice issued under subsection (1).

(4) Subject to subsection (5), an employer required to deduct a rate under this section shall deduct and retain the rate, and he shall pay the amounts deducted to the local government authority or to, a rate collector nominated by the authority.

(5) Where any employee produces to the employer a statement issued by the local government authority stating that he is exempt from the liability to pay the rate, or a valid receipt issued by the local government authority acknowledging the payment of a rate by the employee to the authority for the current year the employer shall report the matter to the authority and shall not deduct any sum in respect of the rate from the salary, wages or other moneys due to the employee after the date of the production of the receipt or statement unless as directs by the authority, and the authority shall not give any such directions unless the receipt relates to an amount less than the total rate payable by the employee to the authority for that year or the statement relating to the exemption has ceased to be of effect.

(6) Where an employer required to deduct a rate or any instalment of a rate under this section fails, refuses or neglects to do so in accordance with the notice under which the deductions are made, he shall himself be liable for the amount which, but for his default, should have been so deducted, and a local government authority may recover the amount as a debt due to the authority, together with full costs of suit, in a competent court.

(7) Any employer who, having made any deduction under this section, fails without reasonable cause to pay the amount to the authority or to a rate collector nominated by the authority in accordance with the notice under which the deductions are made, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings and, in addition, to an amount equal to the amount of any deduction which he shall have made and not so paid.

(8) Any person who fraudulently alters or defaces any such acknowledgment or receipt as is referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

(9) Subject to subsection (10) any employer, and any employee or servant of an employer engaged in the making of deductions under the provisions of this section, who omits without reasonable cause to give any such acknowledgement or receipt as is referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) in accordance with the provisions of the notice under which the deductions are made or in any manner delays or defers without reasonable cause the giving of it or, with intent to defraud, gives such an acknowledgment or receipt for an amount other than that deducted, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both that fine and imprisonment.

(10) An employer who employs any person for the making of deduction under this section shall not be guilty of an offence under this subsection unless the act or omission constituting the offence was done or omitted on his express instructions.

Rules relating to rates and rating

31.-(1) The Minister may make rules-

- (a) prescribing the notice to be given by a local government authority of its intention to make and levy a rate or impose a tax;
- (b) prescribing the manner in which notice of a rate shall be published under section 16;
- (c) prescribing the procedure for the appointment of assessment committees under section 28, and the procedure, powers and duties of those committees;
- (d) prescribing the method of assessment of property or possessions for the purposes of any rate or tax to be levied or imposed under this Act;
- (e) providing for the hearing of appeals against any such assessment;
- (f) prescribing the penalty, which shall not exceed half the amount of the rate due and unpaid, which may be recovered under subsection (1) of section 20.

(2) The proper officer may issue orders applying to a particular local government authority for all the purposes set forth in subsection (1) save that set out in paragraph (f).

(3) An order by a proper officer under subsection (1) shall be published in such manner as is customary for the community concerned and shall not require to, but may, be published in the Gazette.

(4) In the event of any conflict between rules made by the Minister under subsection (1) and orders made by a proper officer under subsection (2), the former, irrespective of the date of their making, shall for all purposes prevail.

32. Proceeding either to enforce the payment of any rate or tax payable under the provisions of this or for the recovery of any penalties under the provisions of this Part or any subsidiary legislation made pursuant to them may, without prejudice to the right of any other person or authority to institute criminal proceedings, be taken by local government authority responsible for the collection of the rate or tax before any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) A cheque upon any banking account kept and maintained by a local government authority shall be signed by such officers of the authority, not being less than two in number, as may be authorized in that behalf by resolution of the local government authority.

40.(1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, every local government authority shall cause to be provided, kept and maintained books of accounts and records with respect to-

accounts

- (a) the receipt and expenditure of moneys by, and other financial transactions of, the authority,
- (b) the assets and liabilities of the authority, and shall cause to be made out for every financial year a balance sheet showing details of the income and expenditure of the authority and all its assets and liabilities.

(2) All books of accounts and records of all local government authorities shall, for the purpose of enabling comparative statements of revenue, expenditure and costs in different local government authorities to be prepared and to secure general uniformity in their accounts, be kept and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed in financial memoranda.

41.(1) For the purposes of this Act the financial year of each local government authority shall be twelve months ending on and including the thirty-first day of December of each calendar year, provided that the first financial year of each authority shall commence on the date of its establishment and may be shorter or longer than twelve months.

Statement of accounts to be furnished

(2) Within such period as may be appointed by the Minister from the end of each financial year, every local government authority shall cause its accounts or the preceding financial year to be balanced and a balance sheet with respect thereto and a statement or abstract of those accounts to be prepared.

Financial
memoranda

42. The Minister may issue written instructions, to be known as Financial Memoranda, not inconsistent with the provisions of this or the Act, for the better control and management of the financial business of local government authorities, and for the regulation of the procedure of finance and staff committees; and such instructions may be issued either generally or respecting any particular authority or the authorities in any particular area of Mainland Tanzania, and shall be observed and carried out by the authority or authorities regarding which the instructions are issued.

Estimates

43.-(1) Every local government authority shall, not less than two months before the beginning of every financial year, or such shorter period as may in any case be appointed by the proper officer, at a meeting specially convened for the purpose, pass a detailed budget (in this Act called "the annual budget") of the estimates of the amounts respectively-

- (a) expected to be received; and
- (b) expected to be disbursed, by the authority during that financial year, and whenever circumstances so require, an authority may pass a supplementary budget in any financial year.

(2) The annual budget and every supplementary budget shall be in such form and include such details as the proper officer may approve.

(3) Forthwith upon passing any annual budget or any supplementary budget the local government authority shall submit to the proper officer for his approval the annual budget or, as the case may be, the supplementary budget.

(4) The proper officer shall, upon receipt of the annual or supplementary budget, consider it and approve or disapprove it as a whole or may approve it subject to such amendments as he considers fit regarding any item or items in the budget, and shall notify the authority accordingly; save that if a budget is not approved or disapproved by the proper officer before the commencement of the financial year for which it is prepared, the local government authority concerned may by resolution authorize expenditure, in accordance with the budget, up to fifteen per cent of its revenue for the preceding year.

(5) Where the proper officer approves the annual budget or supplementary budget as a whole, the budget as approved shall be binding on the local government authority, which shall confine its disbursement within the items and amounts contained in the applicable estimates as approved by the proper officer; but where budget is disapproved as a whole, no expenditure shall be incurred, no revenue shall be collected, nor shall any of the provisions of the budget put into operation without the prior approval of the proper officer.

(6) Where the proper officer disapproves of any item or items in a budget submitted to him for approval the remainder of any such budget excluding the item or items so disapproved shall be deemed to be an approved budget or, as the case may be, supplementary budget, but the authority shall not incur any expenditure or collect revenue, as the case may be, in respect of the item or items disapproved without the prior approval of the proper officer.

(7) Where the proper officer disapproves any annual or supplementary budget as a whole, or disapproves of any item or items in the budget and subsequently approves an amended or varied budget or amended or varied item or items, then that budget or the item or items shall, unless the proper officer directs otherwise, be deemed to be and to have been an approved budget or an approved item or items from the beginning of the financial year to which that budget or the item or items relate.

(8) Subject to the provisions of any financial memoranda relating to it, a local government authority may by resolution-

- (a) adjust expenditure limits to take account of circumstances not reasonably foreseeable at the time the budget was prepared, subject to submitting a supplementary budget to the proper officer within two months of the alteration of expenditure limits becoming necessary;
- (b) authorize the expenditure of money appropriated for any one purpose in an approved budget on any other purpose contained in the budget;
- (c) with the prior consent of the proper officer, incur expenditure for any purpose in respect of which provision is not made in the approved budget, but no expenditure shall in any case be so incurred in respect of any purpose where the item in the budget relating to it has been disapproved by the proper officer.

44. A proper officer may authorize in writing any person to have access to the records of an authority, and any person so authorized shall at all reasonable times have access to and be entitled to inspect all books, accounts and records of the authority, and may advise the authority on the matters contained in them and submit reports to the proper officer in connection with, the records.

Access to
local government authorities

C- Audit

Audit of
accounts

45.-(1) The accounts of every district council, and of every urban authority, shall be audited internally by an internal auditor employed by the authority concerned, and the external auditor for each of those authorities shall be the Controller and Auditor-General.

(2) The accounts of a township authority shall be audited by such auditor as may be appointed in that behalf by the proper officer in writing with the prior approval of the Minister.

(3) The accounts of a village council shall be audited by such public officers or organizations as the proper officer may in writing direct.

(4) As soon as possible after the close of the financial year of a local government authority the authority shall submit its accounts for audit to the auditors, who should complete the audit not later than six months after the close of the financial year.

(5) Every authority shall permit the auditor to check any cash, investments or other assets in its possession or over which it has control and to have access at all times to all its accounts and all books, vouchers and papers relating to them.

Liability for
audit fees

46.-(1) Subject to subsection (2) and (3), a local government authority shall, within three months after the date of the signing by the auditor of the report on its accounts for the financial year concerned, pay to the auditor in respect of the services of the auditor such sum, not exceeding one per centum of the total expenditure of the authority which has been brought to account and reported on by the auditor for that financial year, as the Minister shall determine.

(2) Where the examination of accounts has, in the opinion of the Minister, made unusual demands on the time of the auditor as a result of unsatisfactory accounting or the occurrence of irregularities, the Minister may direct that a fee in excess of one per centum of the total expenditure of the local government authority shall be paid by the authority to the auditor.

(3) Where the auditor is not an officer or a department of the Government the sum to be paid by the authority to the auditor in respect of his services shall be such sum as may be agreed upon between the authority and the auditor.

evidence,

47.-(1) For the purposes of any examination of the accounts of a local government authority under this Part, the auditor may take evidence and examine witnesses upon oath or affirmation, which oath or affirmation the auditor is hereby empowered to administer, and may by summons under his hand require all such persons as he may think fit to appear personally before him at a time and place specified in the summons 'papers, including the minutes of the proceeding of the authority or of any committee or joint committee, as the auditor may consider necessary for the examination.

(2) Any person who when so required, without reasonable excuse-

- (a) neglects or refuses to comply with the terms of the summons;
- (b) having appeared, refuses to be examined on oath or affirmation or to take the oath or affirmation; or
- (c) having taken the oath or affirmation, refuses to answer the questions put to him, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction, for every neglect or refusal, to a fine not exceeding six hundred shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

48.-(1) The auditor shall make and sign a report to the local government authority on the accounts and the annual balance sheet and statement or abstract, and one copy each of the report together with the annual balance sheet and statement or abstract or a copy of it shall be sent to the Minister, the proper officer and the Director who, shall table the report before the council.

report

(2) The auditor shall, in his report, draw attention to every item of expenditure charged in the accounts which is not authorized by law or which has not been sanctioned by the proper officer, and shall also draw attention to any deficiency or loss incurred by the negligence or misconduct of any person accounting and to any sum which ought to have been but has not been brought to account by that person and shall certify the amount of that unlawful expenditure, deficiency or loss, or the sum which has not been brought to account.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as being in derogation of the power to surcharge persons conferred by section 51, and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby expressly declared that the power to surcharge may be exercised before or after the auditor has drawn attention to any item, deficiency, loss or sum pursuant to subsection (2).

(4) A copy of the annual balance sheet and statement or abstract and of the report of the auditor in respect of local government authority shall be submitted by the Minister before the National Assembly; and may also be furnished to any inhabitant of the area of the authority concerned upon the payment of such fee, if any, as may be specified by resolution of the authority.

Publication of accounts and audit report

49. Every local government authority shall at its own offices and in such other manner as may be directed by the proper officer publish within its area-

(a) the annual balance sheet and statement of abstract; and

(b) any report on the accounts made and signed by the auditor, within six months after the close of the financial year to which the accounts relate or within six months of the receipt of the report of the auditor, as the case may be.

Power of proper officer to sanction certain expenditure

50. The proper officer may, subject to any provisions of financial memoranda in that behalf or to any general or specific directions of the Minister, authorize any item of expenditure charged in the accounts of an authority but not authorized by law or sanctioned by him earlier and which is pointed out as such by the auditor pursuant to section 48.

Power to surcharge

51.-(1) In this section the expression "Principal Secretary" means the Principal Secretary to the Ministry responsible for local government.

(2) Where, in consequence of the audit carried out by him, an auditor becomes aware of-

(a) any payment made without due authority according to law;

(b) any deficiency or loss occasioned by negligence or misconduct;

(c) any failure to observe a policy of the highest thrift;

(d) any sum which ought to have been but was not brought to account, he shall report the matter to the proper officer who may, in the case of expenditure, disallow the same and in other cases call in question the sum concerned; and shall make a report thereon to the Chairman or Mayor of the local government authority who shall refer the report to the relevant committee of the authority, which shall consider every such report and thereafter shall advise the Principal Secretary, whether in the opinion of that Committee it is appropriate that any officer be surcharged in respect of the payment deficiency, loss or sum concerned, or that disciplinary proceedings be instituted against an officer, or whether a surcharge should be made and disciplinary proceedings instituted.

(3) The person surcharged may, not later than thirty days from receipt of the confirmation of the surcharge, appeal to the Minister or, where the surcharge relates to an amount exceeding two thousand shillings, to the High Court against the surcharge.

(4) The Chief Justice shall make rules governing the procedure for making appeals to the High Court under this section.

(5) Every sum surcharged pursuant to this section shall be paid to the fund from which it is taken by the person surcharged within thirty days from the date upon which confirmation of the surcharge by the proper officer is given, or the decision on appeal is given, as the case may be, and if the sum is not paid the authority concerned may recover the sum from the person surcharged in any competent court and shall be entitled to be paid their reasonable costs and expenses in such proceedings.

(6) In any proceedings for the recovery of a surcharged sum, a certificate by the auditor or the proper officer, as the case may be, subject to such modifications as may be necessary in consequence of any decision of the Minister or the High Court on appeal shall be conclusive evidence of the amount due and payable by the person concerned, and a certificate signed by the Chairman of the authority concerned or an officer whose duty it is to keep the accounts that the sum certified to be due has not been paid to him shall be conclusive evidence of non-payment, unless it is proved that the sum certified to be due has been paid since the date of the certificate.

PART V
